W. C. CARMICHAEL,
APOTHECARY,
 20 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ASHEVILLE, N. C.
 For sixteen years I have carried on a Drug and Prescription business in Asheville, striving at all times to buy pure Drugs and sell no goods that are not strictly first-class in every respect. Everything warranted as represented or money refunded. My goods are pure and fresh and my prices as low as the lowest. Prescriptions filled at all hours, day and night, and delivered free of charge to any part of the city.
 Mr. J. Taylor Amis is with me, and will be pleased to meet his friends and customers.

We are showing an unusually large and attractive stock of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hats, Shoes of all Kinds, Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Smallwares & Carpets, bought with great care, marked at short and reasonable profits.
 The line embraces all grades from low priced to very fine.
 One price system.

THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
 JUNE is usually a dull month in Asheville. It is just between the seasons. Yesterday the hotels had 126 arrivals. There is nothing dull about that.
 To illustrate the effect that the recent real estate sales have had on the minds of the public, a man was on the street yesterday trying to sell a horse at $200 per front foot.
 AGAIN THE CITIZEN calls the attention of the city authorities to the fact that some steps should be taken looking toward a public park. It will be a great deal better to buy land now while it is cheap.
 They have accommodating judges at Hartford, Connecticut. An old man was arrested recently for vagrancy and jailed, and when his case was called he refused to come into the court room. The judge might have made it warm for him but he didn't. He just took an armful of law books and went over to the jail and heard the case there. That is politeness with a vengeance.
 ESPECIAL attention is called to-day to the plan of organization adopted by the State democratic committee for the guidance of the party in the coming campaign. It will be well to consider it carefully, so that every point is understood, and to follow its teachings to the letter. Then with a determination on the part of each one to do all in his power and a long pull all together success is assured.
 If the fiery Col. Shepard will permit himself to become quiet for awhile he might come down to Asheville, spend the heated term with his brother-in-law and cool off in the soothing zephyrs that fan the brow in the lofty altitude of Biltmore. He might also derive some sanitary benefits from the tonic properties of Asheville's climate, which will be generously shared with him, notwithstanding his hostile antics. With this climate and a reasonable amount of some real searching, vigorous liver regulator, Col. Shepard may be thoroughly reformed and be happy yet.—Wilmington Star.

The dispatches state that the Russian government has again received information leading them to believe that a new movement against the life of the Czar is contemplated. Consequently the guards in the imperial palace and at all the approaches to the building have been doubled. A number of arrests have been made of persons who are suspected of being connected with the movement.
 It was only a few days ago that a telegram was sent out of Russia stating that the reports of the danger of the Czar's life were greatly exaggerated. That he was a happy contented sovereign loved by his people and going and coming of his own free will. It is well to consider Russian news carefully before believing it.

The national temperance congress which has been in session in New York has closed. No conclusions were formulated in the shape of resolutions, resolutions being prohibited by the rules of the congress, but most of the speeches were overwhelmingly in favor of straight-out prohibition and against any compromise with the liquor traffic in the shape of high license.
 Joseph Cook was one of the speakers and he expressed himself that ultimately the question might have to be settled with the musket.
 General Green Clay Smith of Kentucky made a speech in which he seconded the remarks of Joseph Cook.
 The last speech was made by the Rev. John H. Hector, a colored man. He said that in slavery times the negroes were kept free from whiskey, because of this they were to-day the healthiest and strongest race on the continent, and were never troubled with bald heads and bad teeth. But if they were left to be enslaved by whiskey their condition would be worse than it was before the war.

The Annual Mortuary Report.
 The mortuary report for Asheville for the year ending June 1, as furnished by Dr. H. B. Weaver, superintendent of health for Buncombe county is as follows:

	WHITE.	COLORED.	TOTAL.
1880—	5	10	15
June.....	5	5	10
July.....	5	5	10
August.....	5	5	10
September.....	4	9	13
October.....	7	2	9
November.....	7	4	11
December.....	3	7	10
1889—	2	3	5
January.....	3	8	11
February.....	5	3	8
March.....	7	2	9
April.....	5	4	9
May.....	6	5	11
Total.....	66	54	120

The population as estimated gives 3,000 negroes and 7,000 white people. This makes the death rate for the year thirteen for each thousand. This as compared with other cities in the State with a population as large is the lowest rate. Others are as follows:

	POPULATION.	DEATH RATE.
Raleigh.....	15,000	18
New Bern.....	10,000	22
Wilmington.....	23,000	21
Charlotte.....	13,000	18

The publication in yesterday's paper by T. H. Cobb, trustee, of the sale of land for non-payment of a debt due by D. D. Suttle might without explanation do injustice to that gentleman. The debt stands nominally against Mr. Suttle, yet it is really against the man to whom the land has since been sold and who has assumed the payment of the debt. His failure to pay caused the advertisement of the property for sale.

Four People Injured.
Special to The Citizen.
 WALSBERG, Ill., June 14.—The fast train on the Chicago and Eastern road was wrecked here this morning. Four persons were injured and none were killed.
The Milk Maids' Drill.
 The Milk Maids' drill at the Farmers' warehouse last night was well attended and the object for which it was given, the Free Kindergartens, will be a number of dollars richer by the event. The entertainment opened with a solo by Mr. Fred Hull, followed with the drill by the Milk Maids. There were two in the corps under command of Miss Flora Whitlock. A number of difficult military maneuvers were particularly well executed and the manual of arms was excellent. A duet by Mr. Hull and Miss Mary Buxton followed. A feature of the entertainment was the leading of a cow in the hall during the drill. Refreshments followed and were served by the participants in the drill.
A Popular Clerk Married.
 Mr. Frank J. Mosher, the popular chief clerk at the Battery Park hotel and Miss Estelle Strout, daughter of A. S. Strout, of Anniston, Ala., were married at the bride's home, Wednesday, June 1. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. After leaving Anniston the couple went to Atlanta and Augusta to visit, and returned here last night. Mr. Mosher was for two years clerk at the Anniston Inn.

Execution and Languages.
 Mrs. P. L. Baldwin, formerly Associate Principal of Davenport College, Lenoir, N. C., and for several years teacher of Modern Languages in the Dorchester High School, Boston, will receive private pupils in Eloquent, French, German Spanish or Latin, at 46 French Broad avenue, between 3 and 7 p. m., except Saturdays. Terms: $5 per course of ten lessons of one hour each. One, two or three lessons weekly at the option of the pupil. Single lessons (in Eloquent) at the same rate. No pupils received in classes.
 Mrs. L. Wilcox, of Staten Island, is at the Glen Rock.

Swain county court has been in session this week.
 A G. A. R. post has been mustered at Charlotte.
 The Catawba wheat crop is said to be one-fourth short.
 Lumberton complains of the scarcity of huckleberries.
 Greensboro Presbyterians will build a $23,000 church.
 Raleigh society people are trying to revive the stately minuet.
 The Wilmington police force had a picnic at Carolina beach Tuesday.
 John A. Gilmer is spoken of for congressman from the fifth district.
 Dirt has been broken for the erection of a knitting factory at Goldsboro.
 The deaf, dumb and blind institute at Raleigh has closed for the summer.
 Bishop Lyman, who, by the way, is in feeble health, is at Old Point Comfort.
 Cows roam the streets of a certain part of Raleigh at their own sweet will.
 There are fifty-three students at the agricultural and mechanical college at Raleigh.
 Four hundred and fifty dogs are licensed at Wilmington. The city is richer by $450.
 The Haile gold mine near Concord raked in $9,100 during the month of May.
 Gus Frazier, of Prestonville, Stokes county, fell into the creek while fishing and was drowned.
 This year the State associations of county superintendents will meet June 23, at Morehead City.
 H. C. Jones, of Charlotte, has announced himself as a candidate for congress in the sixth district.
 Wilmington enthusiasts are already beginning to prepare for the coming of Sam Jones to that town.
 A census taker in Durham county has resigned because he couldn't see but eight dollars and a half in the job.
 A Burke county farmer made $800 last year on three acres in tobacco, with an expenditure of $4 per acre for fertilizers.
 Two Durham colored men who attempted to settle a little difficulty were fined $100 each when taken before the mayor.
 A Chatham county chicken (Chatham forever) was hatched the last week in January and laid an egg the 15th day of May.
 A tramp was found trying to get some money from the express office in Concord and was made to leave unceremoniously.
 A special geology class from the State University is prospecting around Flat mountain, practically pursuing that interesting study.

The North Carolina republicans at home deny that they believe in social equality. In Washington they practice it.—Raleigh Chronicle.
 The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad announces that during the summer season it will give special rates to Asheville and Hot Springs.
 The annual meeting of county superintendents of public instruction will be held in the assembly hall, Morehead City, June 23 at 3:30 p. m.
 Rev. Gilbert Higgs, for thirteen years rector of the Episcopal church at Warrenton, has accepted a call to the rectorate of a church at Key West.
 The grave of Jas. Harris, a signer of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence, is about midway between Rocky river and Pioneer mills.
 Eleven thousand seven hundred and twenty-one farmers and others interested in farming in North Carolina received the experiment station bulletin.

Dr. Edwards, of Liberty, hitched his horse to a tree during a thunder storm. When the storm passed by he buried the animal. It was of no use after the lightning had finished with it.
 Dr. E. C. Herndon, of Oxford, Messrs. H. S. Jerman, R. T. Gray, P. M. Wilson, and C. M. Hawkins, of Raleigh, and John A. Hambleton & Co., of Baltimore, Md., have organized a street railway company to be operated in Oxford.
 A number of the harmless incurable in some are being sent to their homes from the North Carolina insane asylum. The removals are now going on. This is in accordance with the recent decision of the board of directors. Room is badly needed at the asylum.
 Filmore Wicken, a farm hand near Liberty attempted to commit suicide with a hoe. When discovered he had inflicted several serious wounds about the head and had twice fractured his skull. A doctor was called and the patient will probably pull through all right.
 Mr. Zach Scott boarded the elevator in the Greensboro Female college on the third floor and started for the bottom. The fact that the elevator broke got him there a trifle ahead of schedule time. Although considerably battered Mr. Scott may be said to be still inside the ropes.

The Raleigh News and Observer did not put in an appearance on Wednesday morning. Two forms were dropped while they were being carried to the press room and the type was distributed over the floor. Wednesday some tall hustling was done and Thursday the paper came out as usual and treats its accident as a joke.
 Edward Rembert, of South Carolina, fell in love with a pretty little girl named Christine Sanders. She was several years younger than he and poor, and he sent her to St. Mary's academy, near Raleigh, to be educated. A few days ago she graduated at the age of 17 and that afternoon she and her protector were married.
 Hutts Kaziah served in the Confederate army during the war and James Scott in the Federal. At Gettysburg the former captured Scott and made him prisoner. A few days ago they met at Forest Hill and knew each other instantly. They shook hands and laughed over the former occurrence with the best feeling in the world.
