THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
"CURIOUS" MAYBE, a millionaire of Pittsburg, has donated $10,000 to build a home for boot blacks in that city. It is an action that cannot be too highly praised.
From the way New York has been handling the Kemmler case it would seem to a man up a tree as if it would be a far better thing for the State, if it would sentence its criminals in the first place to die of old age.
GEORGE VANDERHILT does not show the fears of his brother-in-law Editor Shepard. On the contrary, he is going down into the bowels of the Confederacy, and is fitting up an $8,000,000 summer estate near Asheville, N. C. Perhaps he will invite Editor Shepard down there to get acquainted with the people.—Atlanta Constitution.
LONDON is speculating heavily in shares of the Kentucky and Tennessee Land companies. In some cases, say the dispatches, shares have gone up from 250 to 300 per cent. premiums. Foreign capital is becoming interested in America, and whatever else it means it cannot help but develop some of the finest country in the world.
HARVARD won the largest number of prizes at the contest at Berkeley Oval, New York, and not satisfied with their victory the boys must needs make a night of it and ended it up by painting the statue of John Harvard a deep red.
The statue is probably spoiled. There is still some material for the fool killer in this broad land of the free.
"The beautiful women of the world" are requested, in a circular, to send their photographs to the Baroness Klara von der Decker at Tiffis. These will all be examined by a committee of artists and those selected will be put in an album with the title "Types of Female Beauty of the Last Years of the Nineteenth Century." Then the album will be sent to the Moscow Museum.
WHILE Christian bodies in America are doing their best to convert the heathen, the latter are also preparing and sending out missionaries to this country to convert the Americans. Commissioner Frederick de Lator Booth-Tucker, of Hin-dostan, Chief of the East Indies and Ceylon Department of the Salvation Army, came over a few days ago. He has been assigned to work in New Jersey.
AN ENGLISH syndicate has just closed the sale for its breweries in San Francisco. The price paid was $7,500,000.
A year ago several of the largest breweries of Detroit were purchased by an English syndicate. At the time they were making money but when they passed into the hands of the Britishers the sales dropped off and instead of a dividend at the end of the year an assessment was made. The reason assigned was that the people would not buy beer made by foreigners. This, however, does not seem to deter the monied men of England as the recent sale shows.
In Asheville the census enumerators do not have so bad a time of it because in this healthy locality there are few chronic diseases and people don't mind saying no. But in New York where diseases of all nationalities and colors are met at every hand, the census enumerators has no snap and many of the 1,000 who started out so boldly on Monday morning last would now like to exchange their job for a more congenial if a less remunerative one. New York papers say that complaints are pouring in on every hand and that the life of the enumerator is by no means a happy one.

MORE INJUSTICE TO COME.
"The white republicans in the South are not unanimous by any means for the Federal Election law," writes a correspondent of a St. Louis paper. That is certain beyond the possibility of a doubt.
Mr. Bower, of North Carolina, and Mr.
Evans, of Tennessee, have declared themselves against the Reed-Lodge bill, which provides for returning boards and unlimited deputy marshals. For this reason Reed gave out word that he wanted the republican majority in the house increased, and the senate committee on privileges and elections obeyed his mandate.
There are signs of further revolt, and as he hasn't a sure majority yet, the country can expect more of this high-handed injustice.—Savannah News.
Lord Fauntleroy To-Night.
The Inshavogue as played by the Elfin Star Comedy company is interesting and the audience that witnessed the production last night went away well satisfied. In the title roll Ed. G.
Bourne is not only good but excellent and the remainder of the characters were well taken. The play is one of old Ireland and is of the kind that always takes.
To-night the company will produce Little Lord Fauntleroy, the piece which has created so much of a sensation in the entire country. It is the prettiest thing that has been seen on the stage for years and is all that is claimed for it—the greatest success of the age.
Mr. J. J. Mitchell, who lives near Scotland neck, had his stables blown down during a storm and lost two valuable mules.
The Cosmopolitan Club building offered for sale to-morrow, is admirably adapted for a private hotel. It is centrally located, with a fine outlook and desirable grounds.
It has twenty-seven rooms and its capacity can be readily increased by adding sleeping rooms in the rear. As a private hotel it is assured a large patronage and will yield a handsome income.

LAKE MOHAWK, N. Y., June 4.—Ex-ence to order this morning. Its object is the education and christianization of the negro. Among those present are William Lloyd Garrison, ex-President White, of Cornell, and the presidents or representatives of forty of the leading colleges of the country. The labors of the conference will be ended Friday.

For a Terrible Crime.
Special to The Citizen.
NEW YORK, June 4.—The examination of the notorious Chinaman, Lee Chi, is in progress here. It was from his place on Mott street that the police last week rescued young Suen Yee, a bright Chinese girl, who had been bought by Lee and terribly abused.
Derby Day in London.

fashionable London is at the track. Fifty are well up in the betting.

ports announce the destruction of the village of Bradshaw by a cyclone. Six are reported killed and twenty injured.

land, Iowa, is under water, the result of a cloud burst. No lives are lost.
A FUEL GAS.
A Company Organized to Manufacture it Here.
Asheville is to have another big enterprise.
Local and Chicago capitalists are now engaged in working up a scheme which, if it materializes, will be of great benefit to the city. The plan proposed is to establish a plant here for the purpose of manufacturing a fuel gas, which will be as good and as cheap as natural gas. It can be manufactured and consumed at about one-fifth the cost of coal.
The company is to be known as the North Carolina Fuel company, and has a capital of $500,000.
The representatives of the company applied to the Board of Aldermen at a special meeting this morning and were given permission to lay the pipes through the city. They expect to be ready to furnish gas within forty days.
IT HAS GONE THROUGH.
The Buchanan Property has Been Sold.
A gentleman who is in a position to know, says that he has reliable information that the Buchanan property has been sold to the hotel syndicate in which Vanderbilt and Inman are interested. He also says the hotel is an assured fact.
This is the same syndicate that bought the McDowell property.
Mr. W. A. Buchanan says that the property has been sold, either in part or as a whole, but does not know how much of it. The price was at the rate of $80, 000 for the ninety acres.
A gentleman returning from the unveiling of Lee's monument passed through Charlotte and said that he had been in Paris at the centennial celebration of the destruction of the Bastille, and that the Richmond celebration far surpassed it.
Three syndicates are now applying for franchise to build railroad up Valley street in the rear of the Feniman property.
This will add to their present value a hundred-fold.

A Murderer Captured.
Edward Roach who was wanted for murder at Middlesboro, Ky., has been arrested at Knoxville. W. H. Deaver, chief of the Pinion Detective Agency, in whose hands the case was placed received a telegram this morning saying that Roach admitted being in the saloon where the murder was committed, fifteen minutes before the murder. Mr. Deaver left for Knoxville this afternoon.
To Reduce the Hours.
A bill was recently introduced in congress asking that the hours of clerks and employees in postoffices of the first and second class be reduced to eight hours a day and that for all extra work they be paid pro rata.
A petition is being circulated here for signers in support of the bill and it will be sent to the representative in Washington.
NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.
Oxford thinks it has a boon.
Reidsville is trying hard to organize a chamber of commerce.
The North Carolina Dental Association meets at Wilmington June 25-27.
High Point's Y. M. C. A. numbers 125 active and twenty associate members.
It is now said that no steps will be taken to prosecute the Johnston lynchers.
Wadesboro has voted to subscribe $40, 000 to the Roanoke and Southern railroad.
Bethel pastor, Stanly county, has called and secured the service of Rev. C.
C. Lyster of the Southern Illinois synod.
A burglar broke into a store at Concord and tried to pry open the safe with a plank. It is needless to say that he failed.
Fifteen homing pigeons were turned loose at Concord on Monday night. They started at once to Philadelphia, where they are owned.
W. T. Howard has been appointed postmaster at Red Oak; R. Brem at Swan Quarter; W. Q. Denton at Rito; J.
H. Edwards at Battelboro.
The Richmond Dispatch does itself credit and justice to history when it says of North Carolina: "She will be a great power in the future in the time that tried men's souls."
The boot and shoe dealers of Wilmington will give their clerks a half holiday on every Friday afternoon. The new order of things will begin June 6th and last until August 15th.
Col. J. D. Cameron has been mentioned for the chair of history about to be established at the State University. No better selection could be made for such an important position.—Franklin Press.
It is said that Rev. J. D. Arnold, of Reidsville, will be president of the Asheville Female College next session.—Charlotte Chronicle. This would be an interesting item if it did not lack backing.
Mrs. Joseph McGehee of Oxford lies in a critical condition, the result of a fire in her home in which she was severely burned. Mrs. Parris, a sister of the unfortunate woman, was badly burned about the face and hands.
Last evening a woman boarded the northbound train at the depot. When the conductor came around she lacked eight cents of having enough money to pay her way to Salisbury and she was put off.—Concord Standard.
The Charlotte Chronicle says that the decorations for the musical festival to be held there this month will be most elaborate and beautiful. They will be in appropriate designs, such as harps and swords which have been ordered from the North for the occasion.
George Miller, a Concord colored man celebrated Decoration day at Salisbury and took a pint of corn liquor to help him do it. At night he was pretty drunk and when he went to sleep on the railroad track it didn't hurt him quite so much, perhaps to be run over as it would if he had been sober. It killed him just the same.
The fine iron gravestone that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee rode at the head of the procession at the unveiling of the Lee monument, belonged to Mrs. George D. Bennett, of Goldsboro. When ex-Gov. Lee saw the horse he said: "If I had hunted the State of Virginia over with a fine tooth comb I could not have found a finer animal."
The last issue of the Southern Tobacco Journal contained this editorial brief:
"Winston will vote on the question of issuing $200,000 worth of bonds for city improvements, including streets, city hall and market house. That is the step which places the Twin City far ahead of any place in North Carolina." Of course the Tobacco Journal meant to except Asheville.
A special from Raleigh to the Richmond Dispatch says: There is an unusual amount of interest in the University commencement next week. A special to-night says Judge James Grant, formerly of Iowa, now in California, who is a native of this State, will respond to the toast, "Old University Times" at the banquet on Wednesday. The veteran editor of the class of 1835, Colonel R. B. Creecy, of Elizabeth City, will respond to a similar toast. Since the death of Governor Geo.
W. Hayward, the oldest graduate of the University of North Carolina is Dr. Thos.
Hill, of Goldsboro, formerly of Wilmington, of the class of 1822.
The weekly weather crop bulletin of the State Experiment Station and Weather Service for this week, issued Saturday, says: There has been a decided excess of rainfall, but about the normal condition of temperature and sunshine during the week ending Friday, May 30, 1890. No damage is reported except from a few counties where the overflowing streams damaged the lowland crops, and the general effect has been very favorable upon the crops. A comparison of the condition and progress of the crops during May, 1890, with the corresponding period last year shows that the season is not only further advanced this year, but the condition of almost all crops is far better, so that with normal weather the season of 1890 is likely to prove a splendid one.
The heaviest rain fall occurred at Lumberton, Robeson county, being 5.03 inches in one day. Farmers are well up with their work. Nearly all the farmers have well finished setting out tobacco plants. Wheat and oats continue to improve.
The Feniman property is to be divided into lots to suit purchasers.
