After stealing the usual amount of matter from THE CITIZEN the Hendersonville Times of the 24th, makes what we presume is intended for an attack on this paper for publishing a communication sent from Asheville to the Charleston News and Courier on Ewart's land loan bill. As is customary with papers of this kind it depends for its argument entirely on coarse lillingsgate, advances no points at all, and in fact by its silence on the question practically admits that the article of THE CITIZEN was correct. But we don't mind it in the least, and hope that if the Times enjoys the pastime its editor will keep right on stealing matter from THE CITIZEN with one hand while he writes alleged criticisms with the other.

Some of the immigrants who wander into the land of the free from European countries have ideas of their own about justice and how it is to be administered. At Smithfield, Pa., two Poles missed a trunk containing $45 and some clothing and later they found it in the possession of one of their countrymen. The latter protested his innocence but no heed was paid to it and he was dragged to a railway track near by, securely tied to the rails and left. The fellow may thank his stars that he escaped alive. In fact an engine was in ten inches of his body when it was stopped and he was liberated. Some of the scum of Europe who come to America to live give too liberal a translation to the term "a free country." There is no doubt two of that class imagine they had a perfect right to do as they did.

Mr. D. U. Lee in a communication in today's CITIZEN takes occasion to haul Congressman Ewart over the coals at a lively rate. His objection to the gentleman is that he is a traitor to the republican party, in that he has gone back on them in regard to the force bill. Mr. Lee is right. Mr. Ewart has proved a traitor to his party, and what he no doubt intended to be the foundation of a boom, may yet prove a boomerang. Ewart is trying to get democratic votes by posing as a republican who is opposed to the Lodge bill, but no democrat will be deceived by that for the entire democratic party is opposed to the bill and there are plenty of representatives in its own ranks to carry their banner. More than that the republican party is for it and it looks very much now as if Mr. Ewart in attempting to soft soap the democrats had mortally offended his own party, and that there are plenty like Mr. Lee who are prepared to knife him for a traitor.

The spiritualists are now said to be up in arms against President Harrison. A special dispatch from Newburyport, Conn., explains it as follows: "A short time ago Walter E. Reed, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was arrested on the charge of falsely using the mails. Reed is known as a medium for reading sealed letters; that is, he professes to be able to obtain from spirits answers to sealed inquiries addressed to the latter. The prosecutor was the postmaster general, Judge Jackson instructed the jury to find Reed guilty of fraud. Reed protested his innocence, and offered to prove that he was innocent by reading sealed letters taken and there in open court. Judge Jackson said that Reed's offer to do what he (Jackson) knew he could not do proved in his mind that Reed must be a fraud. He accordingly sentenced him to prison. Spiritualists think, waiving altogether the question of whether Reed is a fraud or not, Judge Jackson's action will be construed to establish a precedent against mediumship, and that it is a blow against personal liberty. President Harrison will be asked to pardon Reed, and if he refuses to do so, as it is intimated he will, the one million spiritualist voters in America will vote against Harrison and his party in 1892."

THE DAILY CITIZEN.
A GOOD NOMINATION.
In nominating George A. Jones of Macon to be the candidate for solicitor of the superior court of this district, the democratic convention in session at Bryson City have done themselves proud. There is no more popular young democrat in the district than he. He was born in Duncombe and spent the early part of his life here removing later to Franklin, Macon county, where he is one of the leading legal lights. A year ago he represented his district in the legislature and it is greatly owing to the brilliant record he made while there that he has now been chosen as the democratic candidate for solicitor. That he will be elected goes without saying. Everybody can unite on George A. Jones.
FACTS AND COMMENTS.
It is now said that President Harrison has been converted to Blaine's policy of reciprocity and that with the aid of some of the shrewdest politicians in the republican party a bill will be drawn up and an attempt made to rush it through the senate even at this late hour. It may go through the senate but there it stops. Thomas Brackett Reed, the house of representatives, has put his foot flat down and announced that he is "agin it," and when Reed does that the remainder of the republican party might as well go back in its hole.

New York's Sensational Murder.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
NEW YORK, July 25.—The inquest on the remains of Annie Goodwin, the young girl killed by Dr. McGeogal, was begun this afternoon. The body, which had been interred in a New Jersey cemetery under a bogus death certificate, has been exhumed and will be identified by friends and relatives. The coroner will admit only a few to the inquest.
LATER—The inquest fixed the crime on Dr. McGeogal. Thousands were about the Coroner's office.
To Republicans.
EDITOR CITIZEN:—I wish to give some reasons why Ewart should not be renominated for congress.
1. He is a deserter from his party (see paragraph 1, of the speech of June 28). He went into a caucus of his party, took part in it, and then refused to be governed by the majority rule of his party, marched into the ranks of the opposition and voted with them and not content with that charged his little blunderbuss with vituperation and fired back on us.
2. He has not only deserted but has belied and slandered his party in the grossest manner. Denounces Republican members of congress (see paragraph 2) as "devoid of manhood, sober judgment, a sense of fairness and justice." Of the Republican majority of the senate he says (see paragraph 13) they have either committed a great wrong or must admit they have been deceiving the people thereby making them hypocrites. This is the meanest thing he could say against any body of public men.
3. He has repudiated a vital principle of Republicanism and is opposed to any election law. In paragraph 2 he speaks of the states as "sovereign." In paragraph 32 he says, "This government does not exist to protect citizens in their rights, that duty belonging to the states," and in paragraph 34 he says: "Mind your own affairs and treat the colored man with wise neglect." This is not Republican doctrine but it is genuine Calhoun nullification states rights doctrine with the bark all on. He denies the right of the United States government to pass an election law or any other law to protect its citizens in the states.
4. Mr. Ewart says of the Republicans in the house that they have ignored their self-respect and manly pride, knowingly done things utterly wrong, formulated measures "damnable, illogical and vicious." Then by way of contrast he sets himself up as a sort of model. He has a conscience and obeys it, self-respect, manly pride, good sense, fairness and justice. Now if the Republican majority in Congress is such an "illogical, damnable, vicious" hypocritical set as he says and he the conscientious, manly, chaps, full of good sense and statesmanship he seems to say he is, then we should do him a great wrong to send him there, it might soil him, perhaps endanger his soul to be associated with such malevolent men and corrupt surroundings.
5. If he should get there he would be of no use to us as a Republican for he has already demonstrated that he will not affiliate with Republicans.
But who is this man who assumes with such arrogance to question his party? "Upon what merit has this great Caesar that he has grown so great?" that he does not hesitate to arraign the honor, the statesmanship and manhood of men who have grown gray in the service of their country, who did honorable and honored service in defence of their country both in the halls of legislation and in the field before and since he wore his first trousers. They have certainly as good a record for prudence and common sense as this great Caesar from Hendersonville has.
Respectfully,
D. U. LEE.

ANTIMIGRAINE.
—THE—
NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.
TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.
Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.
ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.
For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTHOPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.
The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.
DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, if taken when first feeling the preliminary symptoms, but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
