WEST WARD CLAIMS IT.

AND WEST WARD SHOULD HAVE IT.

Citizens Name Their Preferences and in Each Case, Almost, He is a Man From That Part of the City Not Now Represented.

At the next meeting of the Aldermen, a successor to Lawrence Pulliam will be chosen. The west ward has not been represented in the council, and THE CITIZEN ascertained the opinions of several business men on the subject, and what man was preferred by each.

Mr. W. P. Snider said: "I think the west ward should be represented. It has more population than any other ward, and contains nearly all of the manufactories. I think that Mr. M. J. Bearden would make a good man for alderman from that ward."

Capt. J. P. Sawyer said: "The west ward should have a representative by all means. I think Mr. R. L. Graham would make a first rate man for the place. He is a good business man and is not interested in anything that would influence him in the discharge of his duties."

Mr. W. H. Ballard thought that the west ward should be represented. He had no preferences.

Dr. T. C. Smith said: "I have no decided preferences but think W. H. Penland would be a good man for the west ward."

Foster Sondley said: "I don't care whom they elect, so long as he is an honest man, and one who can't be twisted around anybody's finger."

Mr. A. T. Summey said: "The west ward should certainly have a representative. That ward has 1,500 more voters than any other and I think it is entitled to have some voice in the way things are managed. I have no preferences."

Mr. S. D. Pelham said: "The west ward should have an alderman. I prefer Mr. N. P. Chedester. He is a live, public spirited man, and a pusher."

Mr. N. P. Chedester said: "I think Mr. J. M. Ingle would make a good man in that position."

Mr. B. H. Cosby thought the west ward should have an alderman, and preferred W. H. Penland.

Mr. C. A. Raysor thought that Mr. A. T. Summey would make a good alderman from the west ward.

Mr. J. H. Weaver said he thought the west ward was entitled to an alderman and he preferred either R. L. Graham or W. H. Penland.

Mr. A. B. Williamson said he was not a resident of the west ward, but that it was no more than right that the west ward people should have a man in the council. He thought M. J. Bearden would be a good man for the place.

Mr. W. C. Carmichael had no preferences, but thought the west ward should be represented.

Mr. J. M. Heston said: "I think the west ward should have a representative and I think that Mr. G. L. McDonald would make a good officer."

Capt. Wm. Cocke did not have any decided preferences, but his opinion was that Mr. J. B. Bostic would be about the right man.

Mr. R. McBrayer said that the west ward should be represented, and that any good man would suit him.

Mr. A. D. Cooper said: "I think the place should be given to a west ward man. Either Bostic, Penland, or Ingle would fill the position satisfactorily."

Mr. S. R. Kepler's opinion was that the west ward should have an alderman, and that Mr. M. J. Bearden was his choice.

Mr. P. A. Cummings said: "The west ward should be represented. I prefer either Mr. H. T. Collins or Mr. T. C. Brown."

This Horrid Man Would Look.

From the Wilson Mirror.

No, Ella, a lady cannot climb a fence and maintain a sweet and placid flow of expression, or preserve that entrancing poetry of motion which characterizes her graceful carriage on the street. On the contrary, Ella, a look of dark despair and wild dismay settles on her countenance when she is confronted by that terrible, fear-provoking and unanswerable conundrum, "How am I to climb that fence and get all of myself entirely over?"

It baffles the skill and tries the ingenuity of the most inventive ones of the sex and only the boldest will dare essay its solution. They can't tell exactly which foot to start first or which one to leave behind, and so they make an effort to carry both at the same time, and that is exactly where the trouble begins. We saw two sedate, dignified ladies "try it on" the other day, and later we saw a beautiful maiden repeat the trial and it was a terrible misfit all around. All got over, but how they did is to us a mystery still unraveled, and will be until the secrets of this world's movements will be disclosed in the great hereafter.

A Great Scheme.

We call attention to the advertisement of Skyland Springs where Mr. Miller offers $100 in board at either hotel in Skyland virtually free. This is a novel way of bringing into notice a new resort, and while it is a very liberal offer it will pay in the end, as all judicious advertising will. This offer has already crowded both hotels at Skyland Springs and brought into notice the fine mineral water.

CONCRETE WALKS.

As it is important to use only the best material for Sidewalks, I have arranged to keep in stock and use in my work the celebrated "Pommerscher-Stettin Anchor Brand" of German Portland Cement, which is used largely for that purpose, and in preference to many other kinds, in New York, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Detroit, New Orleans, St. Augustine and other cities. Letters from these places showing it to be much superior to the brands ordinarily used here, and testimonials as to its superior quality will be shown to anyone interested.

Compound Oxygen and Medicated Balsam Vapor has proved more successful in the treatment of diseases of the nose, throat and lungs than all other remedies combined. It seldom fails in any case of Asthma. We have cured many people in the four years we have been in Asheville who had given up all hope. Call at our office and we will give you their names.

We also make a specialty of diseases of the rectum. If you are afflicted with Piles come and get relief. No pain or loss of time from business. Relief obtained at once, and no return, as we make a radical cure.

BALSAM AND OXYGEN HOME TREATMENT.

We have a home treatment that is very effective in all diseases of the air passages. We have prescribed hundreds of these home treatments and sent them in every State in the Union and some wonderful cures have been obtained.

A small pamphlet, descriptive of Asheville and also explaining our treatment, sent free on application. Also a list of questions goes with each pamphlet that everyone should have before sending for home treatment. The questions when properly answered enable us to make a correct diagnosis of each case.

We have treated many hundred cases with the Compound Oxyden and Balsam and have never had a case to have hemorrhage from lungs after taking the treatment.

Don't let your prejudice keep you away, but come and examine for yourself. Better sacrifice prejudice than your life. Consultation free.
