General Johnstone Jones. We have received a copy of the San Diego Sun of August 31, from which we learn of the arrival of General and Mrs. Jones in that far away city, and the cordial welcome that greeted them.

Quoting from THE CITIZEN and the Journal, the Sun says: General Jones and family of North Carolina, who have been in the city a few days, will make this their future home.

Sun Cotton Review. New York, September 10.—Futures opened slightly lower, but the bears were discovered with a small decline in the face of so many depressing influences.

London, after lagging strangely behind every little backwoods town in America, is at last seriously to take up electric lighting. Three great companies, with a capital of over $12,000,000, have taken contracts to light the main thoroughfares, and extensive plants are being laid for private consumers as well.

One of the editors who went on the Georgia farmers' tour writes the Atlanta Constitution that nine-tenths of the farms in Ohio are mortgaged, while in Georgia there are not more than one-third of the farms in the same fix.

Swannanoa Hotel. A successful cuisine. Popular with tourists, families and business men. Electric cars pass the door.

HEREAFTER. We will run two delivery wagons. The necessity for this has been caused by our largely increasing trade, making it impossible to deliver with one wagon.

Never Before. Have we made a offer like this: it lasts only till October 15.—Best triple plate knives, full size, $1.75 per set; dessert size $1.65 per set; a good white handle knife $1.00 per set; fine celluloid knives, worth $3 a set; a fine assortment of carving knives and forks in proportion.

The Weather To-Day. WASHINGTON, September 10.—Indications for North Carolina—Fair in interior; rain on coast; no change in temperature; northerly winds.

ASHEVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE. OPENS ITS NEXT TERM Wednesday, September 11th, AT 9 O'CLOCK.

Full and experienced Faculty. Extensive, thorough and practical course of study. Terms reasonable. For information apply to Rev. S. N. Barker, Pres.

FOUND. A bunch of seven keys, one brass. Apply at CITIZEN OFFICE.
