EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE BODY.

The Work Apparently Moving Changing of the Prayer Book.

NEW YORK, October 3 .- When the alternoon session of the Episcopal conven-tion opened, the Rev. Dr. Hanckel, of tion opened, the key, br. indicket of Virginia, with permission of key. Dr. Huntington, moved that the rules be sus-pended to permit the hunding in of per-tions for the organization of new dio-ceses, so that they might be referred to the committee on new dioceses. This was agreed to, and petitions for theorganiza-tion of new dioceses in Southern California, Colorado and Missouri, were handed Resolutions 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 were also adopted with practical unanimity. Just after the vote on resolution 19 was taken, two messages from the House of Bishops were received. The first announced that the House of Bishops had adopted, condi-tional on the concurrence of the House of Deputies, the entire eighteen resolutions upon which the House of Deputies had been voting. There was some laughter caused by the expeditiousness with which the bishops had acted. The action on all other resolutions having been taken, the twelfth resolution came up for considera-tion. Dr. Huntington said that personally he was opposed to the reso-lution and, therefore, did not wish to move its adoption. He suggested that Rev. Dr. Egar, of Central New York, the member of the committee who was in favor of it make the motion. This Dr. Egar did. He also spoke in sup-port of the resolution which was: In the order of the administration of the Lord's supper for the rubric then shall be read the apostles or Niceae creed, etc. Substitute following the rubric placing after it the creed:

A tiny stowaway was discovered on A tiny stowaway was discovered on the steamship La Bretagne in midocean five days ago. The ship's surgeon was the discoverer. The little one got its first misty glimpse of land vesterday morning when it passed through Castle Garden in the arms of its happy mother. Curious juvenile passengers in the steerage were told that their brand new companion had been picked up from a raft that slipped off a cloud.

It wasn't very long after the baby had emitted its first sea squall that every French woman in the cabin wanted to see it and do something for it. So it was passed around and hugged and kisse with much feminine enthusiasm, and voted to be the very sweetest little daughter of Neptune that ever boarded a baby, and its father and mother. Monsieur and Madame Huter, of Alsace, ere 400 frames richer than when they left Havre.

That wasn't all the busy little French women did for the nautical kid. Under the inspiration of Mme. Trouilly, a sewinc circle was organized, and all the odds and ends of silk and lace were fished out from the corners of trunks and devoted to the adorament of the child of the sea. Meanwhile there was a christening, at which a reverend passenger officiated and the baby received the name of Marie Josephine Bretagne Huter. A Pretty Wedding on North Main Street Last Night.

Married at the residence of the bride's nother in this city, on Thursday, October 1880, by the Rev. J. S. Burnett, S. F.

This notice announces the marriage of two of the most popular young people of Asheville. Both of them natives of the place in which they have lived all their lives, and their popularity is but a proof of their admirable traits of character.

The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was not large enough to admit more than a small percentage of the friends who would have flocked together to tender their congratulations.

At 7 o'clock the wedding march was played admirably by Mr. F. L. Jacobs as the bridal party entered, and then to the accompaniment of a low, sweet symphony, the officiating minister read the impressive service of the Methodist church; the troth of each was solemnly plighted to the other, and the happy couple were declared man and wife. As such may their life be long and happy as they deserve, which is the best wish THE CITIZEN can tender them.
