BUSINESS AND PLEASURE.

Private Board. For first-class board, at reasonable terms, apply to Mrs. F. E. Breese, corner College and Spruce streets.

The girls do like to go to the baseball games so much. They are sure to see some good "catches" there.

A Lovely Woman overheard one say of her, "By heaven! she's painted!" "Yes," retorted she, indignantly, "and by heaven only!" Rudely she manled her cheek, and in the rose and lily. Yet this lenient lady, once thin and pale, with a dry, hacking cough, night-sweats, and slight spitting of blood, seemed destined to fill a consumptive's grave. After spending hundreds of dollars on physicians without benefit, she tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; her improvement was soon marked, and in a few months she was plump and rosy again, the picture of health and strength. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid will be promptly refunded.

Tanning by electricity is being much talked of as an undoubted success. But for domestic uses the slipper is more convenient.

Flaming Fire in the Veins. We hold positive proof that Acker's English Blood Elixir cures all blood poisons where cheap sarsaparilla and so-called purifiers fail. Knowing this, we will sell it to all who call at our store on a positive guarantee. T. C. Smith & Co., Jones (sarsaparilla) like the fashion of saying grace before dinner. Brown (trivolt) —So do I. It gives time for the soup to cool.

Special sales of sheetings, towels, doylies, lawns, cambrics, dress linings, trimmings of all kinds below cost, at Whitlock's.

The corset, though railed against by a few dress reformers, will not go. It has a good grip on its swayers, and, as it were, has come to stay.

For lumbago, side or chest, use Shiloh's Plaster. Price 25 cents. SHILOH'S CATARRH and Consumption Cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures Consumption.

A by-word—"How much?" Persons advanced in years led younger and stronger, as well as freer from the infirmities of age, by taking Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla. For sale by F. L. Jacobs.

A useful society—"The policeman's club." Ladies will find it to their interest to buy fine goods below cost at Whitlock's.

All goods must be sold to make room for clothing, Corsets, underwear, buttons, zephyrs, hosiery, handkerchiefs and gloves will be sold, regardless of cost, at Whitlock's.

Eastern man (in Oklahoma)—Is this your claim? Boomer—You bet. "Have you done any planting?" "Planted three men! Move on, now!"

Give the Children a Chance. There is something radically wrong with the health of a child when it seems listless, has poor or no appetite, eyes sunken and with dark skin beneath. In most cases showing these symptoms the child has worms, and all that it needs is some simple remedy, such as Hart's Worm Cream, to expel the worms, and the child will soon be in perfect health again. Parents, try it and let your little ones have a fair chance for life.

A tile on a man's head is not the same as a brick in his hat. No liniment is in better repute or more widely known than Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Hill Liniment. It is a wonderful remedy. For sale by F. L. Jacobs.

The custom of playing poker for beer is not strange. The players always have something to draw from.

Worth makes the man, says the poet. It depends, a good deal, however, on how much he is worth.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; am now on my third bottle, and able to converse as they work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlwart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at F. L. Jacobs' drug store.

"An iller is a watch that lacks both hands. As useless if it goes, as when it stands." Also! how many women, though household and children need their care, are necessarily idle, because suffering from diseases peculiar to their sex. To all such Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a precious boon speedily curing internal inflammation, leucorrhoea, displacement, ulceration, tormenting periodical pains, prostrations, "bearing-down" sensation, morning sickness, bloating, weak stomach, nervous prostration, and tendency to cancerous disease. In all these ailments called "female complaints," it is the most reliable specific known to medicine.

De jinks—Do I owe you anything, old fellow? Merritt—You can't, or you would never think of it.

How Doctors Conquer Death. Doctor Walter K. Hammond says: "After a long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all the deaths from cholera, pneumonia and consumption might be avoided if Acker's English Cough Remedy were only carefully used in time." This wonderful Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee.

"So you dined with the chiroprapist? What did you have for dinner?" "Corned beef, of course!"

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, relieves all pains, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, 25c a bottle.

Q. Reus—No; Dickens did not think of changing the title of his novel to "The Corkscrew," because it was all of a twist.

Progress. It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle dietetic known.

A man named Putty was filled full of holes during a fight near Cairo the other night. The impression has gone abroad that putty was used to stop up holes.

Careless Mothers. Many mothers have permitted their children to die before their eyes when they might have been saved. Any mother who keeps home without a bottle of Acker's English Baby Soother at hand, runs a risk which she may some time regret. It has saved the lives of thousands of children, and is doing so every year.

"My dear," said Mr. Plumyman, "why is the 'Place of Wakes' so unpopular?" "Give it up." "Why, because he is allowed so much latitude that he has no parallel."

No matter what the school of physics. They each can cure an ache or phistic—At least 'tis said they can; But as Science turns the wheel still faster, And quacks and bigots meet disaster, To us there comes a man Who smote their path with woe countless zealots, Who used and praised his "Pleasant Pellets." The "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" of Dr. Pierce, though gentle in action, are thorough, and never fail to cure biliousness, diseased or torpid liver, and constipation.

She (tenderly)—Did the dog bite you, darling? He—Yes, he did. She (reassuringly)—Well, it was papa's dog, darling, and we know he isn't mad. He—Yes, but I am.
