OVER THE LOCATION OF THE COLLECTOR'S OFFICE

For This Internal Revenue Di trict—Mr. Ewart Placed in a Fix— The Heron Affair Wholly With-out Foundation, Etc.

Washington, July 25.—[Special.]— There is a big fight on foot over the location of the internal revenue office in the Pifth district. One thing is settled at Pifth district. One thing is settled at headquarters, however, and that is if it don't go to Asheville it will remain at Salisbury. This is authentic.

Ewart refused to endorse Eaves until he promised in tayor of Asheville. Eaves was willing to keep his pledge, but Mott favored Statesville. Dr. Mott lost grace, however, with the commissioner of the internal revenue when Eaves appointed so many of the Mott family to the places, and finally the commissioner declined to appoint H. G. THE HEAVY FAILURE OF THE GREAT DRY GOODS FIRM

Of Lewis Bros. & Co., of Philadel-phia, Yesterday, One that Crea-ted Great Surprise Throughout the Dry Goods World, Etc.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 25.—A surprise was occasioned in business circles this morning by the announcement that the firm of Lewis Bros. & Co., wholesale dry goods dealers, on Chestnut street, above Second, had made an assignment. While the exact amount cannot as yet be ascertained it is thought the liabilities of the firm will reach nearly $4,000,000. The firm is one of the largest in its line of business in the city, and perhaps in the county. It has houses in many of the larger cities of the United States, nota-bly New York, Chicago, Baltimore and Held in the Church Street Methodist Church and of Unusual Interest and Importance—The Cle of the Convention To-Day.

At 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning Rev. r. Rankin's church on Church street was almost filled by the delegates to the State Convention of the Woman's Christan Temperance Union and residents of and visitors to the city interested in the great temperance movement inaugurated and vigorously prosecuted by this band of noble Christian women throughout our commonwealth.

The exercises of the day were opened by prayer, and a Bible reading and promise meeting ably conducted by Mrs. M. L. Wells, of Chattanooga, Tenn. Then followed the regular program as published in yesterday morning's Crrizen. The convention was next entertained by a fine, practical address by Mrs. Mary Mendenhall Hobbs, of Guilford College, on the all important subject of "Health and Heredity." The "Talks to Mothers," embracing a wide range of subjects, by Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Sallie F. Chapin, were very interesting and instructive.

In consequence of the heavy storm which prevailed in the afternoon and evenng the Convention was put behind in its work much behind the usual time, and it resolved itself in a social meeting, which was quite enjoyable. The last session of the Convention will be held to-day, and mothers are earnestly requested to be present with their children at the children's meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The program for the day is as follows:

Benediction

Tuesday, Wednesday and yesterday, adjourned at 6.30 o'clock yesterday after-The Rate Committee of the Association was in session almost during the entire day, and the program consisted of the discussion of the usual questions coming before the body and the arrangement of details concerning the establishment of an uniform system of freight rates on all Southern railway and steamship lines.

convention of the Southern Railway and Steamboat Association, held in this city held in Atlanta, Ga., (the usual place,) on the second Tuesday in July, 1890. The attendance upon the present adourned session has been unusually large, and the meetings have been most harmonious and pleasant. Most of the delegates will leave the city on early trains this morning, and it is probable that Asheville and the Battery Park hotel will again be designated as the places for holding all future adjourned meetings of the Association. GOVERNOR FOWLE

And His Party at Hot Springs for a Few Days. In the rear sleeper attached to the passnger train over the Western North Carolina road which passed through this city at 7.28 o'clock yesterday morning, was a party consisting of his excellency Gov. Daniel G. Fowle, master Dan G.
