IT IS FORMALLY OPENED.

Rice's Spring at Biltmore Dedicated to the Public. Rice's Spring, at Biltmore, was dedicated to the public Saturday afternoon. Mr. John S. Rice, who is well known throughout this entire section, was instrumental in opening the spring, and Mr. Breeze, who owns the land on which the spring is located, gave the right of way.

Mr. Rice dedicated the spring to the public in the presence of a number of friends who live in the locality, and gave a talk on the history of the spring and the State of North Carolina, which was enjoyed by those present. He was awarded in a full uniform of a major of the infantry of the Confederate army. The coat, which was double breasted, had a gilt star on the collar, indicating the rank of major, and an Austrian knot of gilt on the sleeve. The epaulettes were of gold, and were the kind used in the United States army. The uniforms of the United States army and the Confederate States army were combined. At his back floated the North Carolina flag, the South Carolina flag and the United States flag. He made quite a military appearance.

HE MAY GET WELL.

WALKER, WHO WAS SHOT AT BILTMORE, BETTER.

His Wounds Were Dressed Yesterday, and To-Day he is Improving, but With the Odds Against Him—Another Side of the Story.

Coroner Hilliard started out bright and early yesterday morning to hold an inquest on the body of Charles Walker, who was shot by Geo. Gibson at Biltmore on Saturday. T. C. Conant and M. H. Monihan were the only ones summoned. It was expected to make up the balance at the Junction. Who the other four would have been, however, will never be known. The negro was far from being dead and was in fact in a fair way to recovery.

Yesterday morning he was feeling much better, and Drs. Williams and Whitaker sewed up his wounds. It was found that the ball had passed through five of the intestines. His chances for getting well are considered good.

S. H. Reed was at the Junction at the time of the shooting and arrested Gibson. He tells an entirely different story from the prisoner. The latter, he said, started away after he had shot, and in five minutes was off a good distance. Mr. Reed, who happened to meet him, had no revolver, but decided to play a game of bluff, and advanced upon him with his hand on his pistol pocket. The negro thinking that his captor had a gun readily gave himself up. Mr. Reed says the negro was a half mile distant from the scene of the shooting when he was arrested.

A SUNDAY RUNAWAY.

Two People Thrown Out a Man Hurt, and Much Excitement. A horse hitched to a two-wheeled cart, which held a man and woman, was frightened by an electric car on South Main street yesterday, and backing against the curb, turned his passengers out. The animal then started down the alley north of Carmichael's store, followed by a crowd. At the foot of the passageway he executed a flank movement and started for the street. There was a scattering among the people who had run down the alley, and one old negro, who was a cripple, was knocked over and considerably bruised. He had been sitting in the alleyway before the runaway occurred, and did not have time to get out of the way. His injuries were painful, but not serious, and shortly after he was taken home in a carriage.

THE CRIMINAL COURT.

The April Term Begins To-Day, and the Juries are Chosen. Aside from the dignity attendant on the office, Sheriff Reynolds wore a bright spring suit when he called out the three preliminary "hear ye's" in the criminal court this morning and announced that the body was in session. A few minutes later work had begun in earnest, and when a recess was taken at 12:30 for dinner a grand and a trial jury had been secured and the docket had been called. The grand jury consists of A. Rankin, chairman, and R. H. Cole, R. H. Hays, Wilson Brown, Jr., A. G. Mass, T. C. Reeves, J. G. Chambers, S. S. Norman, D. M. Wells, L. Y. Israel, M. Parham, L. D. Felmet, W. L. Robinson, J. H. Miller and C. W. Beale. The instructions by Judge Moore were unusually full and comprehensive. He charged particularly that the jury should pay attention to complaints of cruelty to animals. At 11:30 it was completed and the call of the trial jury began. It includes: J. M. C. Felmet, J. N. Hughey, G. F. Gillespie, P. P. Morgan, E. K. Glenn, L. F. Shook, W. K. Chambers, James H. Morgan, R. C. Wells, S. M. Monday, J. M. Watkins and W. E. Penders.

The Mayor's Court.

Joseph Spider and Jack Riffer, two colored men, were before the Mayor this morning charged with an assault. The evidence proved it to be a most brutal one and the parties were bound over to the criminal court. Ruford Redman, Joe Chunn and Barney Hurd were fined $5 each for being drunk, and two boys who were charged with fighting were released with a reprimand.

MISSING SINCE THURSDAY.

Horace Greeley Westall has not been seen since then.

Horace Greeley Westall, son of T. C. Westall, has been missing from home since Thursday. He left his father's house, on Chestnut street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it was supposed he had gone up town and no uneasiness was felt concerning him. As he did not come home to supper his parents supposed he had gone to visit his uncle on Beaverdam, with one of his cousins, who was in town that day. He did not return Friday, and the supposition then was that he had gone up the Swannanoa to visit some relations, and would return Sunday with his cousin.

His cousin came to the city yesterday and reported that he had seen nothing of Greeley and then his mother's fears became aroused. When he left home he did not take his overcoat or any clothes but the ones he wore, which consisted of his usual everyday suit. He had no money and could not have left on a train that afternoon. His brother, W. H. Westall, saw him going down South Main street Thursday, and that was the last seen of him by any members of the family. His mother is very anxious about him.

The missing boy is eighteen years old, six feet high, rather overgrown, and has light hair and eyes. He has often expressed a wish to leave Asheville, and go to some other place and it is supposed that is the reason he has gone. He has had no trouble with any member of the family, and had no enemies. He is of a very quiet nature. His family have no fear of foul play, but are fearful of some accident having befallen him. Any one who can give information of the missing lad will confer a great favor on the family.

AN UNFOUNDED RUMOR.

Doran and Wright Company Have Not Failed—Denied by Dun.

The Associated Press dispatches on Saturday reported the suspension of the Doran and Wright company, limited, of New York, which has a branch office here, and has branches with private wire connections throughout the United States and Canada. Their clients were everywhere agitated by the report, and a general rush was made at the different offices. This agitation was, however, anticipated by the company, which issued a circular telegram to all of its correspondents, assuring them that the report was absolutely without foundation; that it would pay a hundred cents on the dollar for its every obligation, and by telegraphic money transfer immediately upon request of any doubting correspondents at that. They declared that they would accept and execute all orders as usual, and did so.

R. G. Dun & Co. sent out the following telegram: "The report of the suspension of the Doran and Wright company, limited, of New York, was entirely erroneous, that corporation having been founded with J. G. Doran & Co., whose suspension we announced yesterday." At the local office business is being carried on as usual, and there is absolutely no foundation for the reported failure.

A CASE OF HORSE STEALING.

William Ashmore Steals an Animal, and is Already Captured.

J. F. Woodbury, proprietor of the Battery Park stables, had a valuable horse stolen from him on Saturday night. The theft was discovered Sunday morning, and the thief was found with the animal at Hendersonville and arrested. The horse was stolen by a former employee of Mr. Woodbury, a negro named William Ashmore, who came here from Greenville some time ago. On Saturday he was paid off in full, but was not discharged. He said he needed money to send to his folks who were sick. Early Saturday evening he was around the stables, and left with the remainder of the boys when the work was finished. On Sunday morning when Mr. Woodbury came down he missed one of his horses. None of the employees knew anything about it, and a diligent search of the city failed to find the missing animal. One of the saddles was finally missed, and when Ashmore did not come around he was suspected of being the thief. Telegrams were sent to seven different places and in the afternoon word came from Hendersonville that the negro was under arrest. An officer left for that place this morning to bring him back.

Ready for Business.

Mr. Arthur J. Wills, of the firm of Wills Bros., has just completed furnishing his office in the Barnard building and is prepared for work. Among other specimens of their work are some exceedingly well executed pen and ink drawings of Glasgow University, the exterior and interior of St. John's Cathedral, Newfoundland, St. Mary's Church, Bridlington, Eng. A number of other original designs of church work, cottages and store fronts bear testimony to the ability of the firm.

Dropped Dead of Heart Disease.

Gen. Higgins, a well known colored man driving for J. E. Reed, died suddenly at his home on North Main street yesterday afternoon, between 5 and 6 o'clock, of heart disease. He was sitting talking to his daughter, and fell over, dying in less than a minute. He was 63 years old and was well thought of by all who knew him. Mr. Reed, his employer, speaks in the highest terms of his moral character. The remains will be buried to-morrow.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sallie Nabors, wife of J. T. Nabors, died yesterday at the Mission Hospital after an illness of fifteen months. She was 35 years old and leaves a husband and one child to mourn their loss. The funeral was from the Newton Academy at 4 o'clock to-day. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
