A BAD SHOWING.

Boston's Death Rate Still Decid edly Unflattering.

Boston, January 18 .- This has been mother week of extraordinary mortality n Boston, although the record, bad as t is, shows a decided improvement over its immediate predecessors. Two weeks ago the deaths numbered 337, and the rate was 40.97. Last week there were 463 deaths, and the rate was 52.81; this week there have been 339 deaths, yielding a rate of 41.84. In the corresponding week hast ware there was corresponding week last year, there were 184 deaths. Pneumonia, as has been the case since influenza set in, leads as the cause of death with 93 to its charge. Consumption caused 66 deaths; bron-chitis 54: and influenza itself 4.

STATE NEWS.

Charlotte Chronicle: Some of the ne-groes who left South Carolina some time ago and went to Arkansas, are re-turning already. They say that Arkansas is not what it is represented to be by the emigration agents. They say also that many more would return if they were able. Railroad men who came in on the C. C. & A. yesterday evening said that they had negro passengers on the lower end of the road, returning from Arkansas, and on this side of Columbia, S. C., they took on negro passengers starting to Arkansas.
