BUNCOMBE CENTENNIAL.

THE COUNTY ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD IN 1891.

Why should she and her daughters not unite in a Celebration Creditable and Profitable to Everybody. In the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one; the same being the sixteenth year of the Independence of the State of North Carolina, her general assembly met in the town of New Bern.

We wish that the whole of this act, with its old style of printing could be appropriately framed, and hung in the office of our Register of Deeds. It reads in part, as follows: An act forming the Western parts of Burke and Rutherford counties into a separate and distinct county.

Whereas, The Western parts of Burke and Rutherford counties are very inconvenient to the court houses of said counties, which renders the attendance of jurors and witnesses very tedious and expensive, and almost impossible in the winter season; and in order to remedy the same.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the said State, That the counties of Burke and Rutherford circuit, be and they shall be, organized by the following lines, viz: Beginning at the extreme height of the Appalachian mountains, where the Southern boundary of the State crosses the same; thence along the extreme height of said mountain to where the road from the head of Catawba to Swannanoa crosses; thence along the main ridge dividing the waters of South Toe from those of Swannanoa into the Great Back Mountain; thence along said mountain to the Northeast thereof; thence along the main ridge between South Toe and Little Crabtree to the mouth of said Crabtree Creek; thence down Toe river aforesaid, to where the same empties into the Nolichucky river; thence down said river to the extreme height of the Iron Mountain and cession line; thence along said cession line to the southern boundary thereof; thence along said boundary to the beginning, is hereby enacted into a separate and distinct county, by the name of
