

EUROPEAN LETTERS.

CHIEF UNIVERSITY TOWN OF GERMANY.

Its Superior Hotel Accommodations and Splendid Scenery—Its Concert Gardens and the Great National Beverage.

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Aug. 7, 1889. Editor Citizen:—Our enjoyment increases, as it were, by geometric progression. Each place we visit seems to eclipse all back of it, with this delightful spot is no exception to the rule.

But we had no sooner reached its borders than we saw our mistake and fairly trembled to think how nearly we had passed it by without a stop.

First, we are received politely at a most excellent hotel, at which our cook's companions attend us to rooms and meals. The Grand is as comfortable as in any we remember.

Refreshed by a good table d'hôte dinner, unwearied by the nuisance of ordering food a la carte, we start out for an afternoon's drive in a brette which reminded us of a bicycle.

First, we ascend a high eminence on the side of which is perched the ruins of the old Heidelberg castle, which is indeed a most interesting object.

The moat which extends around the castle we judge to be 100 feet wide and near fifty feet in depth, and with its banks thoroughly protected by a heavy masonry.

A gateway still stands flanked by columns of the finest carving, an evidence of the love of King Frederick V for his wife Elizabeth Stuart, daughter of James I of England.

From various points around and above the old castle can be had a magnificently extended view of the valley of the Neckar.

Our pleasant drive was extended, after our inspection of the castle had ended, across the Neckar by an old stone bridge built some 150 years ago.

After a light tea we go out again and are attracted by strange sweetmeats and a beautiful garden, which was brilliantly lighted and filled with happy, merry people.

Of course we sought admittance, which cost us thirty pennings (which means seven and a half cents of our money).

Speaking of beer, we could not but be amused to see a party who sat near me at the table this evening, composed of a large family, evidently wealthy, and of high social position.

While surprised at the universality of its custom, we do not believe it to be otherwise than beneficial. Whether or not it may be attributable to this habit, the fact is manifest that the Germans are the strongest and we believe the happiest people in Europe.

A Diabolical Act. ROME, August 20.—Last evening a spherical bomb, ten centimetres in diameter, was thrown from the rear of the Chamber of Deputies into the Piazza Colonna during the progress of a concert.

Insurgents Assured Amnesty. CONSTANTINOPLE, August 20.—Dispatches from Crete report that fifteen insurgent villages have submitted to Chaskir Pasha, the newly appointed governor, upon his assuring amnesty to the inhabitants.

THE BRUISER IN GOTHAM.

He Says Judge Terrill's Charge Convicted Him.

NEW YORK, August 19.—John L. Sullivan arrived at 8 o'clock to-night, accompanied only by Matthew Clune, proprietor of the Vanderbilt hotel.

"Judge Terrill in charging the jury," Sullivan said, "I am very sorry for the charge was delivered I knew there could be no other verdict.

"I hope to be able to leave the city to-morrow evening for Boston. I am in receipt of a telegram from my people here stating that my mother is very sick and urging me to hurry."

STATE NEWS.

Raleigh News-Observer: There is a report that Dr. Grissom is going to resign. Capt. W. A. Holthit of Oxford has accepted an appointment on the Board of Public Charities.

Col. and Mrs. John W. Hinsdale left yesterday for Hot Springs, N. C. Col. Hinsdale has for some time been suffering with an old malady, not painful, but rather inconvenient.

Richmond Dispatch: The Raleigh Tea Company has made an assignment. The company is composed of D. M. Anderson of this city and R. B. Anderson of Washington, D. C.

The real personal and property tax paid by the colored people of Charlotte aggregated $82,484, and the total taxes paid by colored people living in Mecklenburg county and outside of Charlotte, is $161,482.

The District School of the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, is to be located at Burlington.

Ernest Haywood, Esq. Liabilities something near $5,000. Assets stock of goods on hand.

The fourth annual exhibition of the Elizabeth City fair will be held at Elizabeth City on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th days of October.

Call's Challenge Accepted. United States Senator Wilkinson Call, of Florida, several weeks ago published a letter in the Jacksonville Times-Union challenging the people of this State to an election to meet him in every county of the State and discuss the charges which have been made against him by the public press.

Caused by the Boston Collapse. PROVIDENCE, R. I., August 20.—The assignment of the Phoenix Woolen Company, of East Greenwich, was recorded today. The assignment is made to Wm. A. Walton, of this city.

Malliot's Triumphant Return. LONDON, August 19.—Advices from Apia report the return to Samoa of King Malliot and other exiles. The ex-king was warmly welcomed by the natives and his own flag was hoisted.

Mr. Tucker Out of Danger. LEXINGTON, Va., August 20.—The attending physicians of Hon. John Randolph Tucker to-night report that his condition is extremely favorable and pronounce him out of danger.

A LIVELY EFFORT.

Being Made to Save Sluiger Killan a Journey South.

BALTIMORE, Md., August 20.—There is an effort being made to obviate the necessity of Killan's going personally to Mississippi to give bail for his appearance at the next term of court.

At the Organization of the Georgia Confederate Veterans' Association at Atlanta—Glorious Utterances of a Gallant Gentleman.

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

GOVERNOR GORDON'S

MAGNIFICENT ADDRESS TO THE OLD GUARD

At the Organization of the Georgia Confederate Veterans' Association at Atlanta—Glorious Utterances of a Gallant Gentleman.

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

PROUD TO MEET MAHONE.

How a Conscript on Guard Greeted the Virginia General.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE. Mahone's old soldiers say that he was the strictest of disciplinarians, and as such respected, not feared, by his men.

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

At the mention of that name the sentinel lowered his gun and his voice at the same time, extended his hand and whispered: "General Mahone, I'm proud to meet you."

FOLKS YOU KNOW.

Who They Are: Where They Are, and What They Are Doing.

Mr. E. D. Davidson, wife and children, left yesterday for New York. Col. W. H. Walker, a prominent citizen of Spartanburg, S. C., is here.

Mr. Frank Loughran, the popular proprietor of the celebrated Hickory Inn, at Hickory, N. C., is at the Swannamoon.

Mr. W. E. Lea, of Alamance county, and brother of Mr. W. H. Lea of this city, is here on his way to the Indian Territory where he proposes permanently locating.

Mr. Henry M. Brown has resigned his position with the electric street railway company and will in future be connected with the extensive clothing house of C. D. Blanton & Co., this city.

Col. John W. Hinsdale, one of the leading lawyers of the State passed through the city yesterday afternoon enroute from Raleigh to Hot Springs. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hinsdale.

Rev. J. E. Mann, D. D., formerly president of the Greensboro district, and one of the ablest divines in the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. church, South, was at the Grand Central last night. He is at present pastor in charge of the Methodist church at Greensboro.

There was "music in the air" last night. The new band was out. The Asheville Volunteers held a business meeting last evening.

The Good Templars and Sons of Temperance held important business meetings at their respective halls last evening.

Acting mayor Pulliam tried two cases in the police court yesterday morning. They were minor offenses and the fines were light.

At the shooting tournament of the Asheville Gun Club yesterday afternoon the gold medal was won by Mr. Theo. Holbrook.

The streets are beginning to get disagreeably dusty again, and a more frequent and continuous use of the sprinkler would prevent much "dustiness" and emphatic denunciation on the part of pedestrians.

Twenty-two survivors of Senator Vance's old company, the "Rough and Ready," left the city yesterday for the Senator's beautiful mountain home "Gombroon," where the annual reunion of those that "returned from the wars" is held each year.

The survivors were under the command of Captain Jas. M. Gudge, and were as follows: M. F. Stevens, W. M. Gudge, J. B. Helm, A. F. Walton, G. N. Penland, N. B. Westall, D. W. McCalliard, J. R. Pattillo, G. M. Williams, J. J. White, W. Garrison, J. P. Rector, J. M. Smith, W. R. Powers, E. H. Merrimon, I. V. Baird, J. P. Gaston, D. M. Gudge, J. M. Green, T. B. Brook & Wesley Hicks, colored.

Mr. A. M. Taylor, of the firm of Demers & Taylor, of this city, leaves this morning for the western section where he goes to purchase one million feet of lumber with which to begin operations at the large wood-working establishment of the above named firm as soon as the plant is in readiness to begin work, which will not be later than October 15th.

A private letter from Mr. W. W. Hargrove contains the information that the new Bethel academy, belonging to the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and located in the upper Pigeon Valley, was destroyed by an incendiary fire Monday evening. The loss is about $2,500 with no insurance whatever.

THE CAPITAL DESERTED.

UNCLE JERRY RUSK GOES TO DEER PARK.

WASHINGTON, August 20.—In answer to certain inquiries made by the collector at Charleston, S. C., relative to the drawback on jute bagging imported as a covering of cotton in bales, the treasury department holds: First, that an official supervision of the baling should be as careful and thorough as possible.

Secretary Rusk left Washington this afternoon for Deer Park, Md., where he will join the President and accompany him to Indianapolis. All the members of the cabinet are now absent from the city, and with possibly one exception, none are expected to return for several weeks.

Bond offerings to-day were as follows: Four per cents, registered, $7,000 at 128; four and a half per cents, coupons, $5,000 at 106 1/2; all accepted.

THE GOLDEN GATE.

Gen. Johnstone Jones and Wife Leave for California.

It is with much regret we announce that Gen. Johnstone Jones and family leave to-day for San Diego, California, where they make their future home.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

UNCLE JERRY RUSK GOES TO DEER PARK.

And Will Accompany the President to Indianapolis—Information for the Charleston Collector from the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, August 20.—In answer to certain inquiries made by the collector at Charleston, S. C., relative to the drawback on jute bagging imported as a covering of cotton in bales, the treasury department holds: First, that an official supervision of the baling should be as careful and thorough as possible.

Secretary Rusk left Washington this afternoon for Deer Park, Md., where he will join the President and accompany him to Indianapolis. All the members of the cabinet are now absent from the city, and with possibly one exception, none are expected to return for several weeks.

Bond offerings to-day were as follows: Four per cents, registered, $7,000 at 128; four and a half per cents, coupons, $5,000 at 106 1/2; all accepted.

THE GOLDEN GATE.

Gen. Johnstone Jones and Wife Leave for California.

It is with much regret we announce that Gen. Johnstone Jones and family leave to-day for San Diego, California, where they make their future home.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.

Gen. Jones has filled positions of high importance and dignity in North Carolina, and filled them with conspicuous ability and fidelity. For twelve years he was Adjutant-General of the State.