WASHINGTON, December 13.—Indications for North Carolina.—Fair; westerly winds, stationary temperature.

A Piece of Advice.

Many put off buying presents till the last moment, when there is a great rush and the stocks are picked over. See my large ad. on second page. Read it carefully. My goods are marked lower and I have a finer stock than ever before. Come and see for yourself. J. H. LAW,
57, 59 and 61 S. Main St.

Wants to be Senator.

Calvin S. Brice, chairman of the national democratic committee, is a candidate for the United States senate from Ohio. He lives in New York, but claims his native State, Ohio, as his home—his political home at least. His opponents contend that he is not eligible to the senate from Ohio, but he says he is not only eligible but will get there.

Must Raise $10,000,000.

New York is beginning to realise that Chicago and other western cities are fighting in earnest for the World's Fair. Chauncey M. Depew, who is chairman of the legislative committee for New York says that New York must increased it subscription to $10,000,000 or it will not get the prize.

Our overcoats must be sold. Bargains are offered at Whitlock's, corner Eagle block.

Too Cheap.

It is stated that Henry M. Stanley has sold his forthcoming book for $200,000. Even Rider Haggard must envy Stanley with his wide open field of African romance.

Buy your Christmas goods of us. They are pretty, useful and cheap, at Whitlocks, corner Eagle block.

It is Here.

Among the unpleasant certainties which pertain to the approaching end of the year is the fact that Senator Blair is about to present his educational bill.

Smoking jackets, morning gowns, gloves, mufflers, and fancy articles for Christmas presents, at Whitlock's.

Lowton—Yes, sir; I expect to be able to live like a gentleman some day.
Keenedge—I doubt it.
L.—Why so?
K.—Because I've never seen you trying to reach such a desirable condition.

New lot of hats, latest shapes, at Whitlock's, corner Eagle block.

Mrs. Watts—Is it true that your little boy has lost his voice since he was sick?
Mrs. Potts—Not entirely. It has been reduced one-half. When he carries on a conversation now, you can't hear him for more than six blocks.

A New Combination.

A report comes from Sandwich, Mass., that ex-President Cleveland and Joseph Jefferson have bought the islands in Wakely Lake, located in South Sandwich, and will erect a commodious club house in the most central of the islands. It is a picturesque place, and fish bite there better than do politicians.

Pelham's drug store is no longer on South Main street, but is located in that handsome store room, No. 24 Patton avenue.

Minister Lincoln's son, who was supposed to be dying at Versailles a couple of weeks ago, following a surgical operation for carbuncle, is reported fully convalescent.
