

THE CRONIN CASE. HOW HE WAS TAKEN AWAY FROM MRS. CONKLIN'S.

The man Rang the Bell Nervously—One of O'Sullivan's Men Hurl—A Buggy and a White Horse, and Cronin is Released.

Chicago, October 28.—Mrs. Cronin, at whose house Dr. Cronin last lived, was the next witness. After numerous questions as to the location of the rooms in the flats, Mrs. Cronin proceeded to tell the story of how the doctor was called away from her house on the night of May 4.

CHICAGO REVIEW. Business in the Grain Center During Yesterday's Session.

Chicago, October 28.—Trading was only moderate wheat, in fact during most of the session the market was quiet. The opening was tame and the feeling slightly weaker, but under good buying a stronger feeling developed and prices were advanced 3/8c, then weakened, and prices declined 1/2c, and closed 1/2c lower for December and 1/2c lower for May than the closing figures of Saturday.

A GIGANTIC ENTERPRISE. To a reporter to-night he said: "The bridge to be built is the bill for permission to bridge the Hudson River has already been drawn up, and will be presented to Congress by a New York member early in the coming session."

OUR MAN ABOUT TOWN. What He Sees and What He Thinks About It.

The removal of the postoffice to the court house square is a sensible move. The nonsense in this postoffice business however, is in the parsimony of Uncle Sam in not supplying money enough for the postmaster to hire suitable space to accommodate the office.

The attention of New Yorkers and the country generally has been directed to Asheville by the Vanderbilt purchase of 5,000 acres of land and the publication of the plans of the millionaire concerning the erection of a magnificent house and the laying out of his splendid property.

THE BARNARD BOYS. FIVE MEN SENTENCED TO BE EXECUTED.

In Hancock county, Tennessee, December 23rd—Sentence of the Court Read by Judge Caldwell—Judge Turley Dissents.

The supreme court decided the Barnard case yesterday morning. The opinion, an elaborately written one, was delivered by Judge Caldwell, Judge Turley dissented.

RANDOM NOTES. Roped In by Rambling Reporters Roaming Round the City.

A colored man by the name of Burton lost $48.20 in "The Ace" on Saturday night; the amount being stolen from his person while he was asleep. He had but recently reached the city from Knoxville.

The marked improvements being made by Dr. T. J. Hargan on the Oak Street Inn are progressing rapidly, and when completed, will constitute it one of the most attractive of the many striking buildings of our city.

THE JAY BIRD. A Plea for This Inhabitant of Our Lofly Oaks.

Our "man about town" is nervous about the jay bird, and is ready to turn all the small boys loose upon him. We have a word to say about the jay. He is a bird of beautiful plumage; and if his voice is not full of dulcet notes, it is full of hearty life and enjoyment.

"THE DAILY REBEL." A Typographical Relic of the Late Unpleasantness.

We are interested in a facsimile copy of a little paper with the above title, published in Chattanooga during the war. The copy we have bears date August 9, 1862. It is a four page, four column sheet, and without a single business advertisement.

CRIMINAL COURT. The Opening of this Tribunal Yesterday.

This court was called on yesterday promptly at 10 o'clock, Hon. Charles A. Moore presiding. His Honor delivered an able charge to the grand jury, which was composed of the following gentlemen:

FOLKS YOU KNOW. Who They Are? Where They Are, and What They Are Doing.

S. V. Pickett, of Hendersonville, was in the city yesterday. Messrs. Smith and Owl, and all the Cherokees in attendance upon the recent Baptist Convention, left for their homes yesterday.

SHOULD BE STOPPED. Pedestrians Have Rights, and Teams Have Rights, but the Protection of Life Will Interfere with Neither.

We cheerfully give place to the following communication, with the remark that the difference between fast driving and careless driving is that between treadle and tweedle; either will kill or hurt. There is this difference perhaps; careless driving is more cold blooded and deliberate; therefore the more criminal. There is too much of both. And fast riding is to be added to the category of offences; offences from which lady riders are not free.

We call upon the police force to take vigorous action in this case. We elect them as our guardians and protectors. The complaints are general and numerous. Make examples of violators of law and propriety.

There can be no doubt but that our streets are very narrow and very crowded, making careful driving an absolute necessity. Yet if any one will take the trouble to watch the men employed as drivers I doubt if they can pick out more than a couple of dozen of all those employed who habitually pay the necessary attention to their teams.

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION. The Closing Scenes at Dr. Nelson's Church Sunday Night.

The business sessions of the Western North Carolina Baptist convention were, as was announced in our Sunday morning issue, closed on Saturday, but the Sunday services were perhaps enjoyed more by the public generally than any during the progress of the convention.

FOUNDERED AT SEA. Twenty of the Lexington Lynchers Arrested.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 28.—About two weeks ago one Berrier killed his mother-in-law at Lexington, N. C., and on being captured, he was lynched. Gov. Fowle urged Solicitor Long to discover the lynchings; and Long made affidavit before Judge Phillips on which twenty of the lynchings have been arrested and confined under a strong guard. Some of the ring leaders have fled. Much excitement prevails at Lexington.
