

To a certain extent general advertising creates a want. It announces new things and familiarizes the public with old ones.

THE DAILY CITIZEN. By RANDOLPH-KERR PRINTING CO. THE DAILY CITIZEN, Democratic, is published every afternoon (except Sunday) at the following rates—strictly cash.

THE DAILY CITIZEN is on sale at the following places in Asheville: CITIZEN OFFICE, BATTERY PARK NEWS STAND, GLEN ROCK NEWS STAND, MODEL CIGAR STORE, FARMER AVE., CARSON'S NEWS STORE, North Court Square.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1890.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES. For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court: HON. A. S. MERRIMON.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court: HON. WALTER CLARK.

FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE: 1st district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr. of Beaufort.

FOR SOLICITORS: 1st district—J. H. BROWN, of Perquimans; 2d district—J. M. FORZANO, of Halifax.

FOR CONGRESS: 1st district—W. A. B. BRANCH, of Beaufort; 2d district—B. F. GRAY, of Duplin.

Hunt Him Out. There is a newspaper "fakir" at Charlotte who is doing the state and the democracy much harm.

"The attempt made by the farmers' alliance of North Carolina to create an anti-Vance sentiment has thus far proved more successful than they had hoped for."

"The western portion of North Carolina there has recently been established a newspaper which supports Col. L. L. Polk for senate and Ewart for congress."

"The alliance say they are willing to ally themselves with the blackest republicans to gain their point."

"The western portion of the state there has recently been established a newspaper. This must refer to the anti-Farmer and Mechanic, a tri-weekly that, as the old joke has it, comes out one week and tries to come out week after week."

"The alliance say they are willing to ally themselves with the blackest republicans to gain their point!"

On the subject of bonding the city for the improvement of the streets and sidewalks and the possible extension of the sewerage system, Mr. Richmond Pearson makes one observation in THE CITIZEN to-day that will strike the taxpayer with no little force, we believe; and that is this: "The city is better able now to stand an increase of $160,000 than it was to stand the first issue of $40,000 in 1883."

It is about time, by the way, that those opposed to this plan of improvement—if there be any such, should make known the objections.

It is a matter for congratulation that Col. Cameron had so large and appreciative an audience as he did to hear his essay on "The Poets of North Carolina."

If our Asheville brethren want to excite lasting notice, let them follow Greensboro's example and discover an oil well.—Greensboro Patriot.

SAY, has yours brought any exclusive franchise to the front yet?

—Every member of the family of Mr. C. P. Mungo, of Clear Creek township, is down with typhoid fever.

—Reidsville Weekly: Mr. J. W. Stallings the farmer whose finger was bitten by a negro to a depth of a few weeks ago, found it necessary to amputate the wounded member. The flesh purified and refused to adhere to the bone.

—High Point Enterprise: Last Tuesday morning Miss G. A. Livingood, who lives near Mount Pleasant church, had both her hands terribly mashed while working at a cane mill.

—A gentleman who was about five miles south of the city during the late storm says that it uprooted trees in the orchards, hurled the fences down and did considerable damage to the crops especially tobacco which was in the track of the storm and riddled with the hail.—Greensboro Patriot.

—Yesterday proceedings in the case of J. D. Paschall and a jury upon the condition of Mr. Will T. Rogers, of Raleigh. He was decided to be a subject worthy of a guardian, and Mr. J. M. Broughton was appointed as such guardian.

THIS MEANS BUSINESS.

Although not all the machinery at the Raleigh cotton mills is in operation, yet the shipments of yarns are 1,500 pounds daily.

It is reported that only about four miles of track remain to be laid on the Wilmington and Weldon branch road between Tarboro and Kinston.

Four gentlemen in Winston have bought 500 acres of land near the town, for the purpose of organizing a land company, with a capital of $250,000.

The Elizabeth City Carolinian has good news about the Dismal Swamp canal. The money has been raised, the contracts made and active work will begin on the first of October.

The Greensboro oil well has not been opened for about five days as Mr. Phoenix, the owner, is awaiting the analysis of Dr. H. B. Battle, of Raleigh, of the water.

The building and loan association is growing fast. The pay-roll of the Le-nor furniture factory is two hundred and old dollars weekly and the loan association is an excellent place for the operatives to lay by their savings.

The cow of Mrs. Martha Hedgecock, of Abbot creek, Davidson county leads. There has been sold in the Winston market, from the 1st of May until the 15th of September, four months, 1130 pounds of her butter.

Much interest has been aroused among cotton men by the report of a movement by which the national farmers' alliance proposes to hold back from market for a time 2,000,000 bales.

Financial Reform. We need financial reform and we believe that it can be attained, and then by allowing State banks to supply local currency is necessary, the bulk of the evils that have been occasioned by oppressive legislation will be removed.

Not Fit for the Family. The Dispatch no longer clubs with the Atlanta Constitution. We don't consider the paper fit for family reading, and are unwilling to add in extending its circulation.

The Daily Citizen. It is always alive to the interests of Asheville and its people.

Advertising. CREATES many a new business; ENLARGES many an old business; REVIVES many a dull business; RESCUES many a lost business; SAVES many a failing business; PLEASURES many a large business; SECURES success in any business.

Harper's Magazine. Theodore Child's series of papers on South America, now being published in Harper's Magazine, is attracting wide attention not only on account of the freshness and timeliness of the articles, but also because of the valuable character of the information which they contain, and the evident good judgment which controlled the writer while making and recording his observations.
