D., 1890. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand as clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe County, North Carolina, this 10th day of July, A. D., 1890. Clerk of the Superior Court of Buncombe County, N. C. July 29/90.

THE DAILY CITIZEN. FACTS AND COMMENTS. IF ANYBODY has an idea that Matt Quay intends to appear in this campaign only as a figure head he is entirely mistaken. The great republican loss has already begun the starting of newspapers in the Pennsylvania coal regions where he will attempt to draw the laborers from the democratic party. It is time that the friends of labor in Pennsylvania were on their guard. THE republican party, as it is organized and inspired, is a party of war, pestilence and famine. Its sectional policy is aimed at the destruction of the south. Its economic policy will surely bring ruin to the north. All that is required to fulfill its mission is time; and when the people of the United States awaken some fine morning to find their treasury empty, the south in flames and the wolf at the door, they will rise up even in New England and read the authors of their misery limb from limb.—Louisville Courier-Journal. WHAT a commentary it is upon the bill which Lodge of Massachusetts has prepared for the regeneration of politics, the purity of elections, the freedom of the ballot, that such people as Bill Chandler and Matt Quay and Tom Keel, every one of whom is or has been the beneficiary of political methods which, if applied in commercial circles, would have landed their user in jail, or deeper, are howling for it louder than anybody else in the country.—Kansas City Times. THE Cosmopolitan for August contains an article on National Guard Camps of Instruction, and in it is a description of the North Carolina encampment at Wrightsville with illustrations showing the general headquarters and the governor and his staff. It is of course interesting. Miss Hildan continues the interesting story of her flying trip around the world in this number. Professor Danato has a very interesting article on hypnotism and among the other contributors are Edward Everett Hale, Murat Halstead, Richard Henry Stoddard and others. It is certainly an exceptionally good number. SINCE the Farmers' Alliance has begun to take such an active part in the running of the government it may be of interest to many to know just what the principals of the organization were when it started years ago in Texas. They were as follows: Profoundly impressed that we, the Farmers' Alliance, united by the strong and faithful ties of financial and home interests, should set forth our declaration of intentions, we therefore resolve: 1. To labor for the education of the agricultural classes in the science of economical government, in a strictly non-partisan spirit. 2. To endorse the motto, "In things essential, unity; and in all things, charity." 3. To develop a better State, mentally, morally, socially and financially. 4. To create a better understanding for sustaining civil officers in maintaining law and order. 5. To constantly strive to secure entire harmony and good will among all mankind and brotherly love among ourselves. 6. To suppress personal, local, sectional and national prejudices; all unhealthful rivalries, and all selfish ambitions. 7. The brightest jewels which it garners are the tears of widows and orphans, and its imperative commands are to visit the homes where lacerated hearts are bleeding; to assuage the sufferings of a brother, bury the dead, care for the widows, and educate the orphans; to exercise charity toward offenders; to construe words and deeds in their most favorable light, granting honesty of purpose and good intentions to others, and to protect the principles of the Alliance unto death. Its laws are reason and equity; its cardinal doctrines insure purity of thought and life; its intentions are "peace on earth and good will toward men." THE Astor family are now posing before the country in a manner that clearly demonstrates that the original John Jacob might have left a few more brains and a little less money to his descendants and not hurt them at all. Just now the female members are at war over who is the "Mrs. Astor." Both families are at Newport and the momentous question has kept both from enjoying the season. A few days ago William Waldorf went to the postoffice and informed the postmaster that whenever a letter arrived for "Mrs. Astor" it should be sent to his house and then he wandered away with the consciousness of having performed a great and noble action. But when Mrs. William the elder heard of this little game, she too went to the postoffice and left instructions with the head of the department to forward any mail that might arrive there to her cottage. That is just where the matter stands. The families each threaten to appeal to the postmaster-general to have the matter decided and the sweet dove of peace cannot be said to be hovering anywhere near the tribes of Astor. Postmaster Van Cott of New York takes just the right view of the matter. "If any mail addressed to 'Mrs. Astor, New York,' comes here," he said, "it will go to the dead letter office just where it belongs. I would not consider that the address was complete without the street and number or initials of the party to whom it was addressed." But at any rate it is a whole lot of wind over a very small affair and it is something of which such intelligent people as the Astors should be heartily ashamed. A Full Account. THE WEEKLY CITIZEN of to-morrow will contain a full and accurate account of the terrible murder of Friday night last. It will be on sale at the counting room at 10 o'clock. JEANE HUGO, the granddaughter of Victor Hugo, is engaged to be married to young Daudet, son of the novelist. By her will, Mrs. Emily Pfeiffer, the English poetess, who died recently, leaves $315,000 to charitable and educational establishments for women.

IT WAS SHORT LIVED. THE BUENOS AYRES REVOLUTION SUPPRESSED. THE ATLANTIC SQUADRON PREPARING TO LEAVE. The Collision on the Chesapeake Not So Bad as Was at First Reported—The Leper Taken to a Place of Safety. Special to The Citizen. LONDON, July 29.—News from Buenos Ayres states that the insurrection has been suppressed. The government is in control. Only Five Really Killed. Special to The Citizen. BALTIMORE, July 29.—The latest report from the collision on the Chesapeake are to the effect that the first were exaggerated. Now only five are said to have been killed. Preparing to Leave. Special to The Citizen. BROOKLYN, July 29.—The Atlantic squadron is to-day preparing to leave for Central America. They Don't Like It. Special to The Citizen. LONDON, July 29.—Considerable of a sensation has been created in circles, which consider themselves as highly moral, by the announcement that the Princess Dolgorouki, the Morgantine wife of the Czar Alexander II, accompanied by Madame de Sianoff, will shortly arrive in England on a visit to the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh. The late Czar, it will be remembered, died with the name of the Princess on his lips, but this fact did not prevent the present Emperor from exiling her almost before the remains of his father had been committed to earth. The countenance given to the Princess by the English royal family, is not unlikely to create somewhat strained relations between the Russian and English courts. A Unique Gathering. Special to The Citizen. MORELAND, Ky., July 29.—A unique gathering began here to-day. It is the convocation of the Kentucky Holiness association, and will continue until August 2nd. Ten thousand people are on the ground and they are from all the protestant churches in the State. Mrs. General Fiske There. Special to The Citizen. PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—The great Pittman Grove, New Jersey, camp meeting opened to-day. Among those taking an active part in the gathering is Mrs. General Clinton B. Fiske, who will preside at several of the missionary assemblies during the week. The Delegation Divided. Special to The Citizen. POPLAR BLUFF, Ind., July 29.—The democrats of the second congressional district are in session here to-day. The delegates are evenly divided between Congressman Walker and J. H. Wear. The Dakota Editors. Special to The Citizen. DEADWOOD, S. D., July 29.—The South Dakota editorial convention began its labors here to-day. Elaborate preparations have been made for their entertainment. A Great Kentucky Fair. Special to The Citizen. HARRISBURG, Ky., July 29.—The great Harrodsburg Central Kentucky fair opened to-day. A Steamer Ashore. BEAUFORT, N. C., July 29.—The steamer Abernathy was stranded at Lookout Shoals, and is visible at half-tide. She is a source of great dread to the coaster doubling the cape. She lies on the outer edge of the diamond and cannot be seen until close aboard in five fathoms. Leprosy in New York. Special to The Citizen. NEW YORK, July 29.—What is said to be a genuine case of leprosy was discovered here to-day. The victim is the son of a noble family of Spain who has been going to the cemetery at Chester. For weeks he has been stopping at Spanish-American boarding house, in this city. Inspector Dillingham, who is familiar with leprosy, decided it to be a case of leprosy. Another man who occupied the room adjoining Garia's is ill and from symptoms it is thought that he has the dread disease. Health authorities this morning removed the leper to Pest Island. The section of the city in which the case occurred has been quarantined. The Vandal Caught. NEW YORK, July 29.—The police have a mysterious prisoner under arrest whose identity they refused to divulge. He is believed to be one of the vandals who have despoiled more than three hundred tombs in Holy Trinity cemetery on the outskirts of Brooklyn, of their zinc and gilded crosses and ornaments. NORTH CAROLINA NOTES. Mrs. Senator Ransom is at Blowing Rock. Governor Fowle is at the Wrightsville encampment. The grape crop around Raleigh is said to be enormous. Durhamsites will enjoy an excursion to Asheville on August 11. Kinston men are talking of establishing a paper box factory at that place. Henderson has voted in favor of a subscription to the Nash county railroad. The subscription for the soldiers' home at Raleigh has reached the $4,000 mark. Waddell is a new postoffice in Rockingham county. Walter S. Irving is postmaster. Raleigh claims to be eating spoiled meat and vigorously demands a meat inspector. A Raleigh man has offered a prize of $10 to the farmer who brings in the first bale of cotton. John W. Thompson is said to be the strongest candidate for the position of clerk of the superior court of Wake. A Northern syndicate has purchased 200 acres of land near Tarboro and will improve it and sell it for building lots. J. J. Reed has been appointed postmaster at Little Creek, Madison county, to take the place of H. A. Holcombe, resigned. A negro tramp arrested in Weldon last week made his escape and while stealing a ride on a freight train had his arm cut off by a car wheel at Balfield. G. H. Shaw, of Bladenboro, dug thirty-three feet for a well and got it in the shape of one of the flowing variety, strongly impregnated with sulphur. The residence of J. L. Baldwin, near Mangum, Rockingham county, was entirely consumed by fire. There was no insurance and in consequence the loss was very serious. Wake county prohibitionists are beginning to organize and the democrats are afraid that it is for the purpose of drawing the strength from their own party. A colored boy, living on Mr. John Aldridge's place, about one mile from Kinston, was killed by a horse while trying to drive him in the stable. He died the next morning. Mrs. M. M. Randolph, of Jackson, N. C., has gathered from one limb three tomatoes closely clustered together of the aggregate weight of fifty-eight ounces. One of them weighed 14, another 19 and the other 24 ounces. Mr. William Skipper, of Brunswick county, was held up by highwaymen at Wilmington and robbed of several dollars in money. On the same night Mack Taylor, colored, was brutally beaten by six men and robbed of $4. Miss Cora Watts, daughter of ex-Sheriff Watts, of Irredell, was bitten by a spider and for a while her life was despaired of. A physician was called in and succeeded in neutralizing the effects of the poison and she recovered. The Mecklenburg county convention passed a resolution stating that they had full confidence in the integrity, ability and patriotism of the Hon. Z. B. Vance and urge his re-election to the position he now fills with so much honor and credit to himself and the State. The track of the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina railroad has been laid from Wilmington to Snow Run, a distance of twenty-three miles, and two trains are now running to and from that place every day. Sunday excepted. Dennis Horne, a Wilmington colored man who was arrested last June charged with highway robbery has been acquitted. He was convicted, however of an assault on Alex. Moore. The assault was committed with intent to rob. Julia Graddy, aged 9 years, a daughter of Mr. J. C. Graddy, fell twenty feet from a window of the second story of Bluff mills, Cumberland county. Strange to say, no bones were broken, but the child was terribly bruised about the face and arms. The residence of Mr. Robert Robbins, in Southport, was struck by lightning all the rooms in the house being more or less damaged and the occupants nearly smothered by the sulphurous smoke. The heavy rain previously saved the building from catching fire. Wm. Wallace, an 80 year old man was found dead in a field near his house. The woods caught fire and fearing his dwelling would be destroyed, he started after his son, who lived not far away. The day was very warm and the old gentleman was running. It is supposed that he was overcome by the heat and fell dead. The North Carolina Press Association has elected Joseph P. Cadwell, of Statesville, president. The vice president chosen were: Captain S. A. Ashe, of the News and Observer; W. W. Scott, of the Lenoir Topic, and Robert Haydn, of the Charlotte Chronicle. John B. Sherrill, of the Concord Times, was unanimously chosen to be secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be at Winston-Salem. It has been decided to make a test case of the decision of Judge Whitaker that he had no authority to hold Rockingham court in place of Judge Shipp, deceased and the Solicitor of the district has been instructed to make out the case on appeal to test the constitutional question involved. Messrs. Battle and Mordecai have been retained by the Governor in behalf of the State. A man by the name of Shinall has disappeared from Mt. Airy and cannot be found. He was last seen with Percy Fry and Joe Tilley, gambling in a church near town. Evidences of a bloody fight were found in the church. Fry claimed that he and Tilley had fought over a game of cards and that the blood came from wounds he had inflicted with a knife, and that Shinall was not present and he knew nothing of his whereabouts. Fry has been arrested but Tilley escaped. Sam Porter, of Greene county, harbored a woman of bad reputation and twenty-five of his neighbors went over to see him about it and argue him out of his wicked ways. Porter came up with a Bowie knife and revolver and his death was very sudden. A man who was employed on the place and who saw the killing was tarred and feathered and warned to leave the place, and return only when he had decided that he cared to live no longer. He went, and the surrounding country is aroused over the affair, although nothing has been done.

MISCELLANEOUS. ANTIMIGRAINE. —THE— NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE. TRADE MARK REGISTERED. ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY. Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE. ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without. For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYNE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients. The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known. DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
