THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
BOSS QUAY expresses his contempt for public opinion. But public opinion got there first in this contempt business.
A YOUNG lady has evolved the following reflection on masculine Washington: The saddest words of tongue or pen. There are too many women and not enough men.
ALL the local politicians in Louisiana tell Gov. Nichols that he can never be elected to any public office again. The governor, though violently opposed to lotteries, is willing to take his chances.
"WE ARE to be protected from the pauper hordes of Europe by a duty of 5 cents per dozen upon eggs, which have hitherto been free," cried Mr. Andrew in a burst of eloquence in his tariff speech and maiden effort in the house.
BISMARCK himself could not have better uttered the true policy against the slave trade in Africa than did Caprivi in his speech recently. "Bullet and Bible must act in the cause of civilization. Without killing slave dealers you can never abolish slavery."
It is interesting to note how rapidly the hard-headed Bismarck, who never changes his opinions, is being left behind as a hopeless back number, while Gladstone, who constantly changes his opinions to suit the new needs of new occasions, still continues among the leaders of his time.
MR. CRISP, of Georgia, has a crisp way of putting things. He covers a deal of ground in his remark that the McKinley tariff bill is class legislation in behalf of a class of men who are thus being paid back out of the public pocket their contributions to a campaign fund.—New York World.

It is announced by the president of the Wake county Farmers' Alliance that the meeting which is to be held there on the 20th, is for the regular business of the order and not for political purposes.
The friends of Dr. Cyrus Thompson expect to present his name for nomination before the next democratic convention of the Third congressional district, called to meet on the 23 day of July next at Clinton.
Messrs. P. H. Hanes & Co., of Winston, have contracted for the largest tobacco factory building probably in the State. It is to be built of brick, six stories high, and will be 200 feet long with a front of 114 feet.
The commissioners of Winston have called an election to take place on June 17th for the purpose of voting upon the question of issuing bonds for city improvements to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars.
A company has been incorporated at Fayetteville to establish a planing mill with a capital of $10,000, with the privilege of increasing it to $30,000. The incorporators are Messrs. F. S. Deming, B. R. Taylor and W. W. Doty.
Mr. Fred Meets, engineer of the steamer Enterprise, which runs between Wilmington and points on Northeast river, fell overboard from the boat Friday afternoon, in Long creek, and was drowned before assistance could reach him.
The Wilmington Messenger proposes to celebrate the beginning of its fourth year in Wilmington on the 28th of June, by issuing a sixty-four page State Industrial edition—the largest newspaper enterprise ever started in the South.
Sheriff J. G. Neal, of McDowell county, who has been in office about six years, has resigned on account of failing health, and Captain George Garden, formerly a member of the legislature from McDowell, has been elected to the vacancy.
About 11.30 to-day eleven cars went by for New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore with beans, cucumbers, strawberries, Irish potatoes, radishes, corn, and other nice things. Every vegetable train goes by.—Concord Standard.

A prominent real estate dealer is authority for saying that there has never been a period in Asheville's history when the prospects for the city were brighter, in the way of increased values, and also for important investments by outside capitalists. But even this should not make holders of property decline any reasonable offer. "Let the other man make something," as the old saying is.

TAMPA, on the gulf coast of Florida, the American terminus of the Tampa & Havana steamship line, promises to become an important point for the receipt of fruit from Central and South America, a trade that has developed with great rapidity in the last few years. Capt. W. H. Marshall, commander of the steamship Charles Morand, which has been in that trade during the last season, says that Tampa is a first class railroad and steamship terminal, the vessels coming alongside the cars, with ample depth of water from the gulf of Mexico, and that this port is sure to be developed into one of the first fruit ports of the country.

THE BUILDING BOOM.
LOTS OF NEW HOMES GOING UP.
A FINE CLASS OF RESIDENCES BUILDING.
Talks With Prominent Contractors—Citizens Making Homes.
Avery Carter has been erecting a number of houses in and around Asheville. "I am now about through work," he said to THE CITIZEN, "on Mr. J. S. Adams' house three miles from town, near Richmond Hill. It contains ten rooms. The interior is finished in oak and pine, natural finish, and the roof is of slate. The cost is $4,000. I am also at work on a six room cottage for Mr. S. P. Chapman, near Mr. Adams' house. This is finished in hard wood and cost $1,600. I have just finished Mr. H. B. Carter's house on Chestnut street. The house contains ten rooms and is finished in natural pine. It cost $4,000.
Mr. J. A. Tennyson has about $50,000 worth of work on hand, with sixty men employed. "I am building a ten room house for Mr. T. B. Barker on Starnes avenue," he said. "The house will cost $3,300. I am finishing the new electric light station on Valley street. The cost was first intended to be $3,000, but owing to enlargements the building will cost $6,000 completed. I have under contract eight houses that will average $2,750 each. They will be finished in natural pine. I also have orders for seven five room houses to cost $1,000 each.
Mr. Milton Harding, who is one of the contractors for the government building, has just completed a handsome house in Prospect Park for Mrs. Smith. The house has ten rooms, and is finished in natural pine. It cost $4,000. "I am building a nine room house to cost $2,000 on Starnes avenue," said Mr. Harding, "for Mr. V. T. Belote. It will also be finished in natural pine. I have just completed a sixteen room house across Beaumont from Asheville for Mr. E. P. Davis; cost $8,000.
Mr. T. E. Davis: "I am about through with four houses for Mr. Richmond Pearson. They are on Eagle street and cost $3,000 each. Two are of brick and two of wood. They have eight rooms each, and all are finished in pine. I am also finishing two four room houses on Eagle street. They cost $700 each. I have the contract for a nine room house for Mr. T. W. Marr on Academy street. The house is to be finished in pine, and will cost $2,000. I will soon build for Mrs. Mitchell a very large and handsome residence five miles west of here on the Ingle farm. Mr. Geo. Heck will have erected on his property in West Asheville a stone tower ninety-five feet high, for which I have the contract. The tower will be thirty-five feet in diameter at the base, and twenty at the top. A winding iron staircase will lead to the top. The tower will be used as an observatory and will be open to the public."
J. E. Dickerson's and Dr. J. S. Grant's handsome houses on College street are nearly completed. Mr. Dickerson's house contains eight rooms and Dr. Grant's ten. They will both be finished in hard wood downstairs and pine upstairs. They will cost $4,000 each.
Mr. A. L. Melton will build eight houses soon. One of them will cost $5,000, two $4,000 each, three $2,500 each, one $200 and one $800, a total of $20,800, and an average of $2,600.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.
Charlotte's jail has been without an inmate since April 21.
Work on the Farmers' Alliance tobacco sales warehouse at Oxford has begun.
The Southern Farmer, the successor to the North Carolina Farmer, has appeared.
Where 2,000 acres were planted in tobacco in Nash county last year, 6,000 will be planted this year.
J. C. Price, the colored educator and orator of Salisbury, favors J. S. Carr's nomination for Governor.
One hundred and twenty-five shares in the La Grange cotton factory were sold an hour after the books were opened.
Deputy Collector Woody of Person county went out on a still hunt three times last week and got one each time.
There is a large and very rapidly increasing demand for and sale of North Carolina canned vegetables and fruits.
North Carolina is now beginning to rival her sister States in the matter of booms. In all directions the people are stirred.
Miss Rowan Watts, of Durham, ate a hearty supper and an hour later was found dead in her chair. No cause is assigned.
Matters are now assuming definite shape for work to be commenced at an early date on a $100,000 hotel building in West Winston.
Eugene Morris, a farmer near Milton, had pyrotechnics at his home the other night and it cost him his barn, two horses and all his corn and fodder.
Sufficient money has been pledged to build a tabernacle for Sam Jones at Raleigh and he will be invited to conduct a series of meetings at that place.
Mr. T. C. Worth of Goldsboro, has received an order from Louisville, Ky., for 175,000 seamless bags, which will be woven at his Worthville factory.
At the convict camp near Raleigh a prisoner was shot by a guard while trying to escape. He will wear nine buckshot as a memento of his little escape.
A Northern capitalist has bought a lot on Deposit Hill, Statesville, on which he proposes erecting a sixty thousand dollar cotton mill before the new cotton crop comes in.
It is announced by the president of the Wake county Farmers' Alliance that the meeting which is to be held there on the 20th, is for the regular business of the order and not for political purposes.

WHITLOCK'S, 46 SOUTH MAIN STREET, Opposite Bank of Asheville.
A syndicate composed of Messrs. Geo. H. Brown, cashier of the First National Bank of Statesville, J. S. Ramey, tobacco manufacturer, and P. Barton Key, Esq., have bought the factory a mile above the Monbo cotton mills, on the Catawba river, (known as the Sea Island mills), and will put in a thousand spindles (making a mill of two thousand spindles), and have it ready for the new crop next fall. The office of the mills will be in Statesville.
Tuesday night, in Johnston county, a moonshiner named Dave Britt while drunk fell into a well at his illicit distillery. While there a barrel fell upon him and broke his neck. His son got the body out of the well. It was placed in the still-house and two men were left to watch it. At midnight two unknown men told the tired watchers they would relieve them. The offer was accepted, but the next morning the still was gone and Britt's body was in the house alone. Why did the watchers leave the corpse in charge of unknown men, and were the latter revenue people?—Wilmington Messenger.
