JUDGE SHUFORD TALKS OF STREET PAVING.

WEARY OF WAITING ON UNQUAL IFIED PROMISES.

Vigorous Objection to the Ma terial to be Used in Paving the Streets.

Judge Shuford was one of the first to question the strength of the brick to be sed for paving the streets. It was his objection before the Board of Aldermen on Friday evening last that formally set the ball rolling and that has caused the comment of the last few days. Last evening he was seen and asked his views and the reason for them.

"I am perfectly willing to talk on that subject," he said. "There is no place in the world in which I am so much interested as in Asheville, and there is nothing. in my opinion, of more vital importance to the welfare of Asheville than good streets and pavements. I expect to walk on these streets as long as I walk any where, and hence I am personally inter sted in having them well paved.

"I am of the same opinion I expresse on last Friday night before the Board of Aldermen. I am thoroughly satisfied that the brick are not fit for paving ourposes, and that a pavement laid with them will not withstand the heavy traffic and travel on Main street. This is not my opinion merely, but seems to be the general verdict of all who have examined the bricks, except Gen. Young himself. 1 have heard of his valor as a soldier and his eloquence as an orator, but never heard of his possessing any special merit as a judge of brick. If he considers the rough, brittle, crummable bats he has had piled up on the sidewalk as good bricks, I certainly should not employ him to select brick for me. They will perhaps last for one year, which is the length of time for which he guarantees the pavenent, or rather agrees to keep it in repair. have heard a great deal about Gen. Young's bond, and on examination, I find it is a well drawn bond, and is signed by solvent sureties, but I fear it lacks sufficient covenants to protect the city. It only binds Gen. Young to construct this pavement "In a good and workmanlike manner, to be approved by the city engineer and street committee," and to keep the same in repair for the term of one year next ensuing its completion. There are Mitchell 60 acres on Hominy creek for two objections to these conditions of the bond. In the first place, everything Gen. Young does or says seems to meet with approval, and in the second place, the pavement will perhaps last for one year but there is great doubt whether it will last for two. There is a provision in the contract, however, by which the city can be protected, provided advantage is taken of it in proper time. It is provided in the Cleveland, Ohio, are at the Grand Cencontract that all bricks and other mate rials, before being placed in position in the streets, shall be inspected by the city engineer and street committee, who shall have full power to reject any and all bricks and materials that they may deem of quality too inferior or unsuitable for such purposes. I simply asked the Board of Alder-

The matter has now been called to their attention, and if they permit the city to be imposed may seem that this objection is prema ture, as it may reasonably be presumed that the Board of Aldermen, or rather the engineer and street committee, will do their duty, but when it is well known that

I believe in patience, and in being reasonable and just to those in authority, but it does seem to me that the time has come for permanent work on our streets. I am informed by Mr. Miller, the city clerk, that the contractor who paved the streets of Greensboro offered to put down a pavement here of the same kind of stone used there, at about the same price the brick there, at about the same price the brick pavement will cost, and such a pavement

"The city has already brought some granite blocks from Henderson county to be used for paving purposes, but that was done. #### Gone to His Reward.

Rev. A. W. Mangum, professor of mental and moral philosophy at the State University at Chapel Hill, died yesterday at 12.30 p. m. Bright's disease was the cause of his death. He had been ill for some time, and his son, Prof. E. P. Mangum, of the Asheville city schools, was summoned a week or more ago to his bedside. His father seemed to improve and he came back to his work. Saturday he received a telegram telling him to come as a change for the worse had taken place, and he left, reaching there

Sunday. Prof. Mangum was one of the ablest and most distinguished educators in the State, and had for a long time been connected with the University. He was 56 years old, and had been a member of the North Carolina Methodist conference for thirty-three years, having joined when 23. He leaves five children.

Rapidly Shaping Itself.

Mrs. Tomlinson, of Archdale, who vice president of the W. C. T. U. of North Carolina and at present acting as State organizer, spent Sunday in Asheville preparatory to a tour through the towns of the western counties. The local union of Asheville has arranged appointments for Mrs. Tomlinson at no less than twelve different points beginning with Murphy on the 14th inst. The W. C. T. U. of North Carolina is anxious to have the western section of the State well organ ized before the meeting of the Chautaqua Assembly in July.

A large delegation of both national and State workers is expected and the union at Asheville has already secured rates for hotel accommodation and are now issuing a circular through the Southern States. The Chautaqua idea as advanced last year is rapidly shaping itself.

L. H. Cowles, Mrs. E. C. Cowles and Mrs. Chas. W. Chase, of Cleveland, Ohio, have taken rooms at the Battery Park.

The choir opened the exercises by singing "Sweet Hour of Prayer," followed by a prayer by Rev. J. Allison, who besought God's blessing upon the Alliance. The audience was then made welcome by Mr. S. R. Randolph, our popular young teacher, who in a neat speech made many soicy hits.

Gen. Vance's speech was followed by an address from Maj. D. A.
