SALE OF THE COWAN LANDS RARE CHANCE FOR GOOD BARGAINS.

Valuable Improved and Unimproved Property to be Disposed of on Easy Terms.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Buncombe county, made in the case of Jesse T. Cowan and others, ex parie, I will sell at public anction on THURSDAY. THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST, 1889, and succeeding days until all the property is sold, the following real estate, at the places and on the terms stated below, to-wit.

1. The tract of about 185 acres, lying on the head waters of Smith's Millercek, in Buncombe county, adjoining lands of James Cowan and others, being part of the old John Cowan farm and known as the Canada Cowan lands. This tract is situated only three or four miles from the city of Asheville, and is well suited for division into small truck farms, besides containing many elegant sites for building purposes. The tract will be sold in one body, promptly at 12 o'clock m., on said Thursday, August the first, 1889, at the Court House door in Asheville.

2. Immediately after the sale of the foregoing tract; I will sell ON THE PREMISES, the brick storehouse lot on the north margin of Patton avenue, in the city of Asheville, now occupied by Mr. B. H. Cosby as a Jewelry store. This lot has a front of twenty-seven feet and nine inches on Patton avenue, and runs back to Pulliam street, a distance of 140 feet. This property is very valuable.

3. Next in order I will sell, ON THE PREMISES, the Iract of land in said city, opposite the late residence of Canada Cowan, bounded on the south by Patton avenue, on the north by Haywood stret, on the east by the Lyman and Chedester lots, and on the west by the lot lying in the angle formed by the junction of Patton avenue and Haywood street, formerly owned by James Buttrick. This tract has been divided into eleven lots which will be sold first separately by lots, and afterwards in one body, and the sale which brings the highest aggregate price will be taken as the sale thereof.

4. After the sale of the foregoing tract I will sell, ON THE PREMISES, the eighteen

4. After the sale of the foregoing tract will sell, ON THE PREMISES, the eighteer 4. After the sale of the foregoing tract I will sell, On THE PREMISES, the eighteen lots on the north side of Haywood street and between it and Hill street, in said city, embracing the said late residence of Camada Cowan and several other houses, all more particularly described in the pleadings and order of sale. I will first offer these lots separately by lots, and afterwards in one body, and the highest aggregate price offered will be taken as the sale of the same.

5. I will next sell the tract consisting of fifteen lots, lying near and northward of Hill street in said city, formerly owned by Alfred Webb and occupied by Jesse T. Cowan. This tract will be sold first by lots separately and afterwards as a whole, and the highest aggregate price will be taken as the sale thereof.

6. Lastly, I will sell the brick dwelling thereof.

6. Lastly, I will sell the brick dwelling house lot on the north, margin of Haywoods street, bounded on the south by said street, on the north by G. W. Miller's lot, on the west by Capt J. M. Gudger's lot, and on the east by the lot owned by the Rev. J. L. M. Curry.

TERMS OF SALE:

One-third of the purchase money will be required in cash, the balance to be secured by notes of the purchasers, in two equal installments, due respectively in one and two years from date of sale, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent, per annum from date of sale. Titles retained till purchase money is paid. Improved city property will have to be kept insured by the purchasers for the benefit of the heirs-at-law of Canada Cowan, decreased, until payment of the first deferred installment, in an amount to be designated by me on the day of sale. Purchasers will have the option of paying all the purchase money, in cash on the confirmation of the sale and taking titles immediately thereafter. the confirmation of the sale and taking titles immediately thereafter.
