THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN TO-DAY.

SPEAKER REED FAILS TO COUNT A QUORUM.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY WITH GAMBLERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—In the house to-day Mr. O'Ferrall objected to the approval of the journal. The speaker counted only 27 democrats, not enough to order the yeas and nays. Tellers were demanded and the speaker then counted 48 democrats.

Mr. Breckinridge:—"You counted only 37 before."

The speaker:—"This is not the first time the gentleman on that side have appeared and disappeared."

Mr. Breckinridge:—"And this is not the first time the count of the chair has turned out to be incorrect."

The speaker:—"The chair desires to say that yesterday's count by the tellers showed two less than the count by the chair, and that was because of two members disappearing after the speaker's count."

Mr. Crisp:—"There was a difference of six."

The speaker:—"The gentleman is mistaken."

Mr. Breckinridge:—"The country well knows the facts."

The yeas and nays having been ordered there was a democratic exodus and in a moment the democratic seats were deserted.

A vote resulted, yeas 151, nays none; and the house at 1 o'clock adjourned.

The senate to-day resumed consideration of the bill to relieve the national banks. Senator Sherman expressed an opinion that the only provision of the bill should be the one to allow the national banks to issue notes to the full value of the bonds deposited to secure circulation.

Senator Cockrell's objection to the bill was laid aside without action. Senator Cockrell favored the withdrawal of the bank notes and the substitution of greenbacks. In course of his speech he said: "What had been seen within the last few weeks had not been creditable to the country. The secretary of the treasury, drawn on by speculators in stocks and grain, had been seen in New York to pay out every dollar of the surplus in the treasury in order to save them and to save their imaginary profits in speculation and gambling."

A NEW JAIL.

It Seems to be Located in the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—When the house to-day to break the question of the bill to secure the national bank a vote upon the Langston-Venable election contest, Mr. Burrows asked if the members present could not be obliged to remain.

The speaker replied that the rules were intended to secure this end and added that he did not see why they were not observed. Accordingly Assistant Door-keeper Hook directed all of the doors leading into the hall to be locked.

Hook had this been done before Kilgore presented himself at the door at the speaker's left and sought to go into the lobby. "Unlock that door!" the doorkeeper the stalwart Texas. The doorkeeper moved not, and Kilgore gave a sudden and vigorous kick and the frail hazy structure flew open and Kilgore strode out. He was followed in about the same fashion by Representatives Crain of Texas, Cummings of New York, and Coleman of Louisiana, who turn forced the door without opposition from the doorkeeper.

At the moment Mr. Kilgore drove the door open, Mr. Dingley, of Maine, was approaching from the other side, and the door struck him with full force in the face, bruising his nose and mouth or two has been raining to seed, and it is now in many respects an unrecognised and disgracefully behaved body. The demoralization has spread even to the employees, and they have lost whatever respect they may have heretofore entertained for the great legislative body. An instance of this is found in the notice posted in one of the ante-rooms, which says:

"Reed's menagerie. Do not disturb the animals by stirring them with umbrellas, and do not feed them with peanuts. They will be dismissed and fed in an hour."

He Died To Death.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 19.—Commissioner of agriculture, John Robinson, to-day received news of the death of his brother, George L. Robinson, in Anson county. The latter was twenty-four years of age. He was at work in a cotton gin and his arm was caught in the machinery nearly tearing the limb from his body. He died to death before surgical aid reached him.

The Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The tariff conferees to-day disposed of the paper, hemp, flax and jute schedules. The next formal conference will probably be Monday. The intervening time is to be devoted to private consultations among the republican conferees.

Cotton In Sight.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 1,293,343 bales, of which 676,843 are American. Receipts of cotton this week at all interior towns, 87,506; receipts from plantations, 187,895.

A French Protectorate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—The barkentine Tropic Bird has arrived from Papeete, Tahiti, with the news that the French forces have subdued the natives of the Society islands and established a protectorate over them.

G. D. Tillman Nominated.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 19.—George D. Tillman was nominated for congress from the second congressional district to-day. The vote stood, Tillman 30; Bellinger 15.

A Lockout.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—Eighty tulle manufacturers at Calais have locked out 5,000 of their employes for demanding higher wages.

A CAMP MEETING.

Held by an old Negro in the Court House Square.

Robert Clarke, an old colored man, who said he was from Washington, this state, held a camp meeting all by himself this morning in front of the court house. He first sang a hymn, then got down on his knees and prayed for everybody in the world, and especially in North Carolina. He then mounted a goods box and preached for half an hour to quite a congregation of citizens. After he had finished his sermon he asked that his old heaver might be filled with nickels and dimes to help along the old man. The heaver was sent around and the old darkey heartily thanked the people for their liberality in responding to his appeal. He probably preached to some who had never heard the gospel before, and maybe he did a little good.

TWENTY DEAD FOUND.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE P. & R. RAILWAY.

SOME OF THE KILLED ARE WELL KNOWN MEN.

THE VICTIMS WERE EITHER DROWNED OR CRUSHED.

READING, Pa., Sept. 20.—A passenger train on the Reading road was thrown into the Schuylkill river near Shoemakersville, fifteen miles from Reading, last night, at about 7 o'clock. Twenty persons were killed, and thirty injured, many of them very seriously.

The train was the first express and was running forty miles an hour.

What Caused the Accident.

An accident to the coal train on the other track a few minutes before had thrown several cars on the track, and the men on the coal train had no time either to clear the track or warn the passenger train. The latter ran into the obstruction, and the entire train went down a bank into the river.

Up to midnight thirteen bodies had been recovered. Five bodies were exposed to view in the wreck, but were pinned under heavy timbers.

Fifteen Bodies Taken Out.

At three o'clock this morning the situation was as follows: Three hundred men were still at work but they were making slow progress. Fifteen bodies had been taken from the scene of the disaster.

William D. Howe, one of Reading's wealthiest citizens, was a passenger on the train and was one of the first persons to reach the wreck.

A special train left this city for the scene of the wreck, taking a Philadelphia and Reading railroad surgeon, Dr. Weidman, and a corps of eight assistants. An electric light plant was also dispatched on the same train, which was speedily put in operation, and greatly facilitated the work of removing the wounded.

No passenger trains arriving after 6 p. m. were permitted to go beyond this city. All passengers from Philadelphia and intermediate points for destinations north of Reading were compelled to leave the train.

The Scene To-day.

The horror of the wreck seemed even worse when daylight dawned to-day, the scene being simply frightful.

Up to ten o'clock 20 bodies of the dead had been taken from the wreck. The injured will number fifty.

The body of George R. Kaercher, general counsel of the Reading railway was taken out badly disfigured. He was drowned in five feet of water in a Pullman car. He was a very able lawyer.

The following is a revised list of the dead thus far taken from the wreck:

JNO. F. MILLER, Cresson.
Geo. GREENEWALD, mail agent, Pottsville.

JOHN WHITE, engineer, Pottsville.
JAMES TEMPLE, fireman, Pottsville.
WM. D. SHAW, Reading.
HARRY JACOBY, stonecutter, Rallstown.
JOSEPH BECKER, chief Burgess, Mahanoy City.

SOLOMON HOOVER, aged 60, Pottsville.
MRS. EDWARD J. FOX, aged 41, Pottsville.
EDWARD J. FOX, aged 41, Pottsville.
GEORGE R. KOERCHER, aged 45, Pottsville.

HARRY LOUGHIN, conductor of express.
JOHN OSBORN, Philadelphia.
MR. and MRS. J. E. FREDERICKS, Pottsville.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

Mayor McDonald has received $25 from F. B. Hayne, of New Orleans, for the Mecklenburg monument fund. Hayne is a native of Charleston, but is a descendant of Dr. Ephraim Hazard, who was the author of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The many friends and acquaintances of "Old" Medford, the famous bear hunter of Western North Carolina, will regret to learn of his feeble condition of health. Age, exposure and rheumatism have slowed the footsteps of this faithful old pioneer of the mountain country.—Waynesville Courier.

Mr. Cooper, brother-in-law of Rev. G. W. Jackson, attended the democratic convention at Asheville under feeble condition. He was only able to return to Waynesville where he stopped to recruit. His sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, are seeing attentively to Mr. Cooper, and it is hoped that he will soon be up again.—Waynesville Courier.

THE CITIZEN WANTS A FREE AND FULL BALLOT.

TWO BALLOTS IN EACH ISSUE UNTIL THURSDAY NEXT.

It Will Have No Legal Significance, But the People Will Have Spoken Their Sentiments.

No successor to Mr. Pulliam on the board of aldermen has yet been chosen. The CITIZEN thinks the people ought to speak. In order to give them an opportunity we print below two ballots. Every copy of THE CITIZEN will entitle you to two votes. Everybody can vote and express their preference. These ballots will be printed in every issue of THE CITIZEN up to and including next Thursday. THE CITIZEN of Friday, September 20th, will contain the name of every man voted for and the number of votes he received. The board of aldermen will meet that night, and your choice will thus be before them.

THE BALLOT.

MY CHOICE FOR ALDERMAN.

Let the voter sign his name here.

MY CHOICE FOR ALDERMAN.

Let the voter sign his name here.

Let everybody vote. Every man, woman and child in the west ward ought to vote; every man, woman and child in the east ward may vote. Let the people speak.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON DEAD.

He Passes Peacefully Away at Half Past One O'clock To-day.

Mr. William Johnston died to-day at 1:30 at the residence of Mr. W. T. Weaver, his son-in-law, on Haywood street. Old age in conjunction with hemorrhages caused his death.

Mr. Johnston was one of Asheville's members of the Central Association, and south. He was born in county Down, Ireland, July 27, 1807 and was 83 years of age. He came to this country with his father in 1818, and lived in the district that is now known as Pickens county, in South Carolina. In the year 1830 he was married to Lucinda Judger, daughter of Jas. Judger, of this county, and engaged in the mercantile business. He stayed there until 1857, when he moved to Asheville. During his stay in Waynesville Mr. Johnston held the office of clerk of the superior court for Haywood county for twelve years. When the war closed he went to South Carolina and engaged in the cotton manufacturing business at Saluda, near Columbia, which business he carried on successfully for several years, spending half of his time in Asheville and the remainder in South Carolina.

Mr. Johnston left two sons and five daughters, all of whom were with him at the time of his death. He was father of Capt. R. B. Johnston and Hon. Thos. D. Johnston and Mrs. W. M. Coker, Mrs. W. T. Weaver and Miss Mattie Johnston, all living in Asheville.

Mr. Johnston has been feeble for some time and his final sickness began Tuesday night. He was conscious and recognized all those around him up to within a few minutes of his death, when he passed peacefully out of this life into the life beyond.

The funeral will be to-morrow.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

WASHINGTON.

Senator Aldrich's reciprocity scheme of the tariff bill has been approved by the conferees committee.

Charles Thompson was arrested in Washington on the charge of sending lottery tickets through the mails.

In the house, the republicans attempted to take up the Virginia contested election case, but the democrats filibustered.

A caucus of republicans of the house has decided to continue the effort to seat Langston, the colored contestant from Virginia.

In the United States senate Mr. Plumb made a speech criticizing Secretary Windom's policy, and offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the secretary for certain information.

HOME.

The democrats of Philadelphia will hold their primaries on Monday.

Benjamin P. Pixotto, who was United States consul to Roumania under Gen. Grant, died in New York.

The Tammany committee of twenty-four has decided to vindicate Tammany and Mayor Grant by renominating the mayor.

The I. H. Salter Silk company, of Boston, has assigned to A. O. Marden, of Boston, and W. W. Coolidge, of Salem, Mass. Liabilities $20,000 to $25,000.

Continuous rains for ten days have caused a great rise in the Penobscot river in Maine. Reports say that immense quantities of logs are in danger, and the lumbermen are anxious.

Official returns of the vote for governor of Maine are as follows: Burleigh, 64,190; Thompson, 45,250; Clark, 2,949; scattering, 956; total, 113,363; Burleigh's plurality, 18,940.

The Massachusetts democrats nominated William E. Russell for governor. The platform denounces the McKinley bill, and demands free raw material, particularly wool, coal and iron ore, and favors reciprocity with our sister republics and an eight-hour work day.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

—THE—
NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory warning is received, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
