

BRAZIL'S RULERS.

A MANIFESTO BY THE NEW, GOOD BYE FROM THE OLD.

Security to Life, Property, and Obligations Promised—Don Pedro Expresses Great Love for His Late Empire.

Mr. JAS. B. (via Galveston) November 19.—The manifesto of the republican government of Brazil is as follows: Fellow Citizens:—The people, the army and the navy and the provinces have now decreed the fall of the imperial dynasty and the suppression of the monarchial system. This patriotic resolution has been followed by the formation of a provisional government whose first mission is to guarantee order, liberty and the rights of the citizens. The formation of this government, until a definite government has been named, has been made with full regard to the most competent material. The government is simply composed of temporary agents who will govern and maintain peace, liberty, fraternity and order. The attributes and extraordinary facilities invested are for the defense and integrity of the country and the preservation of public order. The provisional government promises to use all means in its power to guarantee security of life and property to all inhabitants of Brazil, native and foreign, and respect for individual political opinions, excepting modifications necessary for the good of the country, army and navy. The ordinary functions of the department of justice, civil and military administrations, will continue under their existing organizations, and respect for those holding positions will be maintained. The public debts, interest, and the chamber of deputies is dissolved. The provisional government recognizes and acknowledges all national compromises under the late government, and all agreements with foreign powers. The public debts, interest and external, will be respected. Also all existing contracts and obligations legally made.

(Signed) DIOGO FONSECA, Chief of Provisional Government.

Emperor Don Pedro made the following reply to the communication of the new government informing him of his deposition: In view of the address handed me on the 17th instant, at three o'clock p. m., I resolved to submit to the command of circumstances and to leave with all my family for Europe to-morrow.

Leaving this beloved country, which I have tried to give a firm testimony of my affectionate love and my devotion during nearly a half century as chief of state, I will always have a kindly remembrance of Brazil and hopes for its prosperity.

D. PEDRO D'ALCANTARA, To the Provisional Government.

Adhesion to the new order of things continues. Candido Oliveira is still a prisoner. The King of Portugal has offered Emperor Dom Pedro the use of his palace at Lisbon.

The funeral ceremony in honor of King Luis has been postponed. Senor Campos Salles, the new minister of justice, who has been absent, has arrived in this city. He was received with enthusiasm.

The provisional government delivered to the Emperor a draft for 500,000 cantos to enable him to live well and independently of the donation already mentioned.

The minister of justice has taken possession of his department, having declared before the president and ministers of the supreme tribunal his adhesion to the new order of things. Like declarations have been made by all generals and magistrates.

The National guard and most of the prominent public men in all the provinces are in accord with the present course of events.

The House continues animated, exchange 27 1/2.

Will Move to Asheville.

Murphy Bulletin: We regret to learn that Mrs. W. C. Troy will soon give up charge of Oakland Park here at Valley town and move to Asheville, on account of the transfer of Maj. Troy from the Murphy branch of the Western North Carolina road to the Warm Springs branch, which change places with Mr. Troy so far from Valley town that he would seldom be able to visit home. Mr. Troy and her interesting family have won many friends during their residence here who will be sorry to have them move from the locality.

Knights of Labor.

ATLANTA, November 19.—The morning session of the Knights of Labor, was devoted to the discussion of the eight hour question. Resolutions were adopted to the effect that the matter of short hours should be regulated by demand. The effect of this is to leave it with local assemblies to get up their own laws consistent with different kinds of work. The General Assembly favors a gradual reduction of time, but is opposed to any radical movement.

A Disabled Steamer.

CHARLESTON, S. C., November 19.—The British steamer Atinsdale from Galveston, November 11, for Liverpool, was spoken off the port to-day with the British steamer Benzoree, disabled, in tow. The latter had sailed from Brunswick cotton laden. She broke her shaft 300 miles east of Charleston, and is being towed to Savannah.

Mr. Davis' Condition.

NEW ORLEANS, November 19.—Last night Jefferson Davis suffered considerably from fever, but towards morning his condition became normal. This is the first time since his removal to this city that the patient has been absolutely free from fever. He is, however, extremely weak.

Cotton Crop Estimate.

NEW YORK, November 19.—A dispatch to the Cotton Exchange to-day from Columbia states that this year's estimated cotton crop up to October 1 was 739,998 bales, against 558,642 bales up to the same time last year.

Social Democrats on Trial.

BERLIN, November 19.—Ninety-one social democrats are on trial at Elberfeld for belonging to a secret society. Among them are four deputies.

The Weather To-Day.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—Indications for North Carolina—Fair, stationary temperature, except warmer in western portion; southwesterly winds.

There was a serious strike yesterday by the car drivers and conductors in Brooklyn, because of the discharge of some Knights of Labor. No trouble has occurred as yet.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.

After the Hoodlums—Navy Yard at New Orleans

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 19.—The civil service commission, it is understood, has laid before the President its findings and recommendations in the case of officers of the Old Dominion republican league of Virginia who are charged with sending to the government employees resident in Virginia, just prior to the late election and in violation of the civil service law, circular letters soliciting contributions for campaign purposes. While the commissioners are reticent on the subject, it is believed that the commission is confident of having made out a prima facie case against the accused, and they have recommended to the President their prosecution. The circular, it is understood, was signed by C. A. Newberry, president, and Brook E. Smith, secretary. Upon the letterhead appeared the printed names of the officers, some of whom are now in the employ of the government. What action the President will take, if any, is not yet known. The commission appointed by Secretary Whitney last January, pursuant to an act of congress, "to report as to the most desirable location or near the coast of the Gulf of Mexico and the South Atlantic coast for navy yards and dry docks," has made its report to Secretary Tracy. The commission visited and examined the following sites, the advantages and disadvantages of which are set forth in detail: Port Royal, S. C.; Savannah, Brunswick, Sapelo sound, Ga.; Key West, Tampa bay, Pensacola bay, Fla.; Mobile bay and Mount Vernon, Ala.; Biloxi, Miss.; New Orleans, La. The conclusion of the commission is as follows: "After carefully weighing all the advantages and disadvantages of Algiers as a site for a naval station, the commission is of the opinion that, with the exception of the site at Algiers, no other place on the gulf compares with it in the advantages offered, and that the advantages are so many and so great and outweigh the disadvantages to such an extent that the commission has no hesitation in recommending the location of a navy yard and dry docks at the present government reservation at Algiers, La."

Held to Their Contract.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—Secretary Windom has sustained Treasurer Huston in his controversy with the United States Express Company in regard to transportation of government moneys issued to meet business wants by the decision made this afternoon, that, under its contract with the department, the express company is compelled to receive and transport, at contract rates, any and all money orders issued by the United States Treasurer in his official capacity.

Tenants' League Convention.

DUBLIN, November 19.—The Tenants' Defense League Convention was held at Troy to-day. One thousand delegates were present, including a number of prominent Parliamentaries. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Messrs. O'Reilly and Atkinson, of the Irish National League of America, received an ovation at a regular meeting of the National League in Dublin to-day. They will be tendered a public dinner on Thursday.

Washington Senators.

PORTLAND, OREGON, November 19.—By common consent, one of the United States senators to be elected is awarded to the east and one to the west division of the State of Washington. On a ballot for the east side senator the vote in the House to-day stood: John B. Allen 46, George Garrier 14, T. H. Brentzel 8, Charles S. Voorhes 8. In the senate the vote stood: Allen 26, Turner 6.

Report of the B. & O. Railroad.

BALTIMORE, November 18.—The sixty-third annual report of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1889, shows that the gross earnings of 1889 were $21,042,001, an increase over 1888 of $849,510. Expenses in 1889 were $14,810,844, an increase over 1888 of $610,283. Net earnings in 1889 were $6,492,150, an increase over 1888 of $339,227.

Bond Offerings.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—$208,100 four and a half per cents were accepted by the treasury to-day.

Fire Alarm Telegraph Accepted.

The committee, consisting of Mayor Blanton, Mr. Pulliam and Mr. Fitzpatrick, which was appointed to decide on the question, whether the general fire alarm telegraph system should be used in the city or not, have come to a decision. They met at the Asheville National Bank at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and made a contract with Mr. Clark, the representative of the agreement company. According to the agreement they recorded, the fire alarm telegraph shall be up and ready for use within two months after the date of the contract. It shall cost the city $3,460, and shall be paid in the following instalments: $460 on the date of its acceptance, $1,000 in one year, with six per cent. interest, $1,000 in two years, with six per cent. interest, and the remaining $1,000 in three years, with six per cent. interest. Also, a clause was inserted, guaranteeing the system for the term of five years. As before stated in THE CITIZEN, the non-interference signal boxes will be used; the wires will be of the best, hard drawn insulated copper, and everything will be of the finest workmanship.

More Snow.

Yesterday morning the snow repeated itself, falling so thickly as to cover the ground and house tops. It fell somewhat thickly nearly all day, but it all disappeared from the ground before night, except from the mountains to the west of us, where it still hangs out the sign of winter.

SOMEWHAT MIXED.

WHAT NIGHT HE TERNED A VERY WIGWAG TERNED.

A Newspaper Reporter Says That Another Reporter and Himself Put Hood on the Cotton and Put it in the Chinks for Fun.

CHICAGO, November 19.—The first witness in the Cronin trial to-day was Policeman Reimold McDonald. He testified that he saw that Cronin at East Chicago avenue station, between 8.45 and 9 o'clock on the night of the murder.

On cross examination the witness fixed the time at 9 to 9.15 o'clock. On cross examination the fact was developed that the witness was an uncle of Camp 20 Tracy. The commission examining the witness was asked:

"When did you first learn that Dan Cronin's name was connected with the horse and buggy?"

"I think about a week after, when they first got to writing it in the newspapers."

"Now, in what paper did you read about Cronin being connected with the horse and buggy?"

"I do not know."

"Was that before the body was found?"

"Yes, sir."

"Now, do you not remember that it is fact that Cronin's name was never connected with that in any manner whatever until the 25th of May, three days after the discovery of Cronin's body?" (Sensation.)

(He indignantly—"It was written in the papers about him in connection with the Cronin case.")

William Maloney was the next witness. He testified that he had known O'Sullivan since April. He was not a member of the Cronin case. The witness testified that he had heard a conversation between O'Sullivan and Cronin about the terms of the Cronin case. The old man testified that O'Sullivan said he knew them, and that they were all in the same boat.

This witness testified that O'Sullivan said he knew none of them.

On cross examination the witness said O'Sullivan was not out of the house after 9 o'clock. The witness said he went out at 10 or 10.30 o'clock.

The State's attorney endeavored to elicit from the witness the statement that, in his evidence before the coroner's jury, he had stated that he did not hear the conversation between O'Sullivan and Cronin, but the witness persisted that he never so testified.

Then the cross examination took a somewhat sensational turn, the evident intent being to direct suspicion towards the witness as the man who drove the white horse which was supposed to have been driven by Cronin. However, denied that he had even worn a beard similar to that of the man who was identified as having driven the buggy.

Thomas Whalen, cousin of Patrick O'Sullivan, lived at his house. He testified that O'Sullivan left at 9.15, Saturday, May 5, went to bed.

"Was there anything to call your attention to that?" asked the lawyer.

"My little girl hulloed at him. She was in a rocking chair, and he came back and kissed my little girl. I went to bed about half an hour after O'Sullivan."

The witness was then subjected to a long cross examination, after which the court adjourned.

W. Glenn, a reporter for the Inter-Ocean, testified that one week after the murder, Mrs. Cronin told him that the white horse brought to her door from Dan's livery stable, in no way resembled the horse behind, which Dr. Cronin rode on the fatal night.

Edward Jones, a reporter on the Daily News, testified that he went to the Cronin cottage several days after the discovery of Cronin's body. He went in company with another reporter. A story had been told that morning in a vague way about the Cronin cottage, and as a joke on the way there, they got some cotton batting and a piece of liver, the liver from which they snatched material. They went into the cellar and put some of the blood stained cotton and some rat holes in the floor. The witness denied that he had put it there to furnish material for a sensation in his paper.

On cross examination, the witness said, neither he nor the other reporter put any of their blood stained batting in the cottage up stairs.

Jacob Schuer, the trunk maker, testified that the trunk which is supposed to have contained Dr. Cronin's body was made in his factory. It was, he said, a common kind of a trunk which has been on the market for years, and is sold to dealers indiscriminately. The lock was of the kind which he was in the habit of buying by the hundred dozen. It had been on the market eighteen or nineteen years at least.

Patrick Brennan, an employe of O'Sullivan, elaborated further the ice man's defence.

On cross-examination the fact was brought out that the lawyers for the defence got a lot of their witnesses together at O'Sullivan's house last Sunday and went over their testimony in the presence of the entire company.

The court then adjourned till to-morrow.

Mrs. Conklin this afternoon saw witness Melody, but failed to identify him as the man who drove the white horse.

Creditable to Asheville.

We publish with great pleasure the following from the News-Observer of a 19th. Both of the young men are North Carolinians, one from the East, one from the West, both emulating each other in carrying the flag of their State's honor. Honor to both of them. Of course our sympathies are with our peculiar representative, Robert P. Johnston, and we know we express a general sentiment when we are proud of him. May he and his gallant peer continue through the course before them with the same brilliancy that has distinguished their beginning.

George P. Howell, of Goldsboro, and Robert P. Johnston, of Asheville, late of our University are, we are glad to learn, near the head of their class at West Point. Both have good prospects of coming out among the first five, and Howell being No. 1. It is very rare that two from the same State should take such high marks. The grading is exceedingly rigid and such extraordinary proficiency shows, not only rare talent and industry, but excellent previous instructions.

A lot containing 59 acres has been sold by Mr. C. M. McLeod and Mr. D. L. Reynolds to Mr. D. D. Suttle for $3,500.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Marriage Licenses were issued to Mr. J. L. Long and Miss Louise McElreath, of this county, and Mr. W. A. Wilson, of Madison county, and Miss R. A. Jenkins, of Buncombe county.

A wagon, belonging to the Asheville Ice and Coal company broke down under its load of coal on Main street yesterday afternoon. Is this a sign that the coal season has commenced?

The meeting of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society will be held this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, at the W. C. T. U. rooms over Smith's drug store. Do not fail to be present.

More commercial men have been registered at the Swannanoa than ever before. They appreciate the facilities it affords them in directness of communication with the different business houses of the city.

Alliance meetings will be held at Turkey Creek brick church, Friday, November 22; Sandy Muski, Saturday, November 23; Big Ivy, Friday, November 27, and at Flat Creek, Saturday, November 30.

Gen. Robert B. Vance will address the public on the subject of the Farmers' Alliance at Burnsville Saturday, December 7th, Thursday, December 12 at Steeple, Graham county, and Friday, December 13 at Robbinsville.

There was quite a rumour in one of the warehouses Monday night about 11 o'clock. After the smoke of battle had cleared away, it was found that Louis Fish had a battered jaw. He told the police that he went out to feed his steers and was kicked by a mule. But that they agreed that this looks like a fish story.

The darkey had a good time of it on Monday night. Quite a number of them congregated in the square and, inspired by a little corn liquor, proclaimed their want of fear for the police. One of them was too full for utterance and leaned carelessly against an electric light pole and went completely, ever repeating the refrain, "G'wan George, I ain't afraid of the police, but I ain't gwine to git in the calabash now."

The morning train due yesterday morning at 7.40 did not make its appearance during the day, and the 4.30 p. m. train was two hours late. The splendid condition of the roads from Danville to Asheville, all the way, forbids the suggestion of any delay on them or any part of them. The delays occur beyond Danville, and the Midland road, from there to Washington City, whether rightly or otherwise, is made the scapegoat. The trains of our system generously wait at Danville, so that belated passengers from beyond need not be deprived of all hope. But delays are now so much the rule rather than the exception, that they are becoming tiresomely monotonous.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. C. S. Preston, of Commercial Gazette, is stopping at the Swannanoa.

Mr. J. C. Lavelle, of Washington, Ind., is at the Grand Central. He has brought an invalid brother with him.

The Hon. K. Elias, of Franklin, and Mr. Frank Loughran, the proprietor of Hickory Inn, are at the Swannanoa.

Mr. W. Kerby, who represents the house of Thaxton & Watkins, of Richmond, Va., has registered at the Grand Central.

Mr. J. P. Patton and son, of Fletcher, who sold property to the value of $87,500.00 to Vanderbilt, are at the Grand Central.

Among the guests at the Swannanoa is Mr. Cliff Humphries, who represents the branch house of the Goodyear Rubber Company, in Atlanta, Ga.

Bishop Lyman will be in Asheville next Sunday, the 24th instant, and will administer the apostolic rite of confirmation to persons prepared and desirous of receiving it.

Miss Thorne, daughter of Mr. W. F. Thorne, of Cincinnati, is at the Battery Park. She is one of the leaders of the gay set at the hotel, and a prime mover in all projects which promise to afford amusement and entertainment.

Mr. Smith, a contractor of this city, who has made quite a number of contracts for furnishing stone work for the buttresses of bridges, and who recently furnished the stone work for the Christian church, has been engaged by Mr. J. Gall, jr., to superintend the work on the Vanderbilt quarries.

The Hon. Richard Crocker, a well known Tammany leader, is enjoying a visit to Hickory Inn. He is an enthusiastic sportsman and is seen almost every day with his gun on his shoulder waiting for the quail to materialize. Mr. E. S. Stokes, the proprietor of the Hoffman House, and a party of friends are with him.

A New Firm.

The Asheville Dry Goods Company, has recently been organized in the city and has bought out the stock of Mr. W. H. Lea, and will continue the business at his old stand No. 17 North Main street. The business will be under the able management of Mr. J. O. Howell whose long familiarity with the business ensures its success. Mr. Howell has just returned from the North where he has been purchasing a new stock of goods, which are arriving daily.

Masonic.

Mt. Hermon Lodge, No. 48, A. F. and A. M. will meet in their hall this evening (20th instant.) at 7.30 o'clock, sharp, to confer the second degree. Members notified and visitors fraternally invited.

PROFESSOR MITCHELL.

HIS TOM WILSON'S OWN ACCOUNT OF THE SEARCH.

He Appears for the First Time in Print, and Establishes His Claim as the Hero of the Interesting and Tragic Occasion.

We publish the following authentic account of the search for and finding of the body of the distinguished Prof. Elisha Mitchell who perished in June, 1857, while engaged in scientific investigation. The disappearance of so distinguished a man under such circumstances, aroused an interest of which has never had a parallel in mountain history. That interest is still warmly alive, and the incidents of the loss, search and finding are still topics of conversation among those who participated in the memorable events. We are fortunate in having from the pen of Big Tom Wilson himself, the chief figure in these incidents, expressed in his own strong, homely way. It is no disparagement to him that we present the narrative as he wrote it, verbatim et literatim. He will appreciate the fact that we do so, without the attempt to polish him into the scholar familiar with literary work. For good reasons, we omit a portion of the narrative, which is partly personal.—CITIZEN.

On the night prior to the discovery of the body I stayed at the cabin near the top of Mitchell's high peak on the Black Mt. in Co. with A. D. Allen, James Allen, W. B. Austin & W. B. McAdams. We ate our breakfast at Day's break consisting of some hot and biscuit, and then went through all our dinner and started out in the direction that we supposed Dr. Mitchell would have gone from the top of the peak to my house and had only gone some 2 or 3 hundred yards when Mr. O. D. Allen said, Come here Big Tom I believe I have found the track, coming all the party together we followed the impressions in the moss, remembering the foot prints of a man. Some 200 yards and found the marks of a shoe lie on a small balsam root and was satisfied then that we were on the track. As we could see the print of the tracks on the rock, then we held a hurried consultation and agreed to return and back track to where he had left the top of the mt. and give the whole force notice of our success. Doing so and finding a couple of tracks under a fallen rock, we followed them to a shelter for the foot print in the soil, a half mile beneath then we was at the Buncombe trail and agreed to send Austin and McAdams along yancy trail. The two Allen and I going the Buncombe trail or road some distance past the summit, the party of four went a mile in the Buncombe road and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W. Stalup and not on the road to eagle river as stated by Mr. W. informing them at once of our discovery and expressing our desire to let Mr. St. and his party know all agreed to return to the top of the mt. over an easy to ascend the good trail Whopled long and long making the mountain wring for miles away with the ease of his Scentorians they then retracing our steps the New expedition continued on the trail to the top of the mt. and there met Mr. W.