THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
TOLSTOY says marriage is sin. Let this idea generally obtain, and we expect to see a tremendous boom in the matrimonial market.—Boston Transcript.
The rapidity with which Georgia towns are passing ordinances prohibiting women from entering saloons would lead a stranger to believe that it was a very common practice in the sister State for females to frequent the places.
This charming weather which is being enjoyed in the North was told in the dispatches of yesterday. Three days ago the people of Mount Washington could not bear the heat. On the ninth it began to grow cold and yesterday it snowed. Asheville is the place to be during the heated term.
THE Force bill is declared by its authors to be a measure that will insure pure elections. Its authors voted down an amendment making it applicable to the North as well as the South. Hence, it follows that Reed, Quay and Lodge do not want pure elections at the North. Boodle must have full sway to muster its blocks of five in the sections of perfect righteousness.—Louisville Times.
CHICAGO is rejoicing over the fact that for the past two days the temperature has been cooler, the thermometer standing no higher than 89°. Another cause for rejoicing was because there were no more than fifteen prostrations from the heat and only four or five deaths. Chicago's attention is respectfully called to Asheville where the thermometer quits rising when it gets in the seventies and where there is never a prostration from the heat.
SOUTH CAROLINA is not the only state where the farmers' alliance is making itself felt. Down in Madison county, Georgia, they are strong enough so that there has been an opposition organized. The latter have petitioned Congressman Carlton of Athens to be a candidate for re-nomination on a platform in which opposition to the sub-treasury bill is the most important feature. Congressman Carlton has replied that he will not be a candidate, but his friends think he will accept if the honor is forced upon him. Meanwhile the members of the alliance are setting back sharpening their knives and promising all manner of warm times as soon as the campaign opens. Georgia farmers are going into the political field in earnest.
THINGS are not always what they seem. An Indian of the Catawba tribe near Rock Hill has been doing the Western States with a patent medicine company who advertised him as a member of the Apache band of warriors. No doubt he cut a big figure in the West and on the strength of the advertising he received was regarded with considerable awe and given much his own way. Now he has returned and the first thing he did was to get full and try to do the town. That's the way he did in the West and nobody thought anything about it. But in North Carolina he was known and when the police pulled him there probably was not a more surprised Indian on the globe. He had got so accustomed to having his own way he could not understand that the laws of a civilized country applied to him.
WHATSOEVER may be the party ties one cannot help but admire the courage of Chauncey M. Depew. He has been mentioned as a possible candidate to head the republican ticket in the next campaign and the paramount objection to him is that he is a railroad man. In the face of this he comes out with an article in the last North American Review entitled "Railway Men in Politics," and in which he says:
The violent prejudices against railway companies and their management, many of which had good foundations in the beginning, no longer exist. Governmental and State regulations, and a radical change in the relations between the railway companies and the public, have led to kinder feelings and a better understanding. The exceedingly rich and varied vocabulary of opprobrious epithets against railway men has fallen into innocuous desuetude. Railway attorneys find that juries are treating them the same as any other litigants; and in legislatures and before railway commissions the companies have a fair hearing, and the merits of the case are generally impartially acted upon. Railway men in politics are gradually becoming no different from people engaged in any other pursuit.
I do not believe there are two States in the union to-day where a railway man running for office would be cut by any considerable number of the members of his party on account of his business.
As to railroad men becoming candidates for office, as soon as they know that they are not fighting against a boycott which imposes a stigma upon their patriotism and sense of duty to the public in official positions, few of them will be found willing to take office until they are prepared to quit business. All railway men are politicians, and active ones. Their constant contact with the public, and the habit of being actively interested in everything about them, make them such. But the railway is a most exacting master, and it would be very difficult for one of its officers or employees to hold a position involving his time and attention to any extent, and still continue in the railway service.
In writing the above Depew boldly invites the criticism that is sure to be brought out, especially because of his probable candidacy. It is beyond question an impudent act on his part, but it shows the natural bravery and honesty of the man.

A TOWN WIPED OUT.
A VILLAGE BURNED AT WAR-SAW TO-DAY.
TWO WOMEN FATALLY STABBED AT TASLEY, VA.
Two Men Killed by an Explosion in New York and Three Injured—Hanged at Columbia.
WARSAW, July 11.—A RUSSIAN TOWN near here burned this morning. Seven people are reported dead and three hundred dwellings are in ruin.
A Village Burned.
Special to The Citizen.
ST. LOUIS, July 11.—The village of Ithica was burned this morning.
Two are Killed.
Special to The Citizen.
NEW YORK, July 11.—The generators in the Moran bottling works burst this morning killing a farmer named Ackert and his son and injuring three persons.
Two Women Killed.
Special to The Citizen.
TASLEY, Va., July 11.—Two women were fatally stabbed and nearly cut to pieces here by Thomas Willett. The brute has been arrested.
AT THE END OF A ROPE.
Armistead Jones Explains a Terrible Crime at Columbia.
Special to The Citizen.
COLUMBIA, S. C., July 11.—Armistead Jones, the youngest murderer ever hanged in this state, expiated his crime at Orangeburg to-day. Two brothers, Jason and Armistead, aged 13 and 16 respectively, quarreled with their stepmother, way-laid, shot and killed her. The governor commuted the sentence of the younger, but refused to interfere in Armistead's behalf.
The Contract Let.
Messrs. Hartford and Mitchell, civil engineers of Chattanooga, have secured the contract for making a topographical survey and maps of the lands of the Asheville Loan, Construction and Improvement Co. A force of engineers are now in the city and will commence work at once. Col. Hartford, the head of the firm, will be here in a few days and assist in mapping out the work.
Socialists Meet To-Night.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW YORK, July 11.—The socialist labor party of New York will hold a mass convention at Clarendon hall to-night.
A Military Affair.
The Asheville Light Infantry will give an ice cream supper at the Farmers' warehouse on the evening of the 16. The Hickory band, which will be here for the Loughran sale, has been engaged for the occasion, as well as the Asheville band. The proceeds of the supper will go toward hiring a special car for the boys who go to the State encampment at Wrightsville.
The New York architects who were employed have submitted the plans of the hotel for the Asheville Park and Hotel company, and they are now under consideration. They call for 350 rooms to accommodate 500 guests.
PERSONAL.
Senator Sherman's large fortune is said to yield him an income of 12 per cent.
Mildred Conway, daughter of Moncure D. Conway, is in Italy studying music.
Samuel Day, of Wesley, Me., has killed in twenty-five years 220 bears and cubs, for which he has received $2,000 in bounties.
A French scientist named Laborde has announced the discovery of a new anaesthetic which he claims to be superior to all others.
Mrs. Albani will take her holiday in Scotland, as usual, this year. Her mother was a Scotchwoman, hence her love for the Highlands.
Constance Fenimore Woolson has a decision of speech and a charming way of going to the root of a matter that makes her a delightful companion.
Emperor William has contributed 10,000 marks toward the fund which is being collected for the purchase of the famous Sulkowski collection of bric-a-brac and curiosities.
Mendelssohn, the composer, has a cousin who is the leader of a band of Russian nihilists, and who was arrested recently for threatening the life of the Czar.
Verdi is reported from Geneva to be in excellent health, and although his white hair and flowing beard give him a venerable appearance, his eyes are full of fire. He will not admit that Otello is his last work, and says there is no telling what he may do if the inspiration comes to him.
Hickory's crack band will be here on the day of the great Loughran sale. At the ground they will do their prize drill, and during the progress of the sale they will keep the air full of music.
By the way, have you yet decided to buy a lot at the great Loughran sale? Of course it is one of the best investments to be found around Asheville although you may perhaps not have thought of it. But suppose you stop and think of it a minute. There they lie, directly in front of the proposed Inman hotel, nearly in the center of the city and are suitable for both residence and business purposes. Street cars will pass every door, sewers run in front of every lot and in fact they are supplied with the best the city affords. Now what do you think of it? Don't it look like a good thing? Yes—well on hand next Wednesday morning and see that you buy some of this charming property.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

An eight year old negro boy is under arrest at South Greensboro for Burglary.
Marion is going to vote on the issuing of $10,000 in bonds for street improvements.
The body of an infant was found in a sack and under a bush by some picnickers at Hillsboro.
Wilmington has awakened to its danger and has begun a thorough cleaning of its streets.
Jim Baker, a colored man, fell from a pier at Wilmington and was drowned in the Cape Fear river.
Wilmington's highwaymen still linger around the outskirts of the city and occasionally do a turn.
Charles E. Johnson, a Raleigh cotton buyer, will go to Oberammergau to see the famous Passion Play.
Durham's postoffice receipts for the year ending June 30 exceeded those of a year ago by just $3,319.34.
The members of the Charlotte bar have passed resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge Shipp.
Mrs. Nancy Grogg, aged 83, and wife of a revolutionary war pensioner, died at her home near Collettsville.
Jake Fisher, president of the Rowan county Farmers' Alliance, is a candidate for sheriff of that county.
Governor Fowle will be among the visitors at the encampment of State troops this year at Wrightsville.
A fire occurred at Washington, destroying Farrows' ship railway and Stewart's machine shops, entailing a loss of $8,000.
The chamber of commerce of Greensboro reports the transactions in lumber for the last month to be nearly 4,000,000 feet.
According to a recent statement of the commissioner of agriculture corn, cotton and tobacco is at least two weeks ahead of last year.
The first day of the summer law school at the University showed 16 students. It is thought that the number will increase to 20.
Wilmington claims to be one of the coolest places in the country because during the recent hot spell its thermometer only went up to 92.
The employees of the News and Observer of Raleigh give two cents apiece each week toward the erection of the soldier's home at the capitol city.
W. E. Schenck has been appointed assistant adjutant general of the State Guard, with the rank of captain, vice John M. Wilson resigned.
The convention of the fifth judicial district nominated R. W. Winston, of Oxford, for judge and E. S. Parker, of Alamance, for solicitor. It was held at Greensboro.
A movement is on foot at Winston to remove large lithographic works from New York city to that place. The company will go into an expensive business throughout the South.
The Parks Mineral Spring in Caswell has been sold to a Hartford, Conn., syndicate. The syndicate is making preparations to build a sanitarium. Twelve thousand dollars is the price paid for ten acres.
During the State fair the ladies of Raleigh have decided to hold another fair for the benefit of the soldiers' home. It is thought that the home will be located at Camp Russell, just beyond the corporate limits of the city.
Governor Fowle has commissioned Judge Spier Whittaker to hold the fall terms of the superior court for Rockingham and Stokes counties in the Ninth judicial district, in lieu of the late Judge Shipp.
S. D. Brown was a revenue officer before Bill Life began holding his revival meetings at Gastonia. He was one of the converts and now he has insisted that that one cannot serve the Lord and the revenue service by turning his office over to his son.
A special to the Columbia Register from Rock Hill, S. C., says: A solid gold nugget weighing nine pounds and valued at $9,500 was shipped through this place yesterday over the Three C's railroad from Haile gold mine to the assay office at Charlotte, N. C.
A Raleigh correspondent says that the reason of the editorial attack on Senator Vance which appeared in a recent number of the Progressive Farmer was for two purposes. First to create an opposition to the present Senator and second to boom Col. Polk, the editor of the paper, for the place.
Much excitement prevailed in the neighborhood of the Watson place last week over the rampages of a mad cat, says the High Point Enterprise. The cat showed every sign of madness and after a very exciting scamp was succeeded in biting Fred Alford's boy and a cow. The wounds are painful and a mad stone has been sent for. Later reports from the cat are to the effect that several people have been bitten and the cat is still at large.
Dr. B. F. Dixon, superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, has been chosen by the board of directors of the Greensboro Female College to the presidency of that institution. The vacancy was caused by the recent death of Dr. T. M. Jones. The new president has been in charge of the Oxford Orphan Asylum for the past six or eight years and has been signally successful in the administration of that institution. He is about forty-three years of age, of strikingly fine physique, is a local Methodist preacher and is well calculated to fill the responsible position to which he is now called.

ANTIMIGRAINE.
—THE—
NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.
TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.
Cure Every Variety of Headache
AND NOTHING ELSE.
ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.
For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYNE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these, it is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.
The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.
DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
