

THE DAILY CITIZEN.

The Citizen is the most extensively circulated and widely read newspaper in Western North Carolina. Its circulation of public men and measures in the interest of public integrity, honest government, and prosperous industry, and its knowledge of personal affairs in trading public houses.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1889.

THE PASTORAL CAPACITIES OF THE WEST.

Two contributions to THE CITIZEN in some of its recent issues might have set our mountain farmers to thinking, and to revolve the question in their minds whether they were pursuing the right paths toward improvement and prosperity.

The other was the letter of the Rev. Dr. C. D. Smith, narrating the successes of Capt. B. P. Williamson, of Wake county, in overcoming adverse natural conditions, and demonstrating that through skill, intelligence and perseverance, a soil accepted with a distrustful eye for poor red soil, should have made to yield his crop of grass, clover and winter wheat.

These two discussions representing natural conditions exactly illustrate what are offered for the consideration of our Western farmers. The conditions here are those of neither England nor Wake county, but a partial compromise of the two.

Dr. Grisson has resigned. We regret that he postponed it until it was in a manner forced upon him. No doubt that the latter alternative was grateful to those who demanded his removal.

Dr. Parker Prayscream Van der Rosen, Oregline and Diamond nail powder having now become the ladies' favorites, at P. L. Jacob's drug store, these popular maniere articles may always be found, together with pocket emery board, orange wood sticks, nail scissors, files and other such requisites.

Another act of the Haytian revolution is about closed by the inability of President Lagittine to sustain himself, and the full triumph of Hyppolite is only retarded by the unwillingness of Legitimite to surrender Port au Prince to his tender mercies.

We are giving you some special inducements in Ladies' Fine Dress Goods, Trimmings, Satines, Ginghams, Hosiery, etc.

Dr. Grisson has resigned. We regret that he postponed it until it was in a manner forced upon him. No doubt that the latter alternative was grateful to those who demanded his removal.

The Governor does not endorse Dr. Grisson. On the contrary he has appointed a Board that is expected to secure the retirement of the doctor.

Customer—Now, you are quite sure you have given me the proper drug, and not some fatal poison? Druggist's ap- preciation—Well, I wouldn't be real sure. Maybe you'd better take some of it and see.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects.

WE ARE BUSY.

Think of it! At this season of the year, when everyone is complaining of dull trade, we have more than we can do.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ONE YEAR AGO.
The finest and best equipped Drug Store in North Carolina was opened in Asheville by T. C. Smith & Co.—After eighteen years of prosperity in the wholesale and retail drug business at Charlotte, they sold out and moved to Asheville, where they secured the best and handsomest store room in the city—fitted up in style, with all the latest appliances and conveniences possessed by other modern drug stores.—Twelve months have passed since this venture was made—they find the outlook far ahead of their expectations—business growing larger monthly, having already reached a solid basis.—Their success demonstrates what Asheville will do, for those who come here with "the know how."—Prescriptions and general business have poured into this New Drug Store until necessity compels the employment of a large force of thoroughly competent clerks.—This new firm do not want the earth, only a small part of it.—They are entering the second year of their business career with new snap, large stock, ample raw cash to make large additions, big trade already established, a successful past and a bright future.—These facts show what can be done for those who have a well grounded faith in the commercial importance of our growing city—for those who have the nerve to burn all the bridges behind them, and give proper attention to their business.—The people are kindly asked to continue their favors to this prosperous and busy drug store, where every article sold is warranted as represented, or purchase money refunded.
