Department unequaled in Pennsylvania May Go Democratic

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19 .- It is a very common remark that if the election could Equipment. Don't Mistake be held to-morrow Pattison would have a majority of not less than 50,000. This would be a remarkable result in a state that gave Harrison 79,280 majority only two years ago, but still no more remark-able than is the present state of affairs. From an impartial view of the situation Pattison's election seems no less certain in November than if the votes were to be cast tomurrow. This will be brought in November than if the votes were to be cast tomorrow. This will be brought about by the wide-spread revolt against Quay in the republican ranks and by the splendid showing which the democrats will make of their strength. Never was a party more fortunate in its leader than is the democracy of Pennsylvania in having ex-Governor Pattison as its candidate, and rarely have the republicans been so handicapped as they are with Delamater. Not only his subserviency to Quay and Not only his subserviency to Quay and his vulnerable record, but his lack of individuality and force make him about the weakest candidate that could have been out up.

Quay is really trightened over the out look. He will make every effort to pur Delmater through, and money will b spent like water. It was his anxiety to get funds for this purpose and his desire to come back from Washington and take It was his anxiety to personal charge of the campaign that led him to oppose the force bill. Mindful of es to the manufacturers wh harrison's election in 1888, he pushed the tariff bill forward, and doubtless for his efforts is already receiving contribu-tions to oil the wheels of his machinery. It is a life and death struggle for Quay.

THE ARREST OF DILLON.

There Was No Cause for it Appar ent to Everybody.

LONDON, Sept. 19.-The arrest of the Irish leaders yesterday filled a conspicu ous place in the newspapers throughout the United Kingdom this morning. Various explanations are surmised to ac count for Secretary Balfour's sudden stroke. The commonest one on the part of the liberal press is that its object was to prevent Dillon and O'Brien from going to America to arouse American sympathy and solicit aid.

The conservatives scout the idea that Balfour could have acted from such a small motive. They see in his oresent policy a laudable effort to prevent the recurrence of disorder in Ireland. On the whole one gets the impression that the predominant public opinion is so far extremely doubtful of the wisdom or extending to the programment's course in the convenience. pediency of the government's course the matter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.-The confer ence on the tariff bill this morning did not touch upon sugar, binding twine or the tariff. It is said the metal schedule is really the principal obstacle to an agreement by the republican conferees, the senate conferees insisting on its amendments lowering the duties and the house conferees insisting on the restora-tion of duties in the bill as it passed the this count. He asked the speaker to order tellers to verify the count. Speaker Reed said that he had taken great pains in the count and had no doubt about its correctness.
