

NOBLE OLD VIRGINIA.

HE BURES MAHONE UNDER 30,000 MAJORITY.

The Legislature Largely Democratic—Every Section of the State Turns Against the Would-be Republican of the South.

STANTON, Va., November 6.—Augusta, Rockbridge, Rockingham, Alleghany, Bath and Shenandoah counties, the heart of the white district, give McKinney a combined majority of 4,200. The same counties in 1888 gave Cleveland 616 majority.

WINCHESTER, Va., November 6.—Frederick county officials give McKinney 1,208 majority, a gain of 247. Silver, dem., for the legislature, has 1,193 majority.

HARRISONBURG, Va., November 6.—The official returns for this county show McKinney's majority to be 788, a gain of 1,068. Lury, for attorney general, leads Mahone over 100.

LAKINGTON, Va., November 6.—Full returns from this, Rockbridge, county give the democratic State ticket 550 majority, a gain of 586 over the presidential vote of 1888. A democratic senator and two members of the general assembly are elected by 500 majority.

RICHMOND, Va., November 6.—The republicans have elected 24 members of the house of delegates, with five counties to be heard from, and eleven members of the Senate with two districts to hear from.

Attempted Assassination. DANVILLE, Va., November 6.—Fitzsylvania county gives McKinney 1,919 majority, exclusive of Danville and North Danville. Halifax county 2,305, Franklin county 1,050.

The people of South Boston, Halifax county, are still terribly excited over the attempted assassination yesterday of Hon. R. R. Nolin and others by negroes, who fired upon the party from ambush.

Nolin was shot in the eye, and Julian Chappell was also shot, but not seriously.

Three negroes have been arrested and were brought here to-night for safe keeping.

Thirty Thousand Majority. RICHMOND, Va., November 6.—Out of 100 counties in this State seventy-one have been heard from. Out of fourteen cities returns have been received from nine. Every city and county shows a gain for McKinney over the vote of 1888.

Thus far the Democrats have elected seventy members to the house of delegates and twenty-nine to the senate. The last legislature stood: House, sixty-three democrats, thirty-seven republicans; senate, twenty-six democrats, fourteen republicans. The entire estimate of the vote gives McKinney 30,000 majority.

COTTON OIL TRUST. It Will be Re-organized at Once on a New Basis.

NEW YORK, November 6.—The meeting appointed at the last meeting of the certificate holders of the cotton oil trust to examine into its affairs and suggest a method for changing the trust into a corporate concern, met this afternoon, F. P. Abbott, president, presiding. The report presented and adopted after considerable discussion was on basis of changing the present certificates into stock, which would be assured by the deposit of all securities owned by the trust with a central trust company. The new stock will consist of $27,000,000, $15,000,000, 6 per cent, preferred stock. The committee reported, that through errors of judgment, a loss of $276,110 had been charged off on the books of the company.

The report of the committee of trustees for the fiscal year ending August 3, 1889, was found to be correct.

The extraordinary loss of $276,110 is accounted for by the fact, that the president and treasurer of the trust had, for the purpose, as they state, of maintaining and strengthening the credit of the concern, used its funds in supporting the price of certificates. These transactions entailed the loss of over half million dollars. Flagler, president, contributed $150,000, and J. O. Morse, treasurer, $100,000 toward making up the deficiency. The company will be reorganized on the plan recommended by the committee.

MARYLAND ELECTION. Republicans Make Large Gains in the Legislature.

BALTIMORE, November 6.—The legislature will certainly be Democratic. The returns show that there were some surprises and changes. The legislature is composed of 117 members, twenty-six in the senate and ninety-one in the house of delegates. In the last senate there were twenty-two democrats and four republicans; in the house seventy-one democrats and twenty republicans. One-half of the number of senators are hold-overs. New senators were elected in one district of Baltimore and in twelve counties. The new legislature will, from the latest returns, stand: Senate, eighteen democrats and eight republicans, a gain of four republicans; house, fifty-five democrats and thirty-six republicans, a gain of sixteen republicans, and a total republican gain of twenty in both houses. The legislature is still democratic, but by a reduced majority.

FROZEN COWBOYS. Terrible Experience While Herding Cattle in a Snow.

DEVILS, Col., November 4.—One of the results of the terrible blizzards which swept over western Colorado and northern New Mexico Thursday and Friday of last week, reached here to-day from Folsom, N. M. Thursday night, Henry Miller, range foreman for Col. R. G. Seal, with several cowboys, camped near Sierra Grande with 1,800 beef cattle which they were holding for the purpose of loading in the cars. At 4 o'clock that morning a blizzard from the northwest struck the herd, driving the cattle toward the mountain. The cowboys being unable to load them. The snow was so blinding that it made it impossible to see fifty feet ahead. Miller called his men together and they started to follow the path, and made an attempt to keep them bunched so far as possible. The men became separated on Friday night. One of them wandered into Head's home ranch, half dead with cold and hunger. He told his story, and the rescuing party was immediately sent out, and at noon the frozen bodies of Henry Miller, Joe Martin and Charlie Jolly were found lying on the open plains not far from Folsom. The other men succeeded in finding their way to the camp before being overcome with cold.

STANLEY HEARD FROM.

He is Making His Way Out of the Wilderness.

LONDON, November 6.—Mackinnon, head of the Emin relief committee, has received a dispatch from Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, which reads: "I returned from Buraia for the third time in fourteen days and found out that Emin and Jopson had both been prisoners since the 18th of August, 1888, being the day after I made the discovery that Bartolo's caravan had been wrecked. Troops in the equatorial province had revolted and shaken off all allegiance. Shortly after the Mahdists invaded the province in full force. After the first battle in May the natives yielded and a panic struck the officers, who joined the invaders and assisted in the work of destruction.

"The invaders subsequently suffered reverse and dispatched a steamer to Khartoum for reinforcements. I found a letter waiting for me near Albert Nyanza, exposing the dangerous position of the survivors and urging the immediate necessity of my arrival before the end of December, as otherwise it would be too late. I arrived there on the 14th of January.

"From the 14th of February to the 8th of May I waited for the fugitives, and left Albert Nyanza homeward bound. By the route taken no hostile natives were met.

"Since we left Kabbarge we traveled along the base of the snow range Rugozori. Three sides of southern Nyanza, or Nyanza of Usogoro, which is called now Albert Edward Nyanza, are about 9,400 feet higher than the Albert Nyanza, having an exit at Semlike, which receives over fifty streams from Rugozori, and finally enters the Albert Nyanza, making the Albert Edward the source of the southwest branch of the White Nile, the Victoria Nyanza being the source of the southeast branch."

Mackinnon says the committee has given orders that supplies for Stanley be hurried on to M'wapa, and beyond there if possible. Stanley is expected to reach the coast in January or February.

CHICAGO REVIEW. Business in the Grain Center During Yesterday's Session.

CHICAGO, November 6.—The speculative trade in wheat was credited to local operators. There was no foreign news to affect the course of the market, and the influence were the controlling power. The opening was 1/2c higher, advanced 1/2c, more, then declined 1/2c, advanced 1/2c, and closed 1/2c higher for December and 1/2c higher for May than last Monday.

Corn ruled quiet a greater part of the session, trading being mainly local and fluctuations narrow. The market opened at about Monday's closing prices, changed but little and closed a shade better than Monday.

Oats were steadier, but business was light and no important features developed. Prices were 1/2c to 1/4c higher, but later a weaker feeling prevailed and the advance was lost.

Mess pork was traded in moderately; the early feeling was stronger and prices were advanced 7 1/2 to 12 1/2c, but later in the day the market was weaker and the improvement was lost. Yesterday was a busy day. The yarn departments were most active. Few China orders were executed, partly because merchants have already bought freely and partly because of the receipt of discouraging telegrams from Shanghai, where there is a great depression of money, 25 per cent per annum being the rate paid for short loans. Moderate orders were executed for India at Friday's best prices. The demand for minor foreign and home markets was fair. Buyers of yarn have abandoned expectation of low rates, and the tendency now is to look for a steadiness of the market. The practicable export demand is small. Cloth is strong and full prices obtainable. Sellers of India plain and fancy goods progress fairly. Manufacturers of best printing cloths secure prices for their commodities. Common is dull at hardening prices. Heavy cloths are quiet, with steady demand.

CONGRATULATIONS. Governors Hill and Lee Exchange Felicitations.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 6.—Governor Hill to-day telegraphed Governor Fitzhugh Lee congratulating him on the democratic success in Virginia yesterday, to which he received the following reply: "Accept my thanks for your telegram. The old commonwealth fought with splendid success against the blaudishments of the administration at Washington, the active interest of some of the cabinet, the free exercise of federal patronage, the oratory of numerous republican congressmen and senators from outside her limits, and the grease poured copiously upon her soil from fat fired from the manufacturing Virginia sends her congratulations to New York."

(Signed) FITZHUGH LEE. Belle Brown All Right.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 6.—Belle Brown, daughter of a Washington business man, whose disappearance five weeks ago caused considerable stir and extensive search, has been found in New York all right and in good hands. Her mind seems to have been partially unhinged. When she left she was in the Baltimore and Potomac depot, and hearing the train for New York announced, purchased a ticket for that place and boarded the train on a sudden impulse. On the journey she attracted the notice of a kindly disposed Southern lady who secured a good home for her during a week's illness which followed and until she secured employment as companion to an invalid lady. Longings for home and friends induced her to write to her father, who went at once to New York and found his daughter with her mind again clear.

Iowa in Doubt. WASHINGTON, November 6.—First Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson received a telegram this evening from his home in Iowa stating that the contest over the legislature is very close, and the result is in doubt.

HURRAH FOR OHIO!

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR AND SENATOR ASSURED.

Governor Foraker Acts Handsomely and Telegraphs Congratulations to Governor Campbell—Majority About 12,000.

COLUMBUS, O., November 6.—The republic State committee at 1 o'clock to-day conceded the election of Campbell, and admits that the legislature is democratic in both branches.

At 1 o'clock this morning Governor Foraker sent the following telegram: "I congratulate you on the victory which you have won in Ohio. I am glad to see that the people have chosen a democratic government, and I trust that the people of Ohio will continue to support the democratic party in all its efforts for the good of the State."

COLUMBUS, O., November 6.—Hon. Jas. E. Campbell, Hamilton, Ohio: To the full extent that a devoted candidate can do so with propriety, allow me to offer my congratulations, and assure you it will give me pleasure to extend you every courtesy I can show you in connection with your inauguration and commencement of your administration.

J. B. FORAKER. CINCINNATI, Ohio, November 6.—Official returns from sixty-four counties in Ohio give Campbell a plurality of 8,905. The four remaining counties, Ashland, Geauga, Ottawa and Paulding, gave Powell a plurality in 1887 of 430.

CLEVELAND, O., November 6.—Complete returns from Cleveland county give Foraker 20,403 votes and Campbell 18,168. Foraker ran from 800 to 1,500 votes behind this ticket. In fact, he was out by republicans in nearly every one of the 100 precincts in this county. Eight republican candidates for the general assembly were elected by ample pluralities, and the results in this county, all things considered, met the expectations of Governor Foraker's friends. In northern Ohio the democrats lost and gained votes in spots. In Summit county, the county flourishing city of Akron is the capital, the republican loss was something like 1,100. Akron is a manufacturing city, and the tariff was made more or less a question of the evening the impression prevails here, and it is based on a careful review of all the returns now at hand, that the democrats have a majority of two in the house of representatives, and possibly a majority of two in the senate. If this should prove correct, a demagogue will succeed Henry B. Payne in the senate of the United States. The senatorial election will occur in January, 1890.

Ohio has been known as a republican State when all the republicans voted, yet it has never been represented at Washington by two republican senators. Senator Sherman has always had a democratic colleague, and now Payne, who is a very old man, and who says that he will not be a candidate for re-election, will be followed by another democrat.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, November 6.—The democratic State committee is claiming the election of Campbell by a demagogue of 12,000 or 15,000, and the rest of the ticket by pluralities ranging from 4,000 to 8,000. These conclusions are reached by estimates, but are believed to be reliable within range of the pluralities which are given.

The republican committee has nothing upon which they can reliably dispute the figures, further than they do not think the plurality of Campbell will reach over eight or ten thousand, and that the rest of the State ticket will not be elected by more than two or three thousand plurality. Both committees and chairmen seem to be agreed that the democrats will carry the Legislature in both branches. It is not probable the figures are agreed upon as to membership of the republican senators, that which has already been announced, though in some of the counties they do not have conclusive information. From the best at hand, gathered from both headquarters, the house will stand 61 democrats and 63 republicans, and the senate 19 democrats and 17 republicans. This would give the democrats a majority of ten on joint ballot.

The Peach Duet. They are all singing "Johnny Jones and his Sister Sue." The rendition is admirable and has an undercurrent of gloomish feeling which Digby Bell can never hope to imitate. Who? Why the druggists of course. They take to that song like ducks to water. That "same peach" that "same old, globular affair," has done them many a good turn when business was dull.

It is sad to think that they can take such a keen delight in the horrible fate of those misguided children, but, if you are in the least morbid in your tastes, go to the corner of Patton avenue and North Main street. Here, above the rumbling of the carts and the emphatic asides of the would-be passengers in that long expected electric car, can ever be heard those sweet, mournful strains, so replete with visions read to every undertaker's heart. We make a distinction between them and the druggists in this respect. The latter, although they "speed the parting guest," always wish that he would tarry just on this side of Jordan.

To the Ladies. The ladies interested in the organization of the Asheville Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society will please remember the meeting this afternoon at 3.30 in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. over Smith's pharmacy.

The contract for the Hendersonville jail has been awarded to Edwards, a contractor of that place. It was not the fault of the Ashevilleans, for they had put in their bids. They did not know that Hendersonville wanted so poor a jail.

The ladies of the Sons of Temperance in Asheville will have an entertainment and oyster supper at their lodge room over W. C. Carmichael's drug store to-night, beginning at 7.30.

Masonic Notice. The regular communication of Mount Hermon Lodge, A. F. and A. M., to-night at 7.30 o'clock.

Massachusetts Pretty Close. BOSTON, November 6.—Returns have been received from every town in the State, except Goswold. The final figures, which may be slightly changed in the official returns, give Brackett, rep., 126,792; Russell, dem., 120,812; Blackmer, pro., 13,854; Brackett's plurality, 5,979. In 1887 Ames, rep., had 136,000; Loving, dem., 118,394; Earl, pro., 10,945.

FEDERAL COURT.

The Hardships Imposed by the Present Revenue Laws.

The scenes presented to a thoughtful observer in the court house of Buncombe county yesterday were not such as to make one proud of his nation, nor of that part of its laws which tends directly to the manufacture of criminals, by declaring those nets to be crimes which are not so declared in the decalogue, nor in any portion of the Holy Writ.

Of course the spirit of divine teaching is that it is the duty of every loyal citizen to obey the laws of his government; but that government should be careful not to impose upon its subjects burdens which neither they nor their fathers have been able to bear; and just exactly this what is being done by the federal internal revenue laws as now enacted and enforced. And to this legislation is attributable the scenes which each day must cause sorrow and pain to the kind hearted Judge Dick, whose disposition, every one knows, is to temper judgment with mercy.

We can scarcely conceive of anything more disagreeable to a humane and charitable man, than to look down upon a room crowded with poor devils, hauled here by marshals and deputies from all parts of this extensive mountain section, perhaps leaving their families in circumstances of destitution, to answer a charge of violation of the revenue laws, to be convicted of such technical crime perchance on the evidence of some fellow much more contemptible than the defendant, who unblushingly swears: "Wall, I got in with Jim, and we went a good piece to a house where Jim bought a quart of liquor, and then I begged Jim to divide with me, but he didn't want to do it; but at last he did give me a half a pint and I gave him ten cents. I never told nothing about it for a long time, till I fell out with Jim, and then I felt in my conscience that I ought to tell the truth, and I went to the marshal and got Jim arrested." And of course on the evidence of this conscientious witness, poor Jim is found guilty and perhaps sent to the already overflowing jail, to be crowded into a small cell, and there pine away all the Christmas holidays, which ought to be always so happy a time to him and all mankind.

About eighteen or twenty cases of similar importance to that above cited were put through on yesterday, a proportion of which resulted in acquittals, while in some of the convictions the judgment was wisely suspended. The following defendants, Luther Parley, Miles Woods, Cornelius Nicholson, Samuel Rose, James Stilton and Richard Martin, were not so lucky, but were sentenced to three months imprisonment and the payment of a fine of $100 besides the costs.

A visit to the county jail showed that it was rapidly assuming the popular character which distinguishes it at every term of the court. Already some thirty federal prisoners are confined there, and probably twice that number will take lodgings with the hospitable landlord before the week is ended. The officials are all courteous and attentive to the wants of their guests, but it is to be hoped that the number to be shut up there will be kept within the limits to which the building is adapted, and that the good people of Asheville will do what they can to mitigate the sufferings which to us seem oftentimes quite out of proportion to the gravity of the offense.

IN IT A MYTH? A Great Railroad Project Which Includes Asheville.

We share the incredulity of the Morris-town Gazette as to the credibility of the following program of a scheme announced by the Railway Age. There may be something in it; for there is nothing too bold for the daring of enterprise; and as this scheme has Asheville as an objective point we republish it. It may set people to thinking:

A large syndicate is now forming in Boston for the organization of the Southern coal, iron and railroad company, to construct at once a system of railroads in Tennessee and North and South Carolina to be known as the Blue Ridge railway system. Surveys are now in progress. The railroad will be built from Morris-town, Tenn., via Kansas, Danbridge and Sevierville to a point near Maryville, thence to Madisonville and Athens, Tenn., with a division to Maryville and Knoxville from Sevierville over the Blue Ridge by a tunnel and a loop to Greenville, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., and with a division north via Waynesville to Asheville, N. C. Incorporation will take place next week, with election of officers, and construction will begin at once at these points. This company will operate extensively in coal and iron and in the general development of the country along the route. The capital represented is over $5,000,000. L. C. Wolkstein, of Boston, is chief engineer. This system when completed will connect with all the leading railroad systems of the South with the southwest, west and northwest.

A Rough Voyage. CHARLESTON, S. C., November 6.—The schooner Frank Walker Hercher arrived here to-day. Captain Chamberlain left Philadelphia October 18. He encountered a terrific gale off Italy island on the 23rd and tremendous seas on the 24th. Coner, a Norwegian, and a colored sailor were washed overboard and drowned. Everything movable on deck was lost, the forward house stove lost and the boat's mainmast, foresail and jib. The lamp boxes were washed from the rigging. She scudded thirty hours and was driven 300 miles out of her course.

Alabama Rejoices. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., November 6.—Birmingham is engaged to-night in celebrating with bourees, Roman candles and skyrockets, the democratic victories of Tuesday. The shouts are all for Campbell, the interest having centered on the Ohio contest.

THE MAHONE SHOOTING.

THE EVIDENCE ADDUCED BEFORE THE MAYOR.

The Boys Were Celebrating, and Fired Off Pop-Crackers in His Yard—The General Says He Did Not Shoot—$2,500 Bail.

PETERSBURG, Va., November 6.—The particulars of the arrest of Gen. Mahone last night on the charge of shooting young Harrison, his temporary confinement in the station house, and his subsequent release on bail, are as follows: About 9.30 o'clock it was evident, according to the returns, that the democrats had scored a decided victory. The result was that some of the best young men in the city organized themselves into a scouting band, armed with a liberal supply of fire works, and proceeded to celebrate the victory. From Steamers street they marched to Market street and thence to a point very near General Mahone's residence. There they fired off some Roman candles and baby wakers, until their merriment was interrupted by a volley which it was alleged was fired from Gen. Mahone's yard. Only one man was shot, however. He was Herbert P. Harrison, of the firm of Gilbert & Harrison, confectioners. A warrant was at once issued for Mahone's arrest, and he was taken into custody; and while detained in the lock-up, mayor Chamber was sent for. The case was heard and the following evidence adduced:

The first witness sworn was Charles Rowaine, son of a New Yorker, but for many years engaged in business here. He testified that he and his friends started in to celebrate the victory, and went to a point opposite Mahone's residence. There they fired off several pieces of fire works, and then either Gen. Mahone, Butler, his son, or ex-policeman Berry, discharged fire arms into their midst. General himself was plainly visible in the yard, and he was flourishing his hand. His testimony was corroborated by that of other witnesses.

The evidence of C. E. Burton, corroborated by Rowaine, established the fact that Harrison was shot by some one in the front yard of Mahone's house, and that the defendants acted upon the often-said:

Cesar Loddle distinctly heard three shots fired from Mahone's yard. He saw Mahone with a gun in his hands.

Myer Saal heard two or three shots fired.

"I saw Gen. Mahone with a double barreled breech loading gun in his hands. One of the gentlemen expressed to Gen. Mahone his surprise about his having a gun." The General said, "Yes, this is my gun."

Saal further testified that Mahone said he would kill any one who entered his yard, at the same time clapping his hand on his pocket, and he would protect his property. The General was standing near his gate and the shot was fired from that point.

Mahone said: "I was sitting in my library in conversation with Mr. Campbell and Col. Barbore. I heard the explosion of fire works in the street until they got to my house. Some were exploded in my yard. Loud reports caused me the impression that fire arms were being used in my yard. Desiring to protect my property, I walked out, and seized my gun as I passed.
