THE DAILY CITIZEN.

The Citizen is the most extensively circulated and widely read newspaper published in Western North Carolina.

Its circulation in the town and throughout the county is the largest of any daily newspaper ever published in this section, and it is the only paper that receives the full report of the Associated Press dispatches. The Associated Press is the whole world in a nutshell. It is the concentrated essence of all current happenings from all parts of the world, boiled down to the smallest possible compass, and yet containing the full benefit of the spoken or written word.

Special attention is given to the publication of all the news of Western North Carolina, and the Citizen is known as the leading newspaper in this section. It is the favorite medium through which the merchants of Asheville and surrounding towns reach the people, and the Citizen's subscription list is the best guarantee that advertisements will be read.

Terms: Daily, one year, $6; six months, $3; three months, $1.50; one month, 50 cents. Weekly, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents. Subscriptions can be sent by postal note, express money order or registered letter at our risk. Specimen copies sent free on application.

Address THE CITIZEN,
Asheville, N. C.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1889.

THE JOHNSON STYLE BILL.

The Salisbury Truth is one of the most intelligent journals of the State, and its editor, Mr. Josephus Daniels, is not given to abbreviations in the use of words. His neglect or refusal to spell out the word "Style" in the following paragraph, therefore, must be set down to the account of the editor, and not to the printer:

"The Johnson style bill is a measure that means enough good to all the people of the State to be worth fighting for, with the best energies of every man who is willing to help his neighbor. It is a measure that is worthy the support of every man who is willing to help his neighbor. It is a measure that is worthy the support of every man who is willing to help his neighbor. It is a measure that is worthy the support