

FOUR HUNDRED YEARS AGO

A GREAT DAY FOR COLUMBUS AND NEW YORK.

The Anniversary Day Proper is Celebrated With All Pomp and Ceremony and in a Highly Successful Way.

New York, Oct. 12.—Today was Columbus anniversary day proper. It is a Columbus legal holiday, and one that will long be remembered.

The military parade started soon after 10 o'clock, under command of Gen. Martin McMahon. The line of march was from the Battery up Broadway to Fourth street, around Washington Square to Fifth avenue, thence to Fourteenth street, to Fourth avenue, to Seventeenth street, to Fifth avenue, and at Fifty-ninth street the signal was given to disband.

The Atlanta Gate City Guards were as bright a body of soldiers as one would wish to see.

There was not standing room anywhere on the line of march and fabulous prices were paid for window and balcony seats.

The weather was fine the decorations profuse and beautiful and everything tended to make the Columbus military parade a grand success.

BUSINESS CLUBS FOR GROVER

The McKinley Bill No Good For the Workingman.

New York, Oct. 12.—Representatives of the Business clubs of this city which advocate the election of Cleveland and Stevenson have issued an address to voters in which the principles involved in the McKinley bill are roundly denounced.

The address alleges that the price paid for such a protection is fertile to the Republican party and a liberal contribution of money for its perpetuity.

More than 100,000 citizens were qualified for voting in this city yesterday. It was the first day of registration, and the number of names recorded was larger than on any previous first day in the city's history.

Good Day for Democrats.

LEICESTER, N. C., Oct. 11.—There was a public speaking here today by Messrs. Campbell, Davis, Shook and Ferguson. A very good crowd, from 150 to 200, and from appearances two thirds to three fourths Democrats, was present.

After Uncle Tom got through Mr. Campbell led off with sound Democratic logic and tells Uncle Tom he has missed his calling; instead of being a candidate for State Senate he should belong to a circus where he could ride a horse both ways.

Mr. Campbell and our noted friend W. H. Herdman had a few passes, leaving Herdman rather small in the estimation of the crowd.

Mr. G. R. Pittson, a wealthy dealer in machinery supplies in New York, will testify that Mr. Borden detailed Lizzie's trouble to him and was advised to disinherit her unless she would reveal the man's name.

GEN. DE PEYSTERS ORDER

HARRISON'S PICTURE NAILED TO HIS CHURCH.

Cleveland's Picture Nailed Over It, Which Was Pulled Down, But Nailed Up Again After a Fierce Struggle.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Residents of Madalin, in Dutchess county, have learned to expect almost anything from Gen. Watts De Peyster. On Saturday night when the carpenters quit work on the new De Peyster Memorial church, the General appeared upon the scene with a large engraving of President Harrison, which he ordered one of the men to place at the top of the steeple, which has just been completed.

On Sunday morning a crowd gathered around the church. The Democrats in the crowd determined to cover Harrison's picture with that of Cleveland.

After much loud talking the excitement increased by a Republican attempting to climb up the scaffolding leading to the spire. He was pulled back, and a fierce struggle began, in which many prominent citizens joined.

When another attempt was made by a Cleveland admirer to get up the steeple another fight ensued. This was continued half way up the steeple, and the crowd below stood speechless, expecting to see someone fall.

Gen. De Peyster's action and the struggle on Sunday will be the chief topic of conversation in Madalin for a long time.

CHEERS FOR CLEVELAND

Both Men and Women Greet the Ex-President.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Grover Cleveland was given rounds of cheers yesterday afternoon as enthusiastic and voluminous as he had ever heard in his life.

About 2 o'clock he left the reviewing stand at Madison Square, where he had been observing the military parade, and made his way through the dense crowd to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Peabody educational fund, of which he is a member.

As the ex-President approached the hotel he was recognized. "Three cheers for Cleveland," shouted a dozen voices, and the cheers were given by both men and women who were densely massed on the street, as well as by those in the windows and on the roof of the hotel.

The corridors of the hotel were crowded, and as soon as Mr. Cleveland was seen there was another demonstration. Chief Justice Fuller and ex-Senator William M. Everts were among the throng who greeted Mr. Cleveland in the hall.

"THESE POOR DEVILS."

To Substitute Third Party Tickets For Democratic Tickets.

It was from the editor of Watson's paper, and proes that the Republican party is furnishing money for Watson's campaign. It said Marshal Buck had furnished him with money to pay for a carload of paper.

"In the coming campaign we will have to send some tickets to each militia district a week before; some full People's party tickets and some with Harrison electors, so that some good men can give them to poor white tenants as well as negroes, and these poor devils can put tickets into their pockets and when Democrats give them tickets to vote they can take them and go to the polls and vote our ticket."

Bishop Brown has been a strong factor in the Republican party's work among the negroes heretofore, and he has changed his politics because of the settled conviction that his race has nothing to hope from the Republican party.

WELL! WELL!

Presbyterians Not Wanted in Congregational Pulpits.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—Presbyterian ministers can no longer officiate as pastors of Congregational churches, according to the decision of the Congregation Council. A resolution was introduced providing that all ministers who desire to be pastors of Congregational churches must first connect themselves with some Congregational church or some Congregational body. It was said in the debate, which was a prolonged one, that this would shut out the Presbyterian ministers who have been accustomed to officiate as pastors of Congregational churches. The committee replied that this was the intention of the resolution.

OHIO'S EX-GOVERNOR OUT FOR CLEVELAND.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 14.—The fact may be set down that Judge Jacob D. Cox, a distinguished Republican ex-Governor of Ohio, will next month cast his ballot for Cleveland and Stevenson. A RAGING SNOW STORM

DRIFTS OF EIGHTEEN FEET DEPTH IN WYOMING.

The Like Was Never Known Before on the Union Pacific—Great Losses in Cattle and Stock—The Trains Derailed.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 14.—A special from Cheyenne says that for nearly two days the most severe snow storm ever known on the Union Pacific railroad has been raging here as far West as Ogden, Utah. All the railroads have been blocked, the cuts being filled with snow piled as deep as eighteen feet at Laramie. The snow is five feet deep on the level.

A half dozen westbound trains on the Union Pacific were tied up at Cheyenne all day, but left after the return of a snow plow. The Cheyenne Northern is entirely blocked, and no one knows where the belated trains on it are.

Reports are being received of an immense loss in cattle and horses in Northern Colorado and in Wyoming. It is estimated that almost a third of the cattle and horses on the ranges have been destroyed.

At Elmo, a small town in Southern Colorado, the Union Pacific train was derailed by striking a snow bank and Conductor King had both arms broken. His brother, a brakeman, has a fractured skull. Few minutes later another freight train ran into the wreck, the engineer being unable to see it on account of the blinding snow storm.

INDIANA'S APPOINTMENT.

It Has Not Been Upset by the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct.—The Republicans have been expecting the Supreme court to upset the Legislative apportionment act before the election, and under an old apportionment they expected to elect a legislature that would give them a United States Senator in place of Purdie, whose term will expire in March. But the court has postponed a decision until Nov. 17, nine days after the election. On Wednesday morning Judge Downey, of Lawrenceburg, sitting on the Circuit bench of Dearborn county, refused to grant the request for a mandate in the apportionment suit, holding that the courts have no authority, and that the Legislature is the proper tribunal and the only relief. The effect of this action is a victory for those who uphold the present apportionment law.

OH, NO!

Kentucky Should Come in With the Rest of the States.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 14.—The Louisville Times, one of the most influential newspapers in the State, advises editorially that Kentucky abandon all idea of an exhibit at the World's Fair. This advice is based on complications that have arisen due to politics, official disputes and questionable legislation rendering a $100,000 appropriation unavailable until after recourse is taken to the State authorities, together with indignities that have been offered Congressman Breckinridge by the Chicago press and the public.

ENGLISH GOOD ENOUGH

A Reform Physician Should Urge By Example.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—The graduating class of 1893 of the Baltimore Medical college has passed a resolution declaring that as English-speaking people are the possessors of the most perfect of all languages, and as the use of a foreign language in the function of English speaking people is "a silly, conceited and pedantic anachronism," the executive committee of the class of 1893 "is directed to employ no language but the English in all the functions of the class."

Another New Democrat.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Edward Holbrook, manager of the Gorham Manufacturing company, in a recent conversation said: "I have been a Republican, but I am done with that party. I can support it no longer. And Still They Come.

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Robert McAdam, a life-long Republican, and father of ex-Assemblyman McAdam, has joined the Democratic ranks, and declared himself in an address before the Trenton grange meeting. MORSE'S BAD BREAK.

He Made An Assertion that He Can't Prove.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Oct. 14.—With regard to the charge made by Congressman Elijah A. Morse that Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, speaker for the Prohibition party, had received $1,500 from the Democratic party and Mrs. Gougar's denial and offer of $5,000 to Mr. Morse if he can prove the assertion, Mr. Morse publishes the following:

"My authority for the statement that Mrs. Gougar stumped Indiana for the Democrats is no less a person than Hon. Elijah Hallford of Indiana, the President's private secretary. I have telegraphed him for confirmation. Mrs. Morrison is dying and I may not get an immediate answer."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The telegram saying that Representative Morse of Massachusetts had given Private Secretary Hallford his authority for the statement that the Democratic committee had paid Mrs. Gougar $1,500 for her political services was shown to Mr. Hallford today.

He said he had never made such an assertion and he did not believe Mr. Morse ever said he had. He knew so little of Mrs. Gougar's record that when asked recently if Mrs. Gougar had not supported Cleveland at the last election he was compelled to refer the question to the President of the Indiana Republican committee for answer.

A LIVING DOLL.

A Baby That Weighed Less Than Two Pounds When Born.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—The smallest child in Philadelphia, Katie Campbell Bryan, celebrated her first anniversary last evening.

Katie is the youngest of four children of L. C. Bryan who resides at 4596 Girard avenue, West Philadelphia. When this little midget was born a year ago the attending physician had very little hopes of her living, she was so small, being a trifle less than four inches long. She could be put into a pint measure, when 10 days old she weighed 1 3/4 pounds. At 5 months old her weight had increased to but 3 1/2 pounds. During the last six months she has grown somewhat faster, and last night weighed 11 pounds sans.

This small child is as helpless as a baby of five months. She has no teeth and cannot sit alone, but is pretty and bright, having large blue eyes, with light curly hair. She is at present in very good health, and bids fair to grow to womanhood. The clothes worn by this little midget are the same size as those worn by a good sized doll baby, her shoes being 2 1/4 inches long. She is known in the neighborhood as the living doll. Her mother and father are both medium sized people, as are also her brothers and sisters.—N. Y. Sun.
