Our prices are always low, and particularly so on shoes, in comparison with shoe store prices, but we have determined in order to close out everything in the nature of a low quarter shoe, or slipper, to sell them so much below their value that you will save money to buy even for next year. Do not fail to see our line of Summer Shoes—you will be sure to buy.
We have Mason's Fruit Jars, at lowest prices—Jolly Tumblers at 35c. per doz.—Harper's Fly Traps at 18c. each—Hammocks from $1 up—Croquet Sets, all prices—and we are selling these goods, as we did last year, at prices away below anybody else in town. We have Ice Cream Freezers so cheap that everybody can have one (of the best makes, too), and, while ice is cheap, no dessert is less expensive.
Our stock of everything to use, or to wear, to adorn the parlor, or to lighten the work in the dining room or kitchen, is so complete that we cannot mention items. WE HAVE EVERYTHING, and no one thinks our prices high. You had always better try us for anything you want before buying, IF WE HAVE IT YOU SAVE MONEY, if not—well, we are pretty sure to have it—see, anyway.

THE DAILY CITIZEN.

FACTS AND COMMENTS.

THE North Carolina University Magazine for July contains an interesting and able article from the pen of Col. J. D. Cameron on North Carolina 1780-'81.

THERE is a difference between a boom and a boomarang. A boom is like that Senator Vance is now enjoying. The Progressive Farmer can tell how a boomarang feels. A boomarang is a queer missile that hits the fellow on the nose who throws it.—Wilmington Messenger.

GIVE US RELIEF.
The action of the Board of Aldermen with regard to the street sprinklers has covered every individual member of that body with something many degrees removed from glory. Over a month ago they were informed that the old sprinkler was sold, but with a nonchalance decidedly refreshing, even if not intended to increase the comfort of the people who elected them to the offices they hold, they paid no attention to the fact that the city would soon be without a sprinkler and that king dust would rule. Finally, however, a committee was appointed to look into the matter and the latter unkind of the remonstrances being entered at every hand took their time in performing the duty imposed upon them. Meanwhile resident and visitor united in complaints to the various members of the Board but they paid no heed. At last the committee did manage to step to Mr. Swiggood's office and order the wagons. They were to be out in ten days, so a member of the Board of Aldermen told THE CITIZEN, but they are not finished yet.

The complaints have grown in number and volume until the climax was reached yesterday morning when a lady and gentleman came to THE CITIZEN office and asked that the paper advocate a village improvement society, of the kind so popular in the more Southern States, that would take the matter in its hands and see that the city had at least the advantages and conveniences usual to villages. The idea is not without its good points. Surely something must be done. Resorters do not care to come to town when a walk through the streets will leave them looking as if they had got down and rolled in a country road. That was just the way a number of ladies looked Sunday when they entered church, and nobody need carry the idea in their head that visiting ladies who ruin their dresses on the streets of Asheville just because the city will not supply street sprinklers will carry the impression of this delightful spot away with them that they would if the streets were kept in anything like a good condition.

It is a stinging and lasting disgrace to the fairest spot in the mountains that no more attention should be paid to the condition of its streets. Patton avenue yesterday morning was one cloud of dust, pedestrians walked up it with their hands over their eyes and all of the stores were closed. No more appeared on the streets than had to and that did not include any ladies.
It is high time something is done. An advertisement is now standing in THE CITIZEN asking those merchants who want advertisements on the side of the wagons to come forward at once. It might be remarked that if all that is lacking to complete the sprinklers is the advertisements, that Asheville's reputation is at stake and that the advertisers might wait until the dust of four long weeks was laid.

Not Yet Decided.
The Mayor and Board of Aldermen met at the National Bank of Asheville yesterday afternoon to consider the plans for the new city building. It was decided to submit them to J. A. Wagner and J. A. Tenney to have estimates as to the cost of each, made. A meeting will be held this afternoon to consult with the architects.

FIRST DAY'S MEETING.

THE W. C. T. U. BEGINS ITS NOBLE LABORS.

WHAT WAS DONE AT THIS MORNING'S SESSION.

Addresses by Different Members —To-morrow's Program—Some of the Prominent Visitors.
The Assembly for the Asheville School of Methods began its exercises 9.30 a. m. in the chapel of the Asheville Female College. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. M. S. A. Webb, of Savannah, Ga. After the singing of the hymn, "Come Holy Spirit," and prayer by the Rev. Dr. Cadwallader of Jacksonville, Fla., and husband of the president of the Florida W. C. T. U., Mrs. M. M. Wells stated the objects and privileges of the assembly, and mentioned that Miss Willard and Miss Anna Gordon would be present for a week, that Miss Mary Allen West, Dean Wright, Miss Griffin, and Mrs. Chapin would also be here.

After taking the names of the classes to be conducted during the session, Miss Anna Gordon, Assistant Supt. of the National Juvenile Department, gave a practical and charming address on juvenile methods. A striking point in her remarks was the advice to organizers of juvenile societies that the children should not be asked to take the pledge at their first meeting, but let them first secure the sympathy and consent of their mothers, as such a course disarms all opposition. Another good point was, never have a meeting on Saturday, curtailing the one holiday; nor on Sunday—as the day is full otherwise; but choose a week day. "Set the children to work," is the great secret of retaining their interest. Teach them to conduct the meeting themselves.

Mrs. Mary Woody, president of North Carolina W. C. T. U., succeeded Miss Gordon in a talk, not on matter, as she said, but on form; and gave a most practical, interesting address on "Method in Conducting W. C. T. U. Meetings."
Mrs. Hobbs, of Guilford College, N. C., made a most interesting talk upon the subject of heredity, a sensible mode of dress for girls, and girls' clubs for study, relating to health.
A question box answering many practical questions for the work followed the noonday hour of prayer. Mrs. Pease, of the Girl's Industrial home, was presented to the Assembly, also Mrs. Ray, who made the Asheville school of methods a possibility by the contribution of an extensive plot of ground for the erection of a building.

PERSONALS.
Miss Willard and Miss Gordon, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Kells arrived last week, and Mrs. Chapin, Miss Griffin and Mrs. Woody are expected on to-day's train. Of the two first mentioned it is not necessary to make further mention.
Mrs. Wells, of Chattanooga, is one of the national organizers of the W. C. T. U. and has scarcely an equal on the platform. She is now fresh from a four months' tour on the Pacific slope. She is president of the W. C. T. U. Assembly, over which she has come to reside at Asheville.

Mrs. Kells, a Mississippian, widely known in her state as an educator and now editor of the White Ribbon, one of the best papers in her native state.
Miss Griffin, of Montgomery, Ala., has been working as national organizer since last convention held at Chicago. She is regarded as the coming woman of the southland.
Of Mrs. Chapin, of Charleston, it is unnecessary to speak, her reputation, as a writer and a speaker, being world-wide, and her successful efforts as superintendent of the southern states, during the period of seed-sowing in the present reform, having given her the well-deserved reputation, which she still retains. At last national convention, she was added to the list of organizers in the "World's W. C. T. U."

Mrs. Woody, of Guilford College, is the adored president of the North Carolina W. C. T. U. She was elected president of her state at the meeting held in Greensboro in 1883 when Miss Willard wheeled the "Old North State" into line. By her true womanliness and her consecrated energies, Mrs. Woody has been the means of developing a grand state organization, despite the strong prejudice and inherited conservatism to be met in the women among whom she labors. In the National conventions, North Carolina's leader is a potent figure.
Other prominent workers are expected during the Assembly, being now delayed by previous engagements as lecturers, etc.

To-morrow's program is as follows:
MORNING.
9. Devotional Exercises, Mrs. Woody.
10. Young Woman's Work, Instructor, Miss Anna Gordon.
11. Bible Study, Dean Wright.
11.30. Purity in Literature and Art, Miss Willard.
12 M. Noonday Prayer.
MUSIC.
Question Box.
AFTERNOON.
Miss Gordon's Class of Young People.
EVENING.
Sermon by Rev. Alfred A. Wright, Dean of Chautauque School of Theology.

Shot at by Moonshiners.

Wm. Johnson, Jr., C. A. Webb, E. M. Bearden, J. K. S. Ray and J. B. Philbeck left Saturday morning for a two weeks' tramp through the mountains around Asheville. They returned yesterday. While near Craggy, the party was fired upon by three men, supposed to be moonshiners looking out for revenue officers. Johnston received one small shot on the thumb and one went through his hat.

The Sun has a slice of luck every now and then, and it comes like a streak of sunshine during a cloudy spell. This afternoon Wyatt Bros. had placed on our desk the finest catalogue we have seen this season. It looks perfectly elegant and the first chance we get, that catalogue is "a goner." He has a good supply of the same and we would advise you to get one for breakfast in the morning.—Durham Sun.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

The State Press meeting begins at Durham to-morrow.
The State encampment at Wrightsville begins to-day.
Chudhourn is raising funds for a brand new Baptist church.
W. W. Covington, a prominent Rockingham physician, is dead.

Dogs and pig pens are just now receiving the Raleigh aldermen's wrath.
Charlotte's Presbyterian church has just added 52 names to its membership list.
Oscar Spencer, a Greensboro newsboy, was bitten by a mad dog. A mad stone was applied.
Valleytown township, Cherokee county boasts that it has not a mortgaged farm in its boundaries.
A fire at the poor house near Raleigh destroyed the house of the farmer. About $600 will cover the loss.
Shelby, Rutherford and other points on the three C's road will include in an excursion to Charleston on July 29.
Two Charlotte men are under contract with an English syndicate to furnish them with a large amount of lumber. It is to be shipped from New York direct to Liverpool.

Between Wilmington, Morehead, Asheville, Mt. Airy and the Piedmont section, North Carolina is independent of the world as to summer resorts.—Fayetteville Observer
R. H. Recks, a tobacco planter in Nash county, had his crop damaged $5,000 worth by a recent hail storm. The damage to corn in that section amounts to fully that much.
W. A. Wilborn, a former graduate of Trinity college has forged the names of his employers in Washington and jumped the country. He left a wife and four children behind him.

The Twin City Daily says that Rev. Elisha Holland, of Goldsboro, is 85 years of age; and a heavy coat of black hair is beginning to grow on his bald head. At 80 he cut a tooth.
Six bottles of canned huckleberries that were lost over 50 years ago were recently found by workmen who were digging in an old cellar at Washington. Much of the fruit was well preserved.
Two strangers offered A. B. Lasky a drink from a jug near Murphy and he accepted. Several times he hit the flask by request but when he finally declined to indulge further the men fell upon him and severely beat him. The men escaped.

The Wilmington Star offers a bushel of goobers to the republican candidate in this State who will refuse to sign the alliance "demands" if they should be presented to him, and if the winner prefers them that way they will have them parched.
The Bertie county democratic convention places upon record its unqualified approval of and entire confidence in Vance's integrity of purpose in all official acts, and believes that "the interests of our State will be best subserved by his reelection to the United States senate."

A syndicate of Raleigh men have taken an option on a large tract of coal land in Chatham county. It will be thoroughly developed. The tract consists of 1,200 acres of fine coal land lying along Deep River. Coal is known to exist there in great quantities, and the quality is very fine.
The Guilford county Farmers' Alliance have resolved in favor of doubling the public school tax, and that some appropriation be made by the State for the higher education of women. They request that some action on the all important subject of education be taken at the next session of the general assembly.
Col. Anthony, of the Fourth Regiment of North Carolina State troops, has tendered his resignation to Governor Fowle. Col. Anthony recommended the Governor's disapproval of a petition of the Horner's Nest Riders to go into camp with the First and Third regiments, and the Governor paid no attention and granted the request. The resignation is the result.
A dispatch to the Atlanta Constitution says: "An important feature of the Grape Fair and Alliance Farmers' encampment to be held at Mount Holly, N. C., July 18th to August 2nd, will be the organization of a league, whose members pledge themselves to use as far as possible the products of southern manufacturers, of every kind. At every fair held in the South this year, such an organization should be made. Manufacturers of all kinds of goods should place samples at all these fairs and show the people how much the South herself produces for the necessities of her home life."
Tickets for the lecture at the Y. M. C. A. hall, Friday July 25th by A. T. Porter on "Palestine and the East" can be obtained at this office or from the ladies connected with the hospital.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache
AND NOTHING ELSE.
Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients. The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every three minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, if taken when first feeling the preliminary symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
