Sun Cotton Review. NEW YORK, October 2.—The Sun's cot-ton review says: "Futures opened de-pressed by a fall of 3a5-64 in the Liverpool market, but an unfavorable crop re-port from Memphis caused a quick re-covery. The slight improvement after the last call on demand to cover con-tracts was lost as soon as the demand subsided but the close was about steady ost of the Southern markets were antic lower.

The Duellists Bound Over.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 30.—At Cedar Bluffs, Ala., to-day Pat Calhoun, I. D. Williamson, Henry Jackson and John King, principals and seconds in the late Callioun-Williamson duel, were placed under a $500 bond to appear in court on News-Observer: Almost the wholecity was aroused on Sunday night by a ter-rific explosion. As officer J. H. Marshall was going home about six o'clock p. m., he passed by the manhole on Wilmington Noticing a very offensive odor which emanated from the manhole he concluded Our stock, as heretofore, will to stick a lighted match to the place and see if it would ignite. He struck a match and held it over one of the little holes it and held it over one of the little holes in the iron cap to the manhole when in-stantly there was a terrific explosion. The poisonous gas had been ignited by the match and the explosion was the result. The iron cap was blown high into the air and went whizing by Mr. Marshall's head, knocking off his hat. No other damage was done. It is well No other damage was done. It is well that Kaleigh is so soon to have a new and perfect sewerage system.

Charlotte Chronicle Mrs. Cynthio King, wie of W. W. King, of Sugar Hill farm, died very suddenly Sunday morn-ing. Between one and two o'clock her husband was a wakened by her and found her to be violently ill, as he thought, with a spasm. In ten minutes she was dead; from what could not be ascertained. The attendance was estimated at 2,000, said to be the largest crowd that ever attended a religious meeting in that section Mr. Pearson pleased the people at the start.
