He might have added that these Carlisle, will be elected congressman toremovals were made to quiet the howls of the hungry little republicans who the severnor was wise enough to select wanted the places and were entaged because democrats had been appointed. The enumerators who revoked the appointments of democrats excused themselves for doing so, alleging that they did so in obedience to instructions from

FOR A WORTHY OBJECT. Since the two boys were bitten yester day by what was supposed to be a mad dog, it has been suggested that a subscription be raised and that the victims be sent to Dr. Paul Gibier's pasteur es tablishment in New York City for treatment. THE CITIZEN is always ready to voice the requests of the people and particularly one so worthy. For that reason it has caused to be placed in the business office a paper that may be signed by those who wish to contribute to the cause. The list is headed by THE CITIZEN with a contribution of $10. That the good people of Asheville wil see that enough money is raised to send the boys to New York, we have no doubt. Many have expressed themselves as desirous of giving for that object and see that they do. Of course there is some
