A Curious Accident to an Engin-

Down, Etc. [From our Special Correspondent.]

HICKORY, N. C., Peb.26.—A very curious yet serious accident occurred on the railroad near here yesterday. W. W. Pitts, fireman, was underneath his engine cleaning out the accumulated ashes while it stood aide-tracked at Conover. The machinery being old and defective was suddenly sein motion by the action of the escaping steam, although due precautions against any mishap had been previously taker by Pitts. Recognizing in a moment his inability to extricate himself from the inability to extricate himself from the moving wheels, with great courage and presence of mind he clung to the axle and lower break of the tender, though the motion was thumping and bruising his body frightfully. It is impossible to surmise what the end might have been had not an open switch a hundred yards away derailed and, stopped the train. He is here under proper medical attention and, if there are no internal injuries, will recover. eet Sixteen" smoking tobacco

The "Sweet Sixteen" smoking to bacce factory with all its apparatus and stock was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning. Owing to the hour, the conflagration was not widely known and little or nothing was saved. Machinery and tobacco were well insured by the factory with all its apparatus and stock was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning. Owing to the hour, the confingration was not widely known and little or nothing was saved. Machinery and tobacco were well insured by the proprietors and no loss results as to them. The building, an inferior one, belonged to the hotel company, and was uninsured.

The movement in business circles here to reduce the trade to a cash system an nearly as possible is meeting with general approval. A new firm, Messrs. Shuford & Shuford, whose opening day is March list, will conduct a "one price cash store" on an extensive scale. They claim that no compromise upon these terms will be made under any circumstances, and say this plan is the only one upon which a successful business can be grounded.

A most delightful dance was tendered the visiting ladies by the young gentlemen of the city at the line last evening. The music and all arrangements of the beautiful hall were superb. The young men here take just pride in the dances and suppers they give, but no recent occasion has been more thoroughly enjoyable than this last. The successful management is due in a great measure to the popular proprietor of the hotel and his lady.

Shoenberger Hall, Ravenscroft.

An article appeared in the CITIZEN, this morning, copied from the Church Year, which makes an erroneous statement about this building that calls for correction. It states that the building has been completed, but plainly implies and conveys to all readers the impression that a debt of two thousand dollars rests a debt of two thousand dollars rests upon it, and adds that "the authorities' have no idea how the debt is to be paid. The building is the noble gift of Mr. John A. Shoenberger to the Diocese of North Carolina, as the home for its training school for the ministry.

It is a very substantial and commodi-ous house, admirably fitted for its pur-pose, and it has been provided with an xcellent furnace, a range, and complete plumbing arrangements, good out-buildings, and much of the grading done, and all without debt; and I apprehend that no building was ever erected in Asheville, the bills for the erection and completion of which were more promptly and satisfactorily paid than in this in-

Canine Legislation.

[Raleigh News and Observer.]

Here's news, sure enough. A"dog law" has actually passed one house of the Legislature-the House of Representatives. It did so yesterday and on its third reading. It is Mr. Gibson's bill, known officially as H. B. 940 for the encouragement of sheep husbandry. It provides that when any one has a sheep killed or injured by a dog he may swear out a warrant against the supposed owner of the dog and upon proof that the person named in the warrant is the owner of the dog that did the killing or injury the J. P. shall require him to pay the owner of the sheep $2 for each sheep killed and $1 for each sheep injured. It provides further that any dog found attempting to kill or injure any sheep shall be killed. Now, who has anything more House. But with this explanation we the parlor table and replace it with are ready to assent to what Mr. Gibbons copy of Browning." says to us in a little note about the bill, and that is: "This is the only dog law J. P. RAMSAY, D. D. S. that has passed the legislature of North Carolina from the beginning of time until

Dr. J. F. Ramsay returned to the city yesterday after an absence of two weeks. On Friday the 1st of March, he expects to open a dental office in the Barnard building, and begs a share of the patronage formerly extended the firm of Reeves
