

COMPANY "I" WILL ATTEND STATE FAIR IN OCTOBER.

Captain W. A. Barrow announced Company "I" at their regular drill last Tuesday night that the Company would attend the State Fair to be held in Raleigh the week of October 20th, provided he can get as many as 35 or 40 enlisted men to go and to attend drills regularly from now until the State Fair opens. He desires that every member of Company "I" who wishes to take this trip be present at the Armory next Tuesday night Sept. 28th.

Musician Frazier McDevitt of Company "I" will participate in the Trumpeters' competition for the $20 prize, at the Fair and the whole Company is confident that he will bring home the honors for Company "I" as well as for Major Privott's Battalion and the Second Regiment.

This trip will not cost any member of the Company one cent as all of his expenses will be paid—both railroad fare, board and lodging—and no member of the Company should miss it.

The Edenton Company has always been conceded to be the best in the Second Regiment and at one time held the honor of being the best in the State, according to the statement of one of the Inspector-Instructors. Get busy, boys, and attend the Fair, win a prize and visit the capitol of the Old North State.

Capt. Barrow also wishes to state that all men wishing to enlist so as to be able to take this trip must do so before Oct. 5.

To Teach in November

Moonlight Schools for Adults Illiterates.

The month of November has been chosen by the State committee on Social Service as the period during which the moonlight schools shall be held throughout the State.

It has been decided to have meetings of the county committees on social service with the teachers of the counties at each county seat a week or more before the time for the schools to begin, and then to have meetings of the local committees and the local teachers on the eve of the opening of the schools, these to round out the arrangements and stir enthusiasm to the utmost. It will be permissible to change the dates in counties in which the county schools are not actually in progress during the whole of Nov.

The 12 lessons each on reading, writing and arithmetic, especially adapted for moonlight school work, have been adapted for publication in pamphlets form and for publication in the weekly newspapers of the State, so that the newspapers can be used as the actual text books in their respective counties.

Besides the whole educational forces of the State, including over 5,000 school teachers, there are pledged to special effort, the civic service organization of the State, the Federation of Women's Clubs with Mrs. Lingle of Davidson College at the head of a committee of 100 of the leading women of the State, the Farmers' Union, the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics and other strong forces throughout the State.

The social service committee has decided to launch no other civic service movement this season and concentrate energies and effort on this moonlight school movement.

Sunbury Notes.

After two weeks of extremely hot weather in which everything has suffered dreadfully we have been blessed today (September 21) with a nice refreshing shower, for which we feel very thankful. We feel sure of great and good results following our discouragement and doubt. Farmers have begun picking cotton and find it coming in very short indeed. Still they feel some compensation in the better prices received than had been expected earlier in the year.

Messrs Rountree and Hill having returned are busy getting their new goods on display.

On last Sunday while returning from Sabbath school Mr. Robb Barnes' horse became frightened at an automobile, throwing his wife and daughter from the cart in which they were riding, hurting them right badly. Miss Mand was not able to return to school on Monday morning. Her many friends hope however she may be restored to them.

Mr. Hurley Johnson and family of Norfolk, Va., motored down and spent the week end at his parental home near here.

Misses Harrell, Jordan and Whedbee returned Saturday from a ten days visit to their cousin, Mrs. T. A. Jordan of Suffolk, and report a very pleasant trip.

Mr. Jim Hill has recovered sufficiently to return to his home. We hope he may soon be restored to his usual good health.

A gentleman friend from Belvidere was in town Sunday as the guest of Miss Mary I. White, our new high school principal.

Business in all departments from now on will begin to take on new life, and let us hope crops will prove to be better than we expect them.

A farmer and his wife were sitting on the porch, the moon was shining bright, and they noticed a horse and buggy moving very slowly down the road. It passed the house a short distance and stopped. Curiosity compelled the man to go see what the trouble was, and imagine his surprise on seeing a man in his field pulling corn. He gathered his arms full and quietly walked out and drove away without thanking him.

(Special.)

On Friday afternoon of last week the young men of Silver Spring met the young men of Sunbury High School on the latter's diamond in a very close game of base ball. In spite of the fact that the game had not been advertised there were many visitors on the campus who gave much encouragement to the players on both sides. Mr. C. C. Edwards acted as umpire. After a hard fought game of 7 innings the score was reported to be 2 to 1 in favor of Sunbury. Not being content with last week's contest, the young men of the same places have decided to play again on the Sunbury High School diamond Friday afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and to the public is extended a very cordial invitation to see the game.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Copeland very pleasantly entertained the young people of Sunbury at their home Friday evening of last week. Several delightful contests were participated in and several selections of music rendered by some of the guests, after which delicious refreshments consisting of cream and cake were served.

The Sunbury High School is increasing in enrollment each week. At present there are 121 on the roll. The girls are preparing to organize a basket ball team having ordered the ball and having plans for the grounds to be put in readiness at an early date.
