THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
ONE thing is certain, the Czars of Russia is not likely to go broke this year. He owns 50,000,000 acres of land.
CHAUNCEY DEWEY has denied the rumor that the Vanderbilts have purchased the Union stock yards at Chicago. After the recent game in which an English syndicate got worsted so badly in a stock yard purchase at the windy city it is not likely that the Vanderbilts would care to indulge.
So far as Vance is concerned the un-called-for attack has done him no harm. On the contrary the condemnation by people and press from every part of North Carolina of the act of the Progressive Farmer has strengthened the senator and to-day Zeb Vance is more the idol of the tar heels than ever he was before.—Danville Register.
THE row over the World's Fair site at Chicago is still on. The city council has just passed an ordinance that if the commissioners fill in the proposed land along the lake front, at the conclusion it shall be turned over to the city, and this practically knocks that scheme in the head. Just what will be done now is a question. Nobody seems to know.
AND even the republican leaders are beginning to understand that the looting of the treasury is perhaps not all the people sent to Washington to do. Thomas B. Reed, speaker of the house of representatives, has issued his order that no more public building bills shall be heard this session. It would seem as if it were about time they were beginning to see the situation.
ONE of the eight democrats who absented himself from the house of representatives on a vote was taken on Lehl-back's amendment to the Force bill, has tried to shoot a newspaper correspondent who sent the dispatch to his paper. It's funny how some men squirm under the truth. The name of the infuriated law maker is Crain, he hails from Texas, and he is one of the few democrats who sold his party for a mint julep.
SENATOR VEST is another statesman who is like Senator Vance opposed to the sub-treasury bill. He has written a letter to his Missouri constituents in which he earnestly opposes it. He says: "The proposed legislation is antagonistic to all my ideas of our government. I am opposed to all laws which put the government into partnership with churches or individuals. The government should not be made warehouseman or auctioneer or banker. It is simply a governmental agency, whose powers and functions are limited and defined by the constitution, and I do not belong to that school which teaches that under the general welfare clause of the constitution congress can do anything." The mightiest brains in the country stand by Senator Vance while the only opposition comes from a little one horse organ—the Progressive Farmer.

THE reason for the failure of the Georgia watermelon trust has just come to light. It went under because the dealers were just a little sharper than the men who were at the head of the combination. The explanation given is that the melons were shipped to accredited agents in all of the large Northern cities to be sold wholesale by auction. The plan did not suit the ideas of the local dealers in Chicago and they quietly formed a counter combination. Accordingly, when the first Georgia melons were put up for sale there was only one bid—a wickedly low one—for the entire lot, and the melons had to go at that. Then the purchaser divided up the shipment with his fellow conspirators and they charged full prices to the small dealers and the public, thereby making immense profits. The plan was adopted elsewhere, resulting in the smashing of the melon trust. Georgia melons are now on a free market, with two weeks to run.
WHEN a few days ago THE CITIZEN called attention to Congressman Ewart's able speech in the house in opposition to the force bill, and intimated that it was made with one eye on the coming election it meant just what it said, and the fact that Mr. Ewart's own paper, the Hendersonville Times, is out in its last issue whining because such a motive was assigned shows clearly that THE CITIZEN prodded into a very sore place. It was the only paper in the South that attributed such motives to Mr. Ewart, says the article in substance.
Well, what of that? THE CITIZEN is glad it was sharp enough to see through the little game of Congressman Ewart even if it was alone, and it is with a great deal of pleasure that it thanks its republican contemporary for its complimentary saying that alone it saw through a bright scheme looking to the re-election of Mr. Ewart. And the beauty of it is, it is all so; isn't it, Mr. Times?
But THE CITIZEN is willing to do the square thing. If Ewart is nominated and does not use his speech as a campaign document THE CITIZEN will apologize for its insinuation if the Times will do the same in case that speech does go into the campaign.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.
TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.
Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.
ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.
For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTI-PYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.
The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.
DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
