For two years I was troubled with rheumatism in the shoulder and could not get relief. I could not even raise my hand to my head. I was for 3 months confined to my bed. I was induced to try Swift's Specific. I improved after a while was at my work, and for the past five months have been well. I was entirely cured from the effects of Swift's Specific.

SALE OF THE COWAN LANDS!

EARLY CHANCE FOR GOOD BARGAINS.

Valuable Improved and Unimproved Property to be Disposed of on Easy Terms.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Buncombe county, made in the case of Jesse Cowan and others vs. Cowan's Heirs, I will sell at public auction on THURSDAY, THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST, 1889, and succeeding days until the property is sold, the following real estate, at the places and on the terms stated below, to-wit:

1. The tract of about 185 acres, lying on the head waters of Smith's Mill creek, in Buncombe county, adjoining lands of James Cowan and others, being part of the old John Cowan farm and known as the Canada Cowan lands. This tract is situated only three miles from the city of Asheville, and is well suited for division into small tracts for suburban residences. Two elegant sites for building purposes will be sold in one body, promptly at 12 o'clock m., on said Thursday, August the first, 1889, at the Court House door in Asheville.

Immediately after the sale of the foregoing tract, I will sell ON THE PREMISES, the lot adjoining elsewhere to on the north margin of Patton avenue, in the city of Asheville, now occupied by Bell, Cody and Jewelry store. This lot has a front on the avenue of 66 feet and nine inches on Patton avenue, and runs back to Pulliam street a distance of 200 feet. This property is very valuable.

3. Next in order, I will sell, ON THE SAME DAY, the tract of land in said city, opposite the late residence of Canada Cowan, bounded on the south by Patton avenue, on the north by Haywood street, on the east by the Lyman and Cheshire lots, and on the west by the lot fully described in the deed from Jesse Cowan et al. to Eagle Ford, at the junction of Patton avenue and Pulliam street, formerly owned by James Patterson. This tract has been divided into eleven lots which will be sold first separately by lots, and afterwards in one body, and the separate prices offered will be taken as the sale thereof.

4. If after the sale of the foregoing tract I will sell, ON THE PREMISES, the eighteen lots on Cathey street and between it and Hill street, in said city, embracing the said late residence of Canada Cowan and several other houses. All more particularly described in the pleadings and order of sale. I will first offer these lots separately by lots, and afterwards in one body, and the separate price offered will be taken as the sale of the same.

5. I will next sell the tract consisting of fifteen lots, lying near and northward of Hill street in said city, formerly owned by Alfred Webb and occupied by Jesse T. Cowan. This tract will be sold first by lots separately and afterwards as a whole, and the highest price offered will be taken as the sale thereof.

6. I will next sell the brick dwelling house and lot on the south margin of Haywood street, bounded on the south by said street, on the north by G. W. Miller's lot, on the west by Capt. Jim Cowan's lot, and on the east by the lot owned by the Rev. J. L. M. Curry.

TERMS OF SALE:

One-third of the purchase money will be required in cash, the balance to be secured by the purchasers, in two equal installments, due respectively in one and two years from date of sale, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from date of sale. Titles retained till purchase money is paid. Improved city property will have to be kept insured by the purchasers for the benefit of the heirs-at-law of Canada Cowan, deceased, until payment of the first deferred installment, in an amount to be designated by me on the day of sale. Purchasers will have the option of paying all the purchase money in cash on the confirmation of the sale and taking titles immediately thereafter.

For further particulars apply to me at my office in Asheville, where full plats of the property can be seen, and I will gladly show the property to anyone desiring to see it. Messrs. F. A. Sondley and M. E. Carter, counsel in the case, will also be glad to furnish any further information they may have as to the property.

This June 22, 1889.

A. L. CARTER, Commissioner.
