

THE DAILY CITIZEN.

The Citizen is the most extensively circulated and widely read newspaper in Western North Carolina.

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1889.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON

Still remains at the head of the United States Railroad Bureau, and there is good reason to believe that he will be retained.

There is manly generosity in the warmth with which General Sherman, his former most sturdy antagonist, urges his retention.

It is amazing why men, sensible in most particulars, pious men, for instance, like Elliott F. Shepard, editor of the New York Mail and Express, permit themselves to pose as asses whenever the South comes up for mention.

Gov. Fowle is investigating the work of the oyster pirates in the North Carolina waters. If the oyster beds are properly protected and cultivated they will prove a mine of wealth to the whole State.

A short while ago the whole country rung with the heroism of the crew of the Vandalia, one of the American ships wrecked in the memorable Samson hurricane.

In assuming control of the business of Mr. H. L. Lang I hope by constant attention and the best efforts to offer such increased advantages as to merit a continuance of the confidence so generously bestowed upon my predecessor.

Dr. Parker Prays cream Van-Ola, Rosalina, Ongaline and Diamond nail powder having now become the ladies' favorites, at F. L. Jacob's drug store, these popular make-up articles may always be found, together with pocket emery board, or orange wood sticks, nail scissors, files and other such requisites.

Rec. Jer-bo'm Johnsing (triumphing on the backslidings of his flock)—Now, dere's dat 'Polevun Jones 'en' dat Ne'miah Saw-luck! 'Dey ain't no more'n got started on de warner road ter glory dan dey flops ober on ter de debil's lard highway and done gets cotched a-strain' chickens!

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system whenever constipated or bilious.

ity of this country; for the people will not always endure a condition of violent unnatural contrasts of fortune, a few—relatively—counting their possessions by millions; all the rest by dollars or cents or by bare backs and empty stomachs.

National legislation must come in to interpose between these legalized robbers and the plundered people; otherwise violent patience will be exhausted, and violent measures for redress taken.

THE MADNESS OF SECTIONALISM.

Here is the picture of the man who leads in keeping up hostile feeling between the sections, who repudiates the existence of permanent peace, and who frankly says "the war must be fought over again."

Col. Elliott F. Shepard is making his mark in New York journalism. The Commercial Advertiser says that "in two short weeks he has been accused, first, of stealing by the World, which furnished proof; second, of lying, by the Times; third, of not being a Christian, by the Evening Post, and third, of being a boodle politician, by the World."

With the cant of a Praise God Be-rahones, with a text of scripture always on his lips, with a tongue and a pen always professing to preach the gospel of peace, Shepard is an active missionary of the Devil.

It is amazing why men, sensible in most particulars, pious men, for instance, like Elliott F. Shepard, editor of the New York Mail and Express, permit themselves to pose as asses whenever the South comes up for mention.

DON'T

Behungged. Talk is cheap but "the proof of the pudding is the chewing of the string."

Bostic Bros. & Wright's is the place to buy and thousands of well pleased customers will tell you the same if you will only take the trouble to ask them.

The man that said "Money is King" will have to learn that Pluck and Politeness will go farther in a day than money will go in a lifetime, and if you don't think so, go to No. 11 Public Square and you will see that we are taking Cleveland's advice and are "telling the truth" when we say Bostic Bros. & Wright are selling Oil Calicoes at 5c., Gingham at 7c., and Satines at 8c., Outing Cloths at 12 1/2c., Crazy Cloth at 15c., and the prettiest Challies you ever saw at 7c., bought at Headquarters for cash, and they invite your careful inspection of the same.

"RACKET" COLUMN.

A Preacher Talks. A preacher of the Gospel said (and they ought to know, because they mingle with the rich and the poor), that the "Racket Store" had been a blessing to the people of Asheville, because it had cheapened the price of every line of goods it handled, and taught the people how cheaply goods could be sold when properly bought, and still afford a fair and living profit.

Who will question the statement of our brother when it is known that the "Racket" sells Blacking at 1 cent a box, Matches at 6 cents per dozen boxes, Lead Pencils at 6 cents per dozen, Ink at 4 cents per bottle, Mudilage at 4 cents, Envelopes at 4 cents a pack, Paper at 4 cents a quire, a quart Coffee Pot for 10 cents, Needles 2 cents a paper, Pins 2 cents a paper, the best Brass Pin at 4 cents a paper, (others charge 10 cents for the same goods), Rice Buttons at 3 cents for 12 dozen, Pearl Dress Buttons at 4 cents per dozen (worth 10), Lamps at 20 cents each, including burner, chimney and wick.

Mens' Gauze Undershirts at 20 cents each, worth 35, Ladies' Jersey Knit Vests at 20 cents each which are worth 38, and a thousand and one articles which come into the daily use of everybody, at prices that save dollars upon dollars to the people. These goods are all guaranteed to be the equal of any goods in the same line in this city, and this agreement goes with every sale we make: Where cause for dissatisfaction exists, bring back the goods and get your money. No man can make a stronger warrant than this. We wish we had space in which to tell you of everything we keep, but it would more than fill this paper. Come to us for everything (but groceries) before you buy. We will save you money and will take pleasure in showing you our goods whether you buy or not. We underbuy and we undersell, and we have facilities for buying low possessed by no other concern in Asheville. Respectfully,

GEO. T. JONES & CO.

N. Y. Office, 466 Broadway.

MISCELLANEOUS.
