THE DAILY CITIZEN. FACTS AND COMMENTS.

GEORGE M. PULLMAN is reported to be a very generous man. He is said to give away $20,000 every year. He doesn't give any of it to the porters of his sleeping-cars or they wouldn't be so handy with their whisk-broom at the end of a trip.

EMBEZZLERS should remember when they run away that Canada is no longer a refuge. An Ohio public official took the old trail with a paltry thousand dollars the other day, and already under the new extradition treaty he is to be haled back.

RICHARD VAUX, who succeeds to Samuel J. Randall's seat in congress, seals all his letters in the old way, with wax, using a seal ring, which he wears on a forefinger. He would find a great deal of nourishment in the gummed envelope if he would only give it a fair trial.

KEMMLER's last chance for life has been taken away by the United States supreme court's decision that electrocution is not a "cruel and unusual punishment" within the meaning of the constitution. This is the fourth or fifth "positively last chance" he has had.

THE late Judge Drummond, of Chicago, was the first judge to rule that railway employees had a first lien on the property for their wages, a decision that has been endorsed by the United States supreme court, and has since found its way into the States, applying to all industries.

THE Mormons are said to be making many converts among the natives of New Zealand. The Maories of New Zealand are fine men mentally and physically, are acquiring education, property and political weight, and Mormon promyelism among them will doubtless prove a serious thing for the white colonists.

THE need of an ocean patrol to clear the seas of deserted crafts is weekly brought to mind in the bulletin issued by the Hydrographic Office. Often there seems to be criminal negligence on the part of the masters of derelicts in not attempting to destroy their ships when they find it necessary to take to the boats.

MRS. BETTY GREEN, the eccentric owner of several millions, who offers to pay for a site for the World's Fair free if the commissioners will merely pay the taxes while the fair is on the grounds, is an example of the sort of prodigal individual liberality which is sure to come to the front in Chicago, no matter how much the politicians try to tie the fair up into hard knots.

MR. BARNUM and Col. Cody are smart, but the Mussulman picks up their tricks mighty quick. A "Wild East" has been brought to London, for an attempt similar to that of Buffalo Bill. Eighty Arabs and a few negroes, including women and children, horses, camels, asses, dogs, tents—in fact the Oriental outfit complete—have come over to exhibit the life and to execute the fantasies of the desert.

EVERY State and city in the union is expected to hear good news from the census taker. Texas, for example, expects to show a population of 3,000,000, which will be a raise of 95 per cent. over the figures of 1880. Apropos, it is interesting to observe that a bill has been introduced in congress making it an offence liable to a $5,000 fine and imprisonment for two years for any private individual to pay a census taker for booming figures.

BRENT ALTSHELER is a plucky Kentuckian of 22 who proposes to see Europe on foot. He landed in Antwerp a few days ago, and immediately started on a pedestrian tour that will take him through Germany, France, Spain, Italy and Turkey. He expects to get back to Louisville in the fall of 1892. Altsheiler resigned his place on the staff of the Louisville Evening Times to go. If he was as shrewd as Citizen Train he would get part of his expenses out of advertising the blue grass whiskey. Such a determined chap ought to make a good boomer.

A CERTIFIED copy of the will of Jefferson Davis has been filed with the probate clerk of New York city on behalf of the testator's executors who are his friend, Jacob U. Payne of New Orleans, and his son-in-law, J. Addison Hayes, jr., of Colorado Springs, Col. They desire auxiliary letters testamentary on account of a claim held by Jefferson Davis against D. Appleton & Co., the publishers. This claim is the only property belonging to the estate in New York state, and consists of a copyright on Jefferson Davis' "Memoirs and Reminiscences" which Appleton & Co. have published.

SENATOR DOLPH has introduced in the form of a bill the regulations adopted by the recent International Maritime Conference for preventing collision at sea. He also introduced a bill making it the duty of the master of each vessel, in case of collision at sea, to stay by the other vessel and, so far as can be done without serious danger to his own vessel, crew and passengers, to render assistance to the other vessel. Violation of this requirement is made punishable by fine and imprisonment.

THE SOUTHERN SESSION.

THE INTERSTATE SUMMER SCHOOL TO MEET HERE.

PROMINENT EDUCATORS FOR INSTRUCTORS.

A Coming Convention Which Will Be of Interest Not Only to Asheville, But to the South.

The southern session of the Interstate summer school will be held in Asheville from July 28 to August 8. There will be seven of these schools held in the United States, in Edinboro, Pa.; Columbus, O.; Pottsville, Pa.; Jefferson, O.; Grand Rapids, Mich.; Detroit, Mich., and Asheville.

The object of the school is to give teachers a chance, with little expense, to know how other teachers are working, and thereby gain much valuable knowledge themselves. Prof. Claxton, superintendent of the Asheville graded schools, has charge of the organization of the school to be held here, and is working hard in its interest.

There is a regularly employed faculty of five, that attends each school, and gives lectures on their respective branches. They will each speak twice a day. The names of these instructors, with their branches of study are as follows: Dr. Thos. M. Balliet, Springfield, Mass., Psychology and Science of Teaching; Miss Mary A. Spear, West Chester, Pa., Primary Methods; W. W. Spear, superintendent of schools Oakland, Chicago, Ill., Numbers and Arithmetic; L. F. Hall, superintendent of schools, Leominster, Mass., Language, Reading and Writing; Alex E. Frye, Hyde Park, Mass., Geography.

These instructors have prepared lectures on these subjects, with great care, and all have excellent reputations as instructors. They will visit each school.

Besides these, there is a faculty of six special teachers, one of whom will be at each place during the entire session. They will present subjects especially adapted to each locality. Superintendent of schools, E. C. Branson, Athens, Ga., is the one appointed to be here, and will deliver ten lectures on "Discipline and Methods."

The organization of the work is admirable. Each instructor has prepared his course of lectures and submitted copies to each of his fellow instructors, thus avoiding the danger of the same ground being gone over by two. This plan is of great advantage as it helps the instructors to shape their lectures so as to not only avoid repetition, but also to supplement each other. The primary method teachers, knowing what those of the higher grades are to do, will lay a foundation; and the advanced teachers, possessing definite knowledge of the primary plan, will build upon it. Another good feature is the printed notes of the lectures, which have been prepared with great care, and the teachers in attendance will not have to lose part of the lecture while trying to make notes on the other part. These printed notes will be an abstract of the lectures, and will be sold to all teachers. A diploma will be given to those teachers in attendance the last two weeks.

About three hundred teachers are expected to be present at the Asheville session, and excursions to the mountains will be arranged. There will also be a reception at the rooms of the V. M. C. A. Tuesday evening, July 29.

Thirty-two members of the Light Infantry left to-day by special car for Richmond to attend the unveiling of the Lee monument. Their car was attached to the 140 regular. Their company is under the command of Capt. Duff Merriker and Lieutenants Cowan and Kimbrey and First Sergeant Mangum, and the men under them are Messrs. Alexander, Wagner, Clarke, Lorrick, Blanton, Atkinson, Brown, Rollins, Lewis, Fitzgerald, Mitchell, Davis, Whitson, Neilson, Rankin, McDowell, Collins, Merriam, Israel, Atkins, Lee, Owens, Davis, Carter, Marshall, Mitchell, T. Davis, C.

A Worthy Object.

Early in next week at the lecture room of the V. M. C. A. there will be given a musical and literary entertainment by some of the best talent in Asheville. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of Mr. S. S. Lynch the disabled soldier. Tickets are on sale at Carmichael's drug store and at the V. M. C. A.

An Interesting Item.

A representative of the Globe caught on to a good thing to-day, that is going to make big money for somebody in Durham. For the present, he is denied permission to go into particulars.—Durham Globe.

It Has Occurred.

Editor Citizen:—At the request of one of the witnesses in the case of Layton and Raymond, who testified that sparring was permitted at the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium, I wish to state that I have since discovered that gloves had been brought to the gymnasium two or three times without my permission or knowledge and that this fact was used as a basis of the testimony of the witness as he supposed that it was permitted by the Association management. As was stated in yesterday's Citizen boxing in the V. M. C. A. gymnasium is not permitted and a sparring contest has never taken place there.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

The Supreme Court has adjourned for the term.

The Murphy Advance has given up the ghost.

Evangelist P. L. Smith is to open a series of revival meetings at Raleigh.

A portrait of Judge James Iredell has been received at the supreme court.

Greensboro is to have a paper published in the interest of colored men.

Goldshoro is to have a refrigerator factory. A Chicago man furnishes the capital.

About four hundred students attended Shaw University during the past session.

K. M. Goodwin, aged 70, and Mrs. Martha Hurst, aged 50, were married at Raleigh.

It is said that High Point will give $100,000 if the R. & S. railroad will pass by that town.

The funeral of Col. W. E. Anderson, of Raleigh, was one of the largest ever held in that city. The floral offerings were exquisite.

The Chamber of Commerce of Winston has passed resolutions strongly endorsing the issuing of bonds to the amount of $200,000 for city improvements.

Col. M. L. McCorkle, of Newton, will be a candidate for the judgeship in the Eleventh district. Newton, Hickory and Taylorsville papers have declared for him.

Two thousand three hundred dollars has already been raised for the proposed monument at Charlotte for the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

S. B. Pearson was convicted in 1889 in Burke county of stealing a ride and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. He has been pardoned by Governor Fowle.

The Winston-Salem University Alumni Association has been organized with Mr. J. W. Fries as president; S. P. Groves, vice president; A. H. Fuller, secretary and treasurer.

A petition signed by some of the best citizens of Clanton has been sent to Gov. Fowle asking to commute the sentence of Avery Butler, who is sentenced to hang July 11, to twenty years in the penitentiary.

The North Carolina Steel and Iron company have discovered a large deposit of granite on their town lot property adjoining Greensboro. The granite is of the finest quality, gray and blue, and splits well.

Information has been received at Raleigh that the blackberry crop will be short in the Piedmont section of the state, where it is a source of large revenue. So far as can be learned, it is the first time they ever failed to be a full crop of blackberries.

The Ingersoll Machinery company who furnished the machinery for the Flat Rock quarry, near Mt. Airy, were so impressed with the quality of the granite, that they made a handsome offer to be allowed to handle the granite in New York for the quarry company.

At the congregational meeting held at the First Presbyterian church at Greensboro to consider matters connected with the new church building, it was decided to proceed at once to the erection of a building to cost $23,000. It will be one of the handsomest churches in the State.

The Rockingham Rocket says Messrs. Leak & Wall have arranged for plans to be submitted embracing a hotel, bank building, clothing store and drug store, all in one block, with the view of erecting the same this summer. Meantime the question of electric lights and water works for the town is being discussed among our citizens.

Parties from Surry county tell of a serious cutting affray at King's Cabin last week. Rob Lofton, an 18 year old boy, shot a dog belonging to Jim Hutchins, by order of his employer. Hutchins attacked him and Lotten in defending himself cut his throat. Hutchins would have died in a few moments had not two physicians been present when he was cut. Lotton was jailed at Danbury. Hutchins, it is thought, will recover.

The Madison News says another human being, a poor unfortunate, though it may be guilty, has found a nameless grave in a strange land. The convict who escaped from the R. & S. road in town last Tuesday week, and was shot at by the guards, was found dead in the woods south of the river a few days afterward. He had received a bullet in his side and died from loss of blood and want of attention. He was a negro, whose name we did not learn.

Mr. Henry keeps a store at the depot in Statesville. Last Monday night the watchman, Wm. L. Kickett, caught three tramps, one negro and two white men, in the store. He begged the whole crowd and locked them in a box car where he kept them until Tuesday morning, when they were arraigned in court and found guilty. Yesterday the judge sentenced each of them to a term of five years in the penitentiary. This was quick work all around.—Charlotte News.

Mr. E. W. Lyon, of the Mann-Arrington Gold Mining company, whose mine is located in Nash county, says that the mine is developing in a most encouraging manner. One thing which has been proven is that deep mining is successful in the eastern district. This has heretofore been a matter of doubt. A vein has been struck at a depth of 160 feet, and has been worked to a level of 400 feet. The same vein has been located for three thousand feet, is from one to three feet thick, and is yielding an average of $20 worth of gold to the ton right along.

Greensboro is making elaborate preparations for a grand military display on the morning of May 30th. It will be the occasion of the return of the old flag of 1860, which was carried through the late war by the Guilford Grays, company B, 27th North Carolina regiment. The flag has, since the surrender, been sacredly cared for by its captain's wife, and will be presented to the present company of Guilford Grays by her daughter at the unveiling of the Lee monument at Richmond on May 29th, and will be brought to Greensboro on the morning of the 30th.
