APOTHECARY,
20 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ASHEVILLE, N. C.

For sixteen years I have carried on a Drug and Prescription business in Asheville, striving at all times to buy pure Drugs and sell no goods that are not strictly first-class in every respect.
Everything warranted as represented or money refunded. My goods are pure and fresh and my prices as low as the lowest. Prescriptions filled at all hours, day and night, and delivered free of charge to any part of the city.

Mr. J. Taylor Amiss is with me, and will be pleased to meet his friends and customers.

We are showing an

THE DAILY CITIZEN.

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

Thus far the papers have chronicled in their personal of New Yorkers seventeen of them who go abroad for the express and only purpose of visiting the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough. Of course none of them will be entertained by the couple but it sounds so nice, you know.

A CONVENTION of the democrats of the Sixth congressional district of Kentucky in session at Carrollton for the purpose of nominating a candidate to succeed Hon. John G. Carlisle, has taken sixtyone ballots without making a choice.
Mr. Berry, of Newport, leads in the race by twenty-one votes.

DAILY'S players have begun a season in London. The first night the house was crowded and the company received the hottest of welcomes. As a general thing English audiences are decidedly chilly in their reception of American actors, but with the Dailys they never fail to accord them a hearty welcome.

MR. THOMAS C. PLATT has just received a snub, which, if he has any manhood at all, must make him feel very small. His name was proposed to the Harlem republican club and it is gratifying to announce that fourteen members of that organization deposited black balls in the box. Such republicans as that would make good democrats.

A PRIVATE dispatch from Germany states that Emperor William will not prosecute Prince Bismarck for divulging state secrets. Emperor William has a remarkably keen head. To begin to prosecute the ex-chancellor would be about as insane a thing as he could do.
Bismarck is in possession of too many secrets to be handled lightly and the emperor knows it.

NOTHING makes the inhabitants of Alexandria and Waverlyville feel so much at home while in Asheville as to hear the cry of the street auctioneer. It reminds them so much of their village homes and is one of the few things in the city that does. Asheville has grown so rapidly that it has necessarily taken some of its village features along with it. The city auctioneer is one of them. He should be suppressed.

AN enterprising Egyptian says that he has discovered the bones of Cleopatra, and he wants to sell them to Chicago for exhibition at the World's Fair. The price he asks, however, $60,000, is a trifle too high. Any Connecticut yankee would take the contract to make bones for Cleopatra for $2.50 at the outside, and would make money at it. And what is more to the point the bones would do just as well.

COLONEL L. F. LIVINGSTON, president of the Georgia Farmers' Alliance, has withdrawn from the gubernatorial contest and will support Col. Wm. J. North-en for the democratic nomination. It is believed this assures the nomination of Col. Northen. Col. Livingston has concluded to seek the democratic nomination for Congress in the fifth district, now represented by Hon. John D. Stewart, and will have the backing of the alliance.

THE republican party promised one-cent postage as one of the boons to follow the election of Harrison. And yet we are further off from one-cent postage to-day than when Mr. Cleveland retired.
With a $6,000,000 deficiency in the postal service and the probable disappearance of the surplus in the treasury, there is no prospect of the redemption of this promise for many years to come.—[The Democrat.

IT IS A GOOD IDEA.

The Board of Aldermen of Charlotte have passed an order that all returns of personal property shall be published as soon as the list shall be closed. The idea is decidedly a good one.

Its object is of course to increase the amount of taxable personal property and the publication of the list is intended to make people have a more liberal appreciation of their possessions and to be more liberal with the assessors. All over $1,000 salary is taxable yet it is rare indeed that any tax is collected. The publication of just such matter as this will bring out lots of salaries over one thousand dollars and personal property valuations will be much higher than it is now. This will greatly increase the taxes and the money will come from those who can best afford to pay it, and who by rights should pay it. The well to do are the only ones who have any object in keeping down the assessment.

Again it will reduce the rate of taxation. That is fixed by the amount of money needed by the city and the valuation of the taxable property. If there is more property the rate will be smaller.
As it is now the poor man is paying more than his share simply because his rich neighbor hides from the assessor the value of his goods.

The action of the Charlotte board of aldermen would be well to be followed by the Asheville board.

TO SEE OUR PAVEMENT.
Mayor Peter Kern of Knoxville, and John Glenason, Adrian Terry and D. A.
Carpenter of the Board of Public Works, were in the city this morning. They were here for the purpose of inspecting the street paving, with a view to having some put down in their city. Gen. Young, the contractor, drove around with them.

The North Carolina teachers' assembly will be held at Morehead City from June 17 to 30. A number of Asheville people will attend.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

A case of yellow fever is reported at New Orleans.

The De Soto hotel at Savannah is in need of a manager.

Rev. Sam Jones is holding a revival meeting at Richmond.

Mr. Chas. Crawford, mayor of Salisbury, died Tuesday evening.

A negro insulted a white lady at Macon, Georgia, and was fined $10.

The democratic State campaign in South Carolina has been opened at Greenville.

Sam Watson killed Joe Kelley at Ashley Junction, S. C. No one saw the shooting.

John Turner, a notorious outlaw, was shot and killed by his cousin near Mid-dleborough, Ky.

Of 113 appointees as census enumerators in the first district of South Carolina six are negroes.

Reynolds, Georgia, now has a Woman's Christian Temperance Union which has just been organized.

The international typographical union is in session at Atlanta. They have endorsed the copyright bill.

A peculiar disease, the origin of which cannot be found out, is raging in a portion of Knoxville. It is not fatal.

A monument to 20,000 Confederate dead was unveiled at Petersburg, Va.
Many thousand visitors were present.

The trial of ex-Treasurer Henningway of Mississippi for absconding with the funds of the State will come up Monday.

Jesse Pool, killed a negro named Moon at a church in Gainesville, Ga. Corn whiskey was at the bottom of the affair.

The Savannah, Ga., street railroads have been bought by Nashville capitalists and will be turned into an electric road.

Henry Franklin's pistol fell from his pocket in the Waynesboro, Ga., court house and exploded. It cost the owner $50.

Robert and John Demarcus, colored, father and son, were killed in Knoxville Sunday by the caving in of a sewer embankment.

Tom Harris, colored, shot and killed Jackson Taylor, also colored, in a row at Elco, Ga. It is supposed to have been a case of self defense.

Bryan Odum, probably the oldest man in the State, died at his home in Screven county, Ga. He was 108 years old and fought in the war of 1812.

The Knox county (Tenn.) work house has just been reported by the grand jury as in a terrible condition. The food was also reported as pretty rough.

The decapitated body of Tom Miller, a respectable colored man, was found on the railroad track near Yemassee, S. C.
There are suspicions of murder.

Mr. Jerry Hall, a well known citizen of Bibb county, Ga., and sixty years of age was attacked and cruelly beaten at his home by negroes. He was seriously injured.

Several buildings in the portion of Charleston, S. C., known as the White Chapel district were destroyed by fire Monday. The loss was $7,850. No one was injured.

The police of Chattanooga have declared war against the gamblers. Chief Kilgore has said that they have got to go and that all he has done so far, but says he means business.

Two sons of J. S. Reavas, of Marion, S. C., five and six years old, found some cake in the barn loft and ate it. The cake had been poisoned for rats, and they soon died from the effects.

Athens, Ga., has risen to the dignity of a paid fire department. The city will purchase a $3,000 plant, put in a complete fire alarm system and then the inhabitants will sleep better nights.

The Atlanta Rifles won first prize in the international drill at Kansas City, and when the news reached the Georgia capital fire bells were rung, bands played and the city gave itself up to general rejoicing.

The Chattanooga Times is evidently greatly taken with America's great after-dinner speaker. "If the Republican party shall ever again succeed in electing a President," it says, "we hope that man will be the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew."

Three negroes named John Pitts, John Neal and John Williams were arrested in Toccoa, Georgia, suspected of an assault on Mrs. Taylor last week. They are confined in G
