A Modern Need for Sleep.

There is not one man or woman in 10,-There is not one man or woman in 10. one of the first state of the fir hours' sleep. Americans need more sleep than they are getting. This lack makes them so nervous, and the insane asylums so populous. If you can get to bed early then rise early. If you cannot get to bed till late then rise late. It may be as Christian for one man to rise at 8 as it is for another to rise at 6. I counsel my readers to get up when they are rested. But let the rousing belie rung at least thirty minutes before your public appearance. Physicians say that a sudden jump out of bed gives irregular motion to the pulse. It was not a drizzling, cold, unpleasant rain that makes everybody wish they were dead for the time being, but was as pleasant and refreshing a thunder shower as ever graced the mountains. And it did rain. The water seemed to come from the clouds in one unbroken stream rather than in the usual succession of drops. So heavy was the shower that Loretta hall, just bewond the depot from the hotel, could not se seen from the veranda of the latter. The lightning was particularly sharp, the thunder resembled more the heavy firing of artillery and all in all it was a abroken blue. The shower was over.
