EDITOR CITIZEN:-My attention has been drawn to an article over the signature of Mr. C. J. McCape criticising very severely the public conduct of Mr. A. T. Summey while mayor of Asheville. I am thoroughly acquainted with Mr. Summey's record. I know that he made an mey's record. I know that he made an honest and conscientious officer. I know that he did as much, and as good street work, in proportion to the means at his command, as any one who has ever filled the mayor's office. I know that he always did strict and impartial justice between man and man, and also between the different sections of the city, and I am sure that his election on Monday will give my portion of the city all the advantages that it has a right to ask for. Mr. McCape asserts that mayor Summey left the streets in a horrid condition. I know that this is not the case, but, on the contrary, Mr. Summey macadamized

South Main street so far as the public money rendered possible.

Politics like poverty makes strange bed fellows. A few days ago, in Mr. Sum-mey's office, Mr. McCape and H. A. Gudmey some, ar sectage and the general section of the control of the EDITOR CITIZEN:-My feelings and anything I could do have been always in favor of the Democratic party, and I did think that I would vote for Mr. Blanton, but after thinking the matter over could not make up my mind and do jus-tice to my own feelings and vote against a friend that has been a friend in need. I shall cast my vote for Mr. A. T. Summey J. M. BLAIR.
