Gentlemen:—I am desirous of expressing my most sincere thanks, and exalted opinion of your Pine Needle Cigars as a remedy for Nasal Catarrh and Bronchitis, both of which troublesome diseases I have suffered with for nearly two years, and experienced no relief until I had the good fortune of learning of your most valuable remedy. Since their use I have received marked relief and consider myself entirely cured. I also might state that I recovered no unpleasant effect while inhaling the above named remedy.

Yours respectfully, IDA WAGONER.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN TO-DAY.

TARIFF ON COTTON GOODS CONTINUED.

THE RATE ON FLAX REDUCED, YEAS 32, NAYS 14.

GREAT BRITAIN AND MOUTH AMERICAN MARKETS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—In the senate to-day the tariff bill was taken up and Senator Butler presented a communication from the state department showing the relative exportations of cotton goods by Great Britain and the United States.
He thought that the information might be valuable in view of the reciprocal propositions made.

Senator Hoar referred to a statement which he had recently read in the autobiography of an English gentleman, (a Mr.
Glover) to the effect that cotton manufacturers who had been traveling extensively through the United States said that if it were not for the American tariff, England would shut up every American cotton manufacture within two years.

Senator Butler said he did not know anything about that, but he had been very much gratified and encouraged to see his republican friends enlarging their economic vision somewhat in reaching out to South America, Central America, Canada and other parts of the world and he had thought that the information presented by him might be of service.

It showed how absolutely Great Britain had control of the market in South and Central America and absolutely in Asia and Africa. The value of the cotton goods exported into those countries by Great Britain last year was $177,- 000,000, against about $20,000,000 from the United States.

The sugar schedule was then laid aside, and schedule L, cotton manufacturers, was taken up. Amendments to reduce rates in various paragraphs of the schedule were offered by Senator McPherson, Carls, and Vance, and were uniformly rejected.

Senator McPherson moved to strike out paragraph 345 relating to stockings, hose and hosiery, and to substitute for it one making the rate of duty 40 per cent. ad valorem. Rejected—yeas 20, nays 27.

Senators Paddock and Plumb voted with the democrats in the affirmative.
Neither Senator Lodge nor Senator Manderson voted. All the paragraphs in schedule L, having been disposed of, schedule I was taken up relating to flax hemp, jute and their manufactures. The finance committee had reported an amendment to paragraph 344, reducing the rate on flax not packed or dressed from 15 cents per pound to 20 per cent.
On this amendment Senator Washburn demanded the yeas and nays. A vote was taken and the committee amendment was agreed to, yeas thirty-two, nays fourteen.

All the democrats voted yea. The negative votes were given by Senators Allen, Cameron, Casey, Davis, Dolph, Higgins, McMillan, Moody, Paddock, Pierce, Sherman, Stockbridge, Washburn and Wilson, of Iowa.

Collapse of a Bridge Covered PRAGER, September 4.—A bridge in this city over the Moldan, on which were a large number of persons watching the flood in that stream, collapsed to-day, and thirty of the sightseers were drowned.

The Public Building Bills.

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Before leaving the capital Speaker Reed received the protest, which has been drawn up by members who are indignant because the numerous bills for the erection of public buildings have been pigeon-holed by order of the speaker. In their protest the dissatisfied members, including both democrats and republicans, threaten big things unless the speaker consents to call a meeting of the committee on rules and set aside a day for the passage of these bills.

The Carpenters' Strike.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—There are less than seven hundred carpenters who refused to go to work on Tuesday morning, still out. There is confusion and chaos in rank and file and consternation among the leaders. The employers assert that they now have all the men they want.

Still Favor Women Suffrage.

JACKSON, Miss., September 4.—The conmittee has decided unanimously to vote as a unit in favor of its report on the suffrage question.

CLERGY AND CHURCH.

Rev. J. D. Hulham has been quite sick.
Rev. Dr. C. T. Bailey tells me he has recovered and resumed his ministerial work.
Mr. Thomas Hulham, his son, is now president of Mars Hill college, near Asheville.—Raleigh Correspondent.

There was a very enjoyable revival of religion held at Indian Springs, Wayne county, last week, and twenty-four persons were added to the Methodist church there. The pastor, Rev. M. D. Hix, conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. J. D. Carpenter and Mr. Wright.

North Carolina has some very fine preachers—among the best we have heard of. One of these, Rev. Dr. Marable, filled the pulpit of St. Andrews Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, and preached one of his clear, forceful, impressive, analytical, most interesting sermons for which he is justly distinguished. His subject he was Isaiah, and the discussion growing out of it was well nigh perfect. No one who heard it will probably ever forget the acuteness, the vividness, the lucidity of the character drawing. It was admirable work—artistic, strong, Scriptural, unique, and distinctly animated.—Wilmington Messenger.

THE INTER-STATE SHOOT.

Scores Made Yesterday Afternoon and To-Day.

The shooting in the Inter State rifle contest was kept up until nearly dark last night and was then stopped until 9 o'clock this morning. The twenty shot contest for the McLee $100 prize, which was begun yesterday morning, was broken into in the afternoon. This was done because some of the members of the South Carolina team were compelled to leave for home this morning on account of business, and their teams wished to shoot in the ten shot contest for the $100 prize offered by the Asheville team. In the ten shot contest, the military teams are allowed to add 6 per cent. of their score in order to make up for the difference in the rifles used. The score of the Columbia team in this contest was as follows:

Primary Election.

In obedience to instructions given by the democratic committee assembled in Asheville, August 23d, there will be held on September 27th at the different voting places in Buncombe county, a primary election by the democratic voters of the same, to determine the choice of the party for positions of senator, representatives, clerk of the superior court, register of deeds, sheriff and coroner. Let every democrat be present and vote his choice in this important matter and thereby prevent any discontent in our ranks in the coming election. The place and instructions, together with the judges' names, will be published in next week's paper.

Invited President Harrison.

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Auditor Lynch and Recorder Bruce accompanied a committee of gentlemen from Richmond, Virginia, for the purpose of inviting the President to attend the emancipation celebration in that city next October. The President said he hardly thought he would be able to accept it.

The Andersonville Flag.

ALMOND, N. Y., September 4.—S. S.
Kurt, of this village, says he was the last Union prisoner to leave Andersonville prison. He secured the flag which had been so long floated over that prison and has it still in his possession—probably one of the most interesting relics of the civil war.

HE DENOUNCED QUAY.

A GREAT SENSATION IN THE HOUSE.

KENNEDY, OF OHIO, CAUSES IT.

HE SAYS, IN EFFECT, THAT QUAY SHOULD HANG HIMSELF.

WASHINGTON, September 4.—In the Clayton-Breckinridge election case in the house yesterday, Mr. Quay, of Iowa, and Kelly, of Kansas, argued in favor of the majority report and Mr. Outwater in support of the right of the sitting member to his seat, and then came the sensation of the day. Mr. Kennedy, of Ohio, made a fiery attack upon the senators who have been opposing the Lodge bill.
For himself, he said he must forever dissent from the cowardly surrender which hurls down the flag and strikes the colors of the republican party to the defeated foe.

Continuing, he said: "That the election bill has been killed by republicans or pre-
