MISCELLANEOUS. ESTABLISHED 1874. W. C. CARMICHAEL, APOTHECARY,

20 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ASHEVILLE, N. C.
For sixteen years I have carried on a Drug and Prescription business in Asheville, striving at all times to buy pure Drugs and sell no goods that are not strictly first-class in every respect. Everything warranted as represented or money refunded. My goods are pure and fresh and my prices as low as the lowest. Prescriptions filled at all hours, day and night, and delivered free of charge to any part of the city.
Mr. J. Taylor Amiss is with me, and will be pleased to meet his friends and customers.

We are showing an unusually large and attractive stock of Clothing, Men's Furnishing Goods, Hats, Shoes of all Kinds, Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Smallwares & Carpets, bought with great care, marked at short and reasonable profits.
The line embraces all grades from low priced to very fine.
One price system.

THE DAILY CITIZEN. FACTS AND COMMENTS.

THE English syndicate is said to be after the Louisiana Lottery. If it would only purchase it and take it over to England it would settle a much mooted question.
SAN FRANCISCO has at last passed an ordinance against prize fighting. It will still be in order however for San Francisco toughs to pound the life out of innocent Chinamen.
ON pulling down an old house in Staunton, Va., the other day some parties found about $300 in gold and silver coin of very old dates, some of which are worth considerably more than their face value.
A RETIRED DETROIT grocer says the most independent man on earth is the one who pays cash and runs no bills, especially where he buys his provisions. When he feels that he can buy where he pleases and pay as he goes he buys to better advantage every time and saves money.
THE vigorous fight against the confirmation of J. B. Hayes to be revenue collector has been won by the opposition and Mr. Hayes is now a private citizen. Everything is not smooth sailing in the republican ranks. This bodes no harm to the Democrats.

WHATSOEVER else may be said about Sam Jones it is certain that he has a way of bringing the sinner to time. He has just closed a ten days' series of meetings at Richmond and it is estimated that 150,000 people attended the services, and that thousands signified their intention of leading better lives. An audience of 10,000 invited Mr. Jones to return to Richmond.

THIS morning a dog supposed to be mad was killed on College street after having bitten a boy and several animals. It may be, and perhaps is, that the dog's madness existed only in the minds of a few excited men and boys, but his actions would contradict it and all of the dogs bitten by him should be killed. Hydrophobia is too dangerous to be played with. It should be stamped out right away.

SPEAKER REED may be a man of destiny, but in view of the record he is making for himself in Congress, we are persuaded that his destiny is a dark one, and the tide on which he is now floating will not lead him on to fortune. He is undoubtedly a presidential possibility—he will be a candidate—but only a candidate. He will never force his way into the Presidential chair; the country neither could nor would stand it.—Atlanta Constitution.

PRESIDENT HARRISON it is said has told an intimate friend that he will not be a candidate for re-election. "I am not here for the purpose of acting in the interest of myself or of my party," he is reported as saying, "but in the interest of the whole country and the people. When my term is out I expect to return to Indianapolis and resume the practice of law."
If this is really true the country will generally concede that Harrison has got more sense than he is usually given credit for. But then it is only a question of going peacefully or being kicked out, and it does not take much of a brain to choose the former.

IN a number of cities where the census has been completed complaint is being made that it is faulty. The Chicago Daily News says it has been so defective that it is no more than a farce. The New York papers are also complaining as are the papers of Birmingham and Charleston. There can be but little doubt but that there is some fact in all this blarney.
It is of the utmost importance that there be no such complaints from Asheville. If every resident makes up his mind that his name shall appear in the census, it will be there and then the census will be complete.
Make a note of it and don't forget the census enumerators.

PERSONAL.
An official of the British museum, Louis Fagan, will lecture over here next winter.
Louise Alberta, a gifted Frenchwoman, aspires to the mantle of Rosa Bonheur. She wears male attire, and in manners is a Chesterfield.
The Hungarian artist, Munkacsy, is contemplating the painting of a grand series of religious pictures which will keep him busy several years.
Sir Edward Arnold's new epic poem, "The Light of the World," consists of 60,000 lines, and is pronounced the finest work of the kind since Milton.
Probably the richest man in Alabama is Josiah Morris, of Montgomery. He has a fortune of $3,000,000, made for the most part from dealing in real estate.
The St. Louis beer king, Adolph Busch, is at the head of an establishment which employs three thousand men, and he receives a salary of $50,000 a year.
The composer of "Kathleen Mavourneen," F. N. Crouch, is nearly ninety years of age, but he marched in the procession at the unveiling of the Lee monument at Richmond.
A carpenter in Jacksonville, Ill., formerly a captain in the British Army, named G. A. Catterwell, has fallen heir to a million dollar estate by the death of his father in England.
The lately elected Royal Academician, Hubert Herkner, whose picture, "The Last Muster," has made him famous, was at one time an "Ohio boy," although born in Bavaria. His parents took him to Ohio when he was two years old, and later returned to England with him.

The Biggest Discovery Made Yet.
MONTGOMERY, June 19.—A special from Anniston says: Particulars of the biggest gold discovery ever made in the South come from Cleburne county. The ore will yield, according to assay, from ten to one hundred pennyweights. A company was at once organized to develop the discoveries.
Yale College Commencement.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Yale college commencement exercises began to-day with the DeForest-Townsend prize speaking which is now in progress. This afternoon the Yale and Harvard ball clubs will contest. To-morrow morning the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered in Hattell Chapel.
Three Colleges Celebrate.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW YORK, June 20.—The alumni of the college of the city of New York are holding an enthusiastic gathering here to-day. At Cambridge Harvard is celebrating class day. At Evanston, Ill., the Northwestern University is holding commencement exercises.

Probably it will be Henderson.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
PRINCETON, Ill., June 20.—The republicans of the seventh congressional district met in convention here to-day. In all probability Congressman Henderson, of Princeton, who has served acceptably, will be re-nominated.
Missouri Editors Meet.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
CARTERSVILLE, Mo., June 20.—The South-west Missouri Editors' Association began its annual session here to-day. About a hundred editors in attendance.

Sailed for Europe.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW YORK, June 20.—Rosina Vokes and her company sailed for Europe this morning. She will spend the summer in Devonshire, England.
A handsome monument has been placed over the grave of General George H. McClellan.
General James A. Denver, after whom the city of Denver was named, is a law partner of ex-Attorney General Garland.
Mrs. Bayne, the wife of the congressman who has distinguished himself by declining a renomination, is the daughter of the proprietor of Hostetter's bitterns and is very rich.
Mme. Letitia Bonaparte, wife of Rutz de Rute, the madeup grand daughter of Lucien Bonaparte, brother of the great Napoleon, is still fascinating and romantic at the age of 68.
Pope Leo's resident physician follows his holiness about almost like his shadow, and is forever going to and fro with a thermometer in his hand looking out for the slightest breath of an intrusive draught that might venture to blow rudely near the head of the church.
Postmaster General Wanamaker wishes his administration of the department to be distinguished by four radical movements. These are the establishment of postal telegraphy; second, the divorce of lotteries from the mails; third, postal savings banks; and fourth, penny postage.
