CALL FOR A MEETING. NOW, LADIES, ARE YOU IN

If 80, Name a Place and a Day to Meet for the Discussion of the Bervant Girl Question and to Act on It, so That Peace May Reign

Once More. EDITOR THE CITIZEN :- It does not take any one with two eyes to see that you are a champion for the ladies. Thanks for the sly punch you gave "Observer." You know how to reprove without giving offense.

I am sorry for "Observer." His fate i a sad one-to have lived forty years and known but four good housekeepers. am like Owen Mertdith:

"We may live without poetry, music or art; We may live without conscience, we may live without heart; We can live without love, we can live with-out hooks, But civilized men cannot live without cooks.

"He may live without books, for what is knowledge but grieving."
He may live without hope, for what is hope but decring?
He may live without love, what is passion but prime?

out pining? t where is the man that can live without dining?"

"Observer" must be a he-housekeeper, which is as great an anomaly as a shedude. I could say much to knock his theories entirely in the head, but I think his own acknowledgment throws him entirely out of our reach. If he is so unformally with a milk of the country of the count familiar with good housewifery, he is un-doubtedly unfit to lead us up higher; and I leave him to his fate, totally unconscious of the many good things in life that be

I can see that "Progress" knows what she is talking about. She has suffered, and "it is the fellow feeling that makes us wondrous kind." In some respects. I also see, she does not understand the southern laborer, but she has the desire to help on the good cause, and as such I'll dially welcame her as a fellow. I'll gladly welcome her as a fellow

What do you say, Mr. Editor, to a called meeting for Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, September 5? Then let us see how many women in Asheville are willing to give their help and influence to a cause, that, if properly managed will give us much relief from evils under which we now suffer.

Let Due.

[With this letter the servant girl discussion is closed except as to actual action, if any be taken, by the ladies. As t a place of meeting. THE CITIZEN suggests that "Ich Dien" rally her friends at the house of some lady interested and give notice thereof in THE CITIZEN that "Pro gress" (and perhaps " bserver") may at tend. Suggestions are in order now ED. CITIZEN.

AT WEAVERVILLE.

Rain-Weather Prospect-Conjur ed-Personals.

Weaverville, N. C., August 28,-Fr the last twenty-four hours a general ran has been falling in this community. On local weather prophet says he knew the rain was coming as a party had gone to Craggy. This prophet of ours never misses it; he said we would have warm weather in June—and we did; and now he says there is likely to be cold weather this winter. A certain "fourteenth amendment" in this community has been ill for sometime.

this community has occur in resonancing. His friends thought he had been conjured, so a "brother," who said he could remove the "hoodoo" was called in. The "doctor" said he must have two silver dollars to "bile." He pretended to put these into a tin cup on the stove, but the money is gone, as well as the doctor. The patient is improving.

Mr. E. M. Goolsby, of the treasury de partment at Washington, is here for short vacation.

Prof. M. A. Yost, president of the colege, arrived this afternoon with his bride nee Hoofnagle, of Abingdon, Va. Mr. R. T. Pickens of Yadkin College, N

C., is visiting relatives and friends.
We are sorry to note that R. H. Mc
Cluire is very low with fever.

LET THE LADIES ATTEND.

Carriages Will be Placed at Their Bervice To-Morrow. As the lots to be offered at the great auction sale beginning to-morrow are residence lots, and many Asheville ladies have expressed a wish to see them and be present at the sale, carriages will be present at the sale, carriages will be placed at their disposal by the manage-ment, and a special invitation is given them to attend. Carriages and buses will be in readiness on the Court Square to convey all who wish to go upon the ground, and if any lody prefers to have a carriage sent to her house, an order left at the office of Atkinson & Sons will se-

The Ravenscroft School.

An impression probably prevails to some extent that the recent death of Mrs. MacDonald, the wife of the principal of the above institution, will influence the movement of Mr. Maci onaid in connec-tion with it. We are authorized to say that there will be no change in its management, and it will be continued as heretofore under present conditions. The loss of the matronly supervision of Mrs. McDonald will be appropriately sup-

Change of Schedule.

By a change in the Righmond and Danville railroad passenger train schedule, taking effect Sunday August 31, the west bound train which formerly left Asheville at 8.08 a. m. now leaves at 7.30 a. m. and the Murphy branch train at 7.35 a m. instead of 9.10 as formerly.

Grand Gala Week.

Big crowds are already coming in, and by to-morrow the city will be crowded. The first thing on the program will be the contests by the rifle clubs. The shooting will begin to morrow morning at nine o'clock at Hildebrand's brick yard, three hundred yards north of the terminus of the Camp Patton street car

The first prize shot for will be one hundred dollars in gold, given by Capt. V. E. McBee of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company.

The following teams were entered and

The following teams were entered and will be on the grounds:
Columbia team, Sumpter team, Lambridge team, Wilmington team, Richland riffes, Chandler team, Busbee team, Black Mountain team, Asheville team No. 1, and Asheville team No. 2.

Benches will be provided for the use of ladies and the best of order will prevail.

Por this week only at the Crystal Palace you can get a 131 piece Haviland & Co. China Dinner Set really worth $60 for $45; two 56 piece Haviland China Toilet Sets 12 pieces reduced 25 per cent. from price. If you let this offer pass by, you will always regret it, as they are bargains worth seeking after. Thad. W. Thrash & Co., 41 Patton avenue, under Grand opera house.

SOLID BUSINESS MEN'S SOLID TALK.

All It Needs Now is for Some Enterpr. 'ug Spirits to Take the Lead, and Asheville Will Have a FOR RENT. Fair to be Proud of.

THE CITIZEN interviewed several of the solid men of the town yesterday on the subject of having a Western North Carofina fair as proposed by THE CITIZEN Monday. Everybody seen was heartily in favor of it and thought it would be a helpful thing for the town.

Mayor Blanton said: "Yes I am in favor of it, or anything in the way of amusements that will draw people from outside. It would be a splendid thing for the town. I think the best location for it would be just this side of the Sulphur Springs, on the Jarrett place. That is a good level country and the electric cars will be running out there before

Mr. W. A. West said: "Splendid! If we could work it so as to have the interstate drill and shooting contests, and the fair at the same time, it would do this city and the country around a wonderful amount of good. I think the only drawback would be in taking care of the crowds. Yes, I think either the Sulphur Surines country or Pearson's or out Springs country or Pearson's, or out Merrimon avenue, would be a good loca-

Lewis Maddux said: "I hadn't thought anything about it, but it couldn't help being a good thing. Of course we would have to have a large level piece of ground, and it would have to be near town, or else connected by railway, and even then not too far out. The fair and the interstate drill in unison would draw immense crowds and that is what we want." Frank Snider said that of course he was in layor of it. Anything that would draw the crowds would help the city. The hotels, boarding houses, groceric and all the enterprise would be bene
