STATE NEWS.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Richmond Disputch of the 11th, says: John C. Winder, Thomas M. Holt, and Mojor Randolph have been appointed a com-mittee to select a plan for a large union depot here.

Hyde county has at last taken active steps to stop the oyster pirates from their work. A large schooner from Vir-ginia is now in Pamlico sound, and is guia is now in Famheo sound, and is using boats and negro tongers brought from Virginia, and a Virginia dredger is at work in Long-Shoal river.

Coal from the beds in Stokes county has been sent to Richmond to be tested. People who are opening the denosits say

People who are opening the deposits say they believe the prospects of success are Josiah Stancill, the postmaster at Sel-

Josiah Staneill, the postmaster at a ma, whose arrest has been telegraphed, is still in jail here, not having been able to secure bail. His sureties to-day put to secure bail. His sureties to day pain David H. Graves as postmaster.

The Atlantic Coast-Line yesterday morning took five hundred negro exoduters to Mississippi, and one lundred and fifty more passed here on their way from Kinston to the same

Thirty-five white farmers left Jolinston county to-day for Arkansas. The failure of their cropscauses their departure from the State. They have owned farms, but go to the Southwest as laborers.

A Tobacco Substitute.

A new substitute for tobacco is being introduced. It is a mixture of British herbs—the particular plants are kept secret—and smokers who have tried the compound declare it to be deliciously from the compound sector. compound declare it to be deliciously fra-grant, slightly exhilarating and withat soothing to the nerves. Combined with ordinary tobacco it is said to make a blend as satisfactory as that of chicory with coffee, but such a blend is illegal and punishable by very heavy bies. At present it is prepared in Scotland, under the name of 'berb tobacco,' and it has rapidly grown in favor. Virginia has a better substitute, Try red pepper whenever you have an inclination to whenever you have an inclination to chew or smoke. This will break up the Motion to Set Aside Denice. London, November 12.—The motion made by Sir Charles Russell to set aside the decision of the lower court post. This has been caused by our ing the trial of the libel suit bro by Parnell against the Times came up for hearing before the court of Queens-bench to-day. Afterlistening to the argu-ments for and against the motion, the court refused to grant the application.

British Iron Market. London, November 12.—The Middles-borough iron market is excited; No. 3 Cleveland pig is quoted at 68s. It is re-ported that a syndicate has bought up-all Cleveland warrants, thus cornering the market. Middlesborough No. 3 warrants are quoted at 68s, cash.

Another ocean steamship record has been broken. The steamer Columbia, of the Hamburg-American Line, arrived at Southampton at 12 o'clock moon on Thursday, As the Columbia sailed from New York on Thursday of last week, crossing the bar at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, she made the run arross the Atcrossing the bar at 1 o clock in the after-noon, she made the run across the At-lantic in six days, eighteen hours and ten minutes, which is over an hour better than her best previous record. This time would be equal to an even six days to Queenstown.
