DOORS OPEN AT 6 A. M.
A. D. COOPER,
Proprietor.

Our prices are always low, and particularly so on shoes, in comparison with shoe store prices, but we have determined in order to close out everything in the nature of a low quarter shoe, or slipper, to sell them so much below their value that you will save money to buy even for next year. Do not fail to see our line of Summer Shoes—you will be sure to buy.
We have Mason's Fruit Jars, at lowest prices—Jelly Tumblers at 35c. per doz.—Harper's Fly Traps at 18c. each—Hammocks from $1 up—Crocket Sets, all prices—and we are selling these goods, as we did last year, at prices away below anybody else in town. We have Ice Cream Freezers so cheap that everybody can have one (of the best makes, too), and, while ice is cheap, no dessert is less expensive.
Our stock of everything to use, or to wear, to adorn the parlor, or to lighten the work in the dining room or kitchen, is so complete that we cannot mention items. WE HAVE EVERYTHING, and no one thinks our prices high. You had always better try us for anything you want before buying, IF WE HAVE IT YOU SAVE MONEY, if not—well, we are pretty sure to have it—see, anyway.

Beautiful Linville, July 18.
The Linville Improvement Company held their annual meeting July 16th and the following officers were re-elected to serve during the ensuing year: Hugh MacKae, president and treasurer; S. T. Kelsey, vice-president and general manager; W. A. Lenoir, Donald MacKae and Thomas F. Parker, directors; E. Prosser Holsombe, secretary; J. R. Ervin, engineer.
Much work has been done in clearing and grading streets; great progress has been made during the past year in the growth of the young city, and many miles of fine road and pictureque drives have been built, one of which is now within a mile of the top of the magnificent Grandfather Mountain. This road is the finest in North Carolina and is not surpassed by any in this country for its excellent views and beautiful scenery.
Large numbers of guests are daily arriving at the handsome hotel recently built and depart delighted with the fine climate and magnificent scenery.
McBrayer-Deaver.
Dr. L. B. McBrayer, of the Western Hotel, of this city, and Miss Cordie Deaver, daughter of R. M. Deaver, mayor of West Asheville, were married yesterday afternoon at 7 o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Rev. W. A. Nelson, pastor of the First Baptist church. It was a quiet affair, only the immediate friends of the pair being present. Mr. and Mrs. McBrayer will make their home at the Western Hotel.

THE DAILY CITIZEN.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
The New York Saturday Review notes that not even Baby McKee in his halibut talks of a second term for Mr. Harrison.
The Gordon county, Georgia, farmers' alliance made a clean sweep at the recently held primaries. It was one of the most hotly contested elections held in years.
W. W. COTTRILL, who will be remembered as the playful and sportive mayor of Cedar Keys, Florida, has been arrested in Alabama. The inhabitants of his city will now breathe freely for the first time in weeks.
The war cloud is still floating in the eastern horizon. It is the way an exchange heads a Berlin dispatch. There is no news in this. That same war cloud has been hovering confidently over the east for the past decade. What would be of a nature surprising would be to hear that the cloud had burst.
ESPECIAL attention is called to-day to the letters which recently passed between Julian S. Carr, president of the North Carolina Association of Democratic Clubs, and Ed. Chambers Smith, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. They are of particular interest to young democrats. Do not fail to read them.

CHAUNCEY DEWEY has been hohobobing with Wales' old boy, and his opinion is that the prince knows how to throw off just enough of his majestic attributes to put his guests at their ease without descending to an over-familiarity that would spoil everything. But this cannot be taken as a whole. Dewey saw Albert Edward at his best. The latter no doubt recognizes that he was in the presence of a superior and treated him accordingly.
THE Murphy Bulletin lends color to the recent dispatches that have been sent from that town to Northern papers concerning Mrs. Gould, by not pronouncing them lies. However, it may not be amiss to remark that a woman who drinks whiskey and smokes cigars is not in any immediate danger of being obliged to have her dress made over to make way for her wings, although that is just the impression the special reports are intended to leave.
EVER at the front in the march of progress THE CITIZEN has begun a feature that cannot but be a benefit to all Western North Carolina resorts. The mountains are full of delightful places where a day or a week may be pleasantly spent, and the outside world should know them. With this idea in view THE CITIZEN will make a special feature of what is to be seen at the various places of interest in the mountains, how they are progressing, the improvements being made and just what the tourist may expect who intends to visit them. It cannot but be appreciated by everybody. The world ought to know just how the different resorts in this section are progressing. It is only right and proper that the people should be informed through the medium of Asheville's leading paper and THE CITIZEN intends to do it.

Over in New Jersey lives a doctor who has a daughter. There is nothing particularly strange about this, but this daughter has in her possession, or did have until a few days ago, a Confederate flag, and thereby hangs a tale. The young lady hung the emblem from her window and all day long passersby walked beneath the stars and bars. There was a kick as a matter of course, and even now the staid New Jersey people for miles around are protesting against what is called treason. The young lady has been ostracized by society and all in all the affair has quite turned the little town upside down.
A few days ago in the city of New York the flags of France and Italy were borne down the street by the striking clock makers, the bands played the Marseillaise and the people on the sidewalks took off their hats in respect to the foreign flags. If this is patriotism it is certainly a very queer thing.

GRAND CASTLE, Ind., July 21.—Confusion of orders caused two freights to collide near here. Both were wrecked, one engineer killed and five were wounded.

She Went in Bathing.
CAPE MAY, July 21.—Mrs. President Harrison went in bathing this morning near her cottage.
Left for Berlin.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW YORK, July 21.—The New York delegation of a hundred to the international medical congress left for Berlin to-day.

A Prohibition Convention.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
MADISON, Wis., July 22.—The State executive committee of the prohibition party met here to-day. The State convention will begin here to-morrow.
A Special Session.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 21.—The legislators are beginning to arrive and by to-morrow night, when the first caucus are to be held, all will be here. The session is called to submit an amendment to the electors by which Chicago will be allowed to issue five million in bonds in aid of the Columbian exposition.

A Magnificent Affair.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
BRUSSELS, July 21.—The ten days' fete here in honor of the sixtieth anniversary of Belgian independence began to-day. The pageant in the Sudder square to-day represents the glories of the sixteenth century and cost $60,000. The royal family held its celebration, a preliminary affair, yesterday.

IT BEGINS TO-MORROW.
First Day's Program of the W. C. T. U. Convention.
The opening sermon of the W. C. T. U. Assembly was to have been preached to-night, but Dean Wright being unable to reach Asheville before Tuesday, a change of program was necessary. The exercises of to-morrow will be as follows:
Nine a. m.—Devotional exercises; 9:30—Juvenile Work, Miss Anna Gordon, National Superintendent of Juvenile Work, instructor; 10—Parliamentary Drill, Mrs. Woody, instructor; 10:30—Mother's Meeting, Miss Willard, instructor; 11:30—Hereditry, Mrs. Hobbs, instructor; 12 Noon—Hour of Prayer, Question Box; adjournment.
AFTERNOON.—From 4 to 5 p. m. Miss Gordon will have a class of children to drill in lines of juvenile work.
EVENING.—Beginning at 8:30 o'clock in the opera hall will be delivered an address by Frances E. Willard.
There will be no admission fee, and the public are cordially invited to come and hear this most gifted woman.
The daily sessions of the "School of Methods" to be held in the college chapel are open to the public also, and all are urged to attend these business sessions and thus judge of the aim and scope of the W. C. T. U. After to-morrow, a standing feature of the morning's exercises will be the Bible studies by Dean Wright of Boston. Daily programs will be given through these columns.

Ten Thousand and Sixty.
The population of Asheville by wards, according to the new census, is as follows: East ward, 4,270; west ward, 5,790. The population of Buncombe county is 32,289. In 1880 it was 21,909.
Samuel Rhodes, of Fall River, Mass., is at the Glen Rock.
R. C. Comack and wife represent Atlanta at the Glen Rock.
Thos. M. White and Miss Lula White, of Anderson, S. C., are at the Glen Rock.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.
Winston claims to be without a single public bath house.
Joseph W. Gentry has been appointed postmaster at Gentry.
Charlotte has just formed a new building and loan association.
Hickory has 106 dogs in her limits, according to the census of the tax lister.
Judge E. T. Boykin, of the Sixth district, has been nominated for another term.
The first train on the Lynchburg and Durham railroad is no more a thing of the future.
In Moore county the census was so faulty that the enumerators have got to do it all over again.

The work on the Wilkesboro extension of the Northwestern railroad is being pushed with all vigor.
The Republican Congressional Convention for the Ninth district will be held on August 20th at Waynesville.
The Ninth District Judicial Convention, at Elkin, nominated W. W. Barber for solicitor on the eleventh ballot.
Scotland Neck is having a new hotel built and a bank will be opened in it as soon as the building is completed.

G. W. Goforth, of Cleveland county, has $30 in Confederate money which he received as his last pay in the war.
Epp Adams was killed by being crushed between two cars at Siler City. He was coupling them. His head was mashed to a pulp.
Henry R. Stewart, of Greensboro, was badly mangled by being crushed between cars he was coupling at Salisbury. He was taken to his home.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Western North Carolina Conference will meet in Salisbury on the 29th and 30th.
The Seventh District Convention at Laurinburg nominated Capt. James D. Mciver, of Moore county, for judge, and Frank McNeill for solicitor.
Owing to the low state of water in the river communication between Wilmington and Fayetteville by steamers has been stopped for several days.

D. Allen, of Charlotte, has just returned from Alaska. The country he describes is what he said to a newspaper reporter and then for a half hour he describes it to the best of his ability.
Mr. O. D. Boycott is a contractor, who is in the employ of the Greensboro Brick and Tiling company. He is from Norfolk, England, and a nephew of the man from whom the term boycott got its name.
Jacob Yokely while attempting to take a hog from a pen on his farm in Davidson county, was seized from behind by a sow whose teeth mangled Mr. Yokely in a terrible manner. He may not recover.

Will Adams, a baseball player of Greensboro, was struck on the head by a pitched ball in a match game and badly injured. He was unconscious for some time and the doctors fear concussion of the brain.
The negro George Wilson, who was held at Graham for assaulting his own daughter, made his escape from jail. Wilson has made a record as a jail breaker, this being the sixth time that he has made his escape from prison.

Rev. John Tillett, a prominent Methodist divine of Charlotte, has gone to his last reward. For fifty years he has been a member of the North Carolina Methodist conference. He passed away at the age of 78, loved by all who knew him.
The colored firemen of the State will hold their first tournament in Greensboro September 10 and 11, and at that time will organize their State association. A large crowd is expected to be present.
Collins, the Calhoun, Ga., wife murderer who was arrested in St. Paul, Minn., lodged in jail and although the feeling against him is general it is not thought that an attempt will be made to supplement the law.
The following losses, no insurance, resulted from a fire at Mt. Gilad last week: McKee & Leach, $1,800; Ingram & Haywood, $2,600; post-office building, $600; cash and stamps in post-office, $80; total $5,800.
North Carolina claims to have been the banner State of the Confederacy, and on a very strong argument to prove that she was. The voting population of the State in 1861 was only 115,000 and yet she equipped and sent to the field 125,000 fighting men.
A special meeting of the county commissioners of Guilford was held for the purpose of revising the tax lists, but as not a single applicant for a revision appeared before the board it is taken for granted that everybody is satisfied with the assessments.
The county commissioners of New Hanover county have offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of and sufficient evidence to convict the murderer of Nathan Falls, the old fisherman. Mayor Fowler, of Wilmington, has written to Governor Fowle asking him to offer a reward for the State.

ANTIMIGRAINE.
—THE—
NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.
TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.
Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.
ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.
For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIKINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients. The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding one thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
