THE DAILY CITIZEN.

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

GEORGE BANCROFT is the oldest surviving graduate of Harvard. He graduated 73 years ago. During its twenty-five years of existence Harvard has graduated 16,930 pupils. Of these 8,627 are living.

THE CITIZEN congratulates the Lyceum on its choice of Col. J. D. Cameron to be its president during the coming quarter. The selection is a decidedly good one. Under his able leadership the society can't but help but flourish.

Mrs. MERRITT, of Philadelphia, is winning honors for herself abroad. A painting which she exhibited in the academy has been purchased by the Chantry fund. This is a distinction indeed. The title of the painting is "Love Barred Out."

THE complaint in Chicago that the census was not thorough was substantiated in a startling manner the other day. The census supervisor discovered that he was not on the list. He is willing to make affidavit now that the whole affair is faulty in every way.

A FLORIDA census enumerator lost three cents just because a neighbor differed with him. The difference of opinion grew into a row and ended in the enumerator's stabbing his antagonist. The latter died, consequently cannot figure in the census and the enumerator cannot collect for him.

Charles I. Harrah, a large iron manufacturer, a republican, and a prominent member of the Manufacturers' club, has withdrawn from the latter and gives the following reasons in a public interview: "I could not have maintained my self respect by remaining a member of the club while it supported a bill that I was against from principle. There were but two things for me to do—either take an aggressive stand and fight the measure in the club rooms, which would have caused ill feeling, or quietly withdraw. I chose the latter. I was placed in a delicate position. My father was vice president of the club, and this influence was brought to bear upon me. It was a matter of principle, and I could not remain. If the McKinley bill is passed my business will be injured. The Midvale steel works sell steel tires for 2 1/2 cents a pound. The McKinley bill proposes to add this additional tariff to the price of steel. This increases the price of our material and will prevent my company from competing with foreign steel manufacturers. I won't support any measure that threatens to injure my business. Even under the present tariff laws on iron and steel we sell our product as cheap as foreign manufacturers can.

The Midvale steel company sells ordnance metal to the United States government as cheaply as Armstrong sells it to the English, Schneider to the French or Krupp to the German governments. And yet we pay our workmen higher wages. They need more money to live on and we have to pay them. The Midvale steel company could stand this bill if their workmen suffered, but my workmen help me make money and what will hurt them will hurt me. That is why I oppose the McKinley bill, and to remain in the Manufacturers' club while it supported the measure was not in accordance with my ideas of self respect. Therefore I resigned."

Mr. Harrah is a thinking man. His remarks are to the point and his conclusions correct. If there were more in the republican party, there would be no McKinley bill to antagonize.

DRILL IN GYMNASIUMS.

A New Feature at the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

At the meeting of the gymnasium committee of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon it was decided to hold class drills in gymnastics under the charge of Prof. Mangum each Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 9 o'clock. The drill will consist of a drill of twenty minutes to half an hour in Indian clubs, wands, rings or dumbbells, after which the time will be spent in the heavier work on the horizontal bar, parallel bars, flying rings and jumping part in the drills will be permitted on the gymnasium floor. On the other nights Prof. Mangum will be on the floor to give individual instruction in the use of the various pieces of apparatus.

A committee of volunteer leaders is being organized to aid Prof. Mangum in his work. In connection with the gymnasium are the bath rooms, which are supplied with hot and cold water.

Full members of the Y. M. C. A. are entitled to the use of the bath rooms at any time, as well as to the class drills, without additional charge. Any young man of good moral character may become a member of the association upon payment of the annual fee of $7.

Prof. Mangum will also conduct a regular class drills for the boys' department each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4 o'clock. Any boy between the ages of 10 and 16 years may become a member of this department by paying $2 per year in advance and presenting testimonials of good character.

After Thirteen Years.

Admore Burton, a colored man stole some clothing from the firm of Kay & Millard when they were in business thirteen years ago and left the city. He returned recently and was arrested to-day on the charge of larceny. He was taken before Esquire Summey this morning and committed to jail to await the next term of the criminal court.

MANY LIVES ARE LOST.

THE BRIDGE BETWEEN TWO STEAMSHIPS BREAKS.

A TUC EXPLODES NEAR RACINE, WISCONSIN.

The Republican Convention at Harrisburg, Pa.—News of the World To-Day.

Special Dispatch to The Citizen.

BREST, France, June 25.—The bridge between two steamships collapsed this morning. Hundreds dropped into the sea. Seven bodies were recovered.

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICS.

What is Doing in the Harrisburg Convention.

Special to The Citizen.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 25.—The convention of the Pennsylvania republicans has been declared open by the chairman of the executive committee and the preliminary organization has been perfected. It now remains to follow out the program as carefully planned by Mr. Quay. There seems to be no doubt of the nomination of Senator Delemater for governor, and the absence of Christopher L. Magee, of Allegheny county, leads to the impression that a bolt from the prospective party nomination is imminent. Philadelphia's legislation will cast a complimentary vote for General Hastings this afternoon, but will go to Delemater in the formal ballot. Allegheny county will probably vote for Nemoto throughout. One of the delegation asserts that Delemater's nomination means the loss of Allegheny county to the republicans. On the other hand the majority of republicans here are determined to vindicate Quay by the nomination of his choice, Senator Delemater.

Attorney Graham, of Philadelphia, a Delemater man, has been chosen temporary chairman of the convention.

That Twin City Quarrel.

Special to The Citizen.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—A deputization of citizens leaves for Washington this afternoon to urge Attorney General Miller to prosecute the wholesale census frauds perpetrated in Minneapolis. They assert that the prosecuting attorney, a citizen of Minneapolis, will not prosecute the culprits.

An Elaborate Banquet.

Special to The Citizen.

NEW YORK, June 25.—One of the most elaborate banquets of the year will be given to-night at the Hoffman House by the Irish Home Rule Clubs of New York to E. J. Curry, who has for years been prominently associated with the movement in America.

A Vote by Saturday.

Special to The Citizen.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The debate on the new election bill is in progress to-day in the house. Under the program, which Speaker Reed declares is ironclad, a vote will be reached Saturday.

A Tug Explodes.

RACINE, Wis., June 25.—The tug Welcomer exploded here to-day. All hands are reported to be lost.

W. N. C. Educational Association.

The teachers of Western North Carolina are called to meet in convention at Waynesville, July 16 and 17, for the purpose of organizing a permanent Educational Association.

Co. Superintendents—Jno. W. Starnes, Buncombe; Rev. R. A. Sentell, Haywood; C. C. Cowan, Jackson; J. Ulrich Gibbs, Swain; M. C. King, Cherokee; J. A. Hyde, Graham; C. J. Edney, Henderson.

Ex-Superintendents—C. C. Standridge, Clay; Rev. Jno. S. Smiley, Swain.

Teachers—Dr. R. H. Lewis, Hendersonville; W. F. Marshall, Lenoir; Rev. A. E. Pinckard, Hamburg; J. H. House, Cowarts; Robt. L. Madison, Painter, and others.

They are Barred Out.

The Wilmington Seacoast railway offered a prize of $100 for the best score made by a regularly organized rifle team, military or civil, of not less than five members, the shoot to take place at Hammocks Friday, July 4. The Asheville Rifle Club made up its mind to take that prize and wrote for particulars. They came in the shape of a circular and knocked one clause which completely contained the local organization. It was to the effect that none but the military rifle will be used. The local team uses the Winchester repeater and of course are barred.

The South Carolinians.

A business meeting of the South Carolina Bank was held at the First National Bank yesterday evening. The committee on arrangements for the banquet reported favorable progress. Gov. Taylor of Tennessee, Lieut. Gov. Mauldin of South Carolina, Attorney-General T. F. Davidson of this State, for Gov. Fowle, and other prominent gentlemen have accepted invitations to be present. It will be at the Swannanoa Hotel Friday night.

A Boarding House Register.

The boarding house committee of the Y. M. C. A. desires to make a complete revision of its register. Now that visitors are beginning to pour in, it is necessary that the register be accurate. To accomplish this all boarding house keepers are requested to send at once full information in regard to rooms and board to Mr. H. P. Andersen, Secretary Y. M. C. A.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

A town in Louisiana is named Quarantine. Greenville, S. C., is trying to organize a base ball club.

Sam Jones is now holding a revival at Norfolk, Va.

A handsome union depot is soon to be erected at Norfolk, Va.

Fort Payne, Ala., has nominated a citizen ticket for the city officers.

The second regiment Alabama State troops is in encampment at Montgomery.

The engineer corps of the Shenandoah Valley railroad is now about a mile from Middleburg, Va.

It is rumored at Norfolk that the Richmond and Danville shops may be moved to Charlotte.

Nearly all freight trains passing through Greenville, S. C., carry watermelons to Northern markets.

By an accident on the Orange railway, near Menica, Pasco county, John Tomlinson, the engineer, lost his life.

Lynchburg, Va., is grumbling because the census enumerators could find no more than 19,000 or 20,000 people in that city.

Judge Henry W. Thomas, the foremost lawyer of Northern Virginia, died at his home at Fairfax Court House on June 21, aged 78 years.

Crops within a radius of twenty-five miles of Wheeling, W. Va., were damaged to the extent of thousands of dollars by two violent storms.

Hon. C. M. Williamson has just been appointed by Governor Stone to assist in the prosecution of the Hemingway case at Jackson, Mississippi.

The Western Union company will lay a cable across the Mississippi river at Vicksburg to take the place of the one destroyed during the high water.

Knott county, Ky., is said to be in the hands of lawless bands of desperadoes. Governor Buckner has received a petition asking aid for the holding of court.

Farmers around Lynchburg are experiencing a great deal of trouble in procuring labor for harvest, on account of so many colored hands leaving and going to work on railroads.

Andrew Crawford, of Columbia, S. C., is a candidate for the office of attorney general. As usual Mr. Crawford didn't want to do it, but his many friends insisted, so he had to give in.

"Shino" the juggler of Yellowstone Kit's show which has been doing Alabama was arrested at Troy for insulting a young lady and given twelve months in the Coalburg convict mines.

The National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union will hold its next annual meeting in Ocala instead of in Jacksonville as designated by the vote of the National Alliance at St. Louis last December.

Congressman Lee has received a letter from a daughter of Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, recommending the repeal of the constitutional amendment conferring upon negroes the privilege of suffrage.

The Danville and New River railroad in Virginia is now advertised for sale and will be put up to the highest bidder on August 27. There is said to be no question but that the Richmond and Danville road will be the purchaser.

A. C. Peatross has been arrested at Vicksburg, Miss., for the murder of a negro named Hawkins Moses which occurred last December. Peatross is white and claims the deed was done in self defense. He is out on $5,000 bail.

It is reported that Colonel M. B. Harbin, Colonel J. W. Lyle and Colonel Wm. M. Patton, professors at the Virginia Military Institute, have placed their resignations in the hands of the superintendent, to take effect September 1, 1890.

General Richard C. Jones, of Camden, Wilcox county, has just been elected president of the University of Alabama, which is at Tuscaloosa. He received his education in the university and received his title for his gallant services during the late war.

Rev. T. E. McCutcheon, an Atlanta Baptist minister, assaulted his wife with his fists and his brother clergymen have just passed resolutions censuring him for his conduct but expressing their confidence in his christian character. McCutcheon claimed provocation.

A boat containing J. W. Delaplane of Hampton, his son and nephew was run into by a passing vessel off Fort Monroe and young Delaplane was pitched overboard. His father jumped over to save his son and the nephew jumped in to save the father and all were drowned.

Mrs. Lizzie Ackerman who shot and killed her husband at Memphis, Tenn., has just been convicted of murder in the second degree and has been sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. The killing occurred in the court room where Ackerman was on trial for assaulting his wife.

Two murder cases were tried in one day recently in Charleston. Albert G. Gardiner, accused of the murder of James Richardson, was found guilty and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Willie Baber, accused of the murder of Theodore Robinson, was acquitted.

The grand jury at Purvis, Miss., have returned an indictment charging John L. Sullivan with prize fighting. A petition is in circulation to Judge Ferrel, which is being numerously signed by the leading citizens, praying that the court be lenient and impose a fine without imprisonment. It will be presented in open court.

Charles Cato, white, shot and killed Lizzie Mitchell, colored, in a disreputable house in Birmingham and then blew out his own brains. Four hours later Wm. Tatum shot and mortally wounded Mary Barnett and blew out his own brains in a different house. Jealousy caused both crimes. Tatum saw the first tragedy and followed suit.

At Richmond, Va., and all because of love, Richard E. Owens, a young man about twenty-two years old, attempted to kill Miss Nannie Shaw and afterward shot himself. He called on the young lady, who had previously informed him that he must cease to visit her, and proposed to take a walk. She declined, and he drew a pistol and said, "Here is where I end your life." Miss Shaw jumped aside before the weapon was discharged, and the ball missed its mark. She retreated to an adjoining room and fastened the door. Owens fired a ball into his left breast, inflicting a dangerous wound. He was arrested and placed under bond.
