
YOU CAN GET ANY ONE OF THE TEN NEW AUTUMN CHALMERS NOW; AND THE PRICES MAY NOT LOWER IN TWO OR THREE YEARS

Chalmers this year is setting ahead the Autumn buying season at least sixty days by offering for immediate purchase ten of the most eye-pleasing cars that ever bore the Chalmers name. They are Autumn Chalmers and they compel attention at any man's front door.

Such a wide range of selection, too. There's a five passenger car that reaches finality in good sense; here a Sedan that will cause wonder at its supreme light weight; a Cabriolet which the word "comfortable" ably describes; a stunning Roadster that any clever woman driver will like to get her hands on; a Speedster that tingles the blood of any regular fellow who wants the eighty miles an hour thrill; a sedate Limousine that spells coziness plus; a Town Car that will make ten women out of ten wish for Santa Claus right away; a Limousine Landaulet that for practicability is simply there!

No need to go on. You can't expect to discuss motor cars intelligently unless you see these. For they have a lure about them that is going to cause wide comment.

Mrs. Anna M. King Dead

On Thursday afternoon July 19, 1917, the death angel visited our home and took from us our darling mother. She had been in declining health for the last three years with brain trouble.

She was born Feb. 4, 1856, and had reached her sixty-first year. She was married to G. T. Rountree Feb. 5, 1874. Six children were born to them of whom four are living: Mrs Lizzie Biddick of this place, Alfred Rountree of Hertford, I. E. Rountree of Deep Creek, O. B. Rountree of Norfolk. Her husband died Mar. 20, 1886, her youngest child being only two weeks old, but by the help of the Lord and friends she kept all of them with her.

On Dec. 25, 1890, she was married to James Q. King. Three children were born to them of whom all are living: Mrs. Daisy Winslow, Misses Gertana and Lillie King, all of this place.

She was a member of Sandy Cross Baptist church, and attended as long as her health would permit.

All was done for her that loving hands could do, and she bore her suffering patiently. She could not stay longer with us in this cold world—God had prepared a place for her in that beautiful heavenly home, and could not wait longer to call her. A place is vacant in her earthly home which never can be filled, but she has filled a vacancy in that heavenly home where all is joy and light. A voice we loved is stilled here but up in heaven around God's throne the sweet voice is heard singing unto Him who is above us all.

We would not call her back into this world of sorrow and grief to share the evils of this life, but rejoice in the thought that she is resting in the arms of Jesus, and some day we shall go to meet her in that home where no pain nor sorrow can enter in. She can not come back to us but we can go to her,

She was a faithful wife and mother. Papa was a faithful nurse, doing all in his power to help her.

"Dearest mother thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
Yet 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He our sorrows all can heal."
