

The idea that the advertisements in a newspaper only please the counting room unfortunately obtains in some quarters. But to the great mass of the people they are not only interesting, but useful and instructive reading. They are the shopper's vaude mecum, the business man's guide and everybody's instructor. A newspaper without advertising columns would fail to accomplish its mission. Besides, it would be about as poor as Job's turkey.—Boston Herald.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN TO-DAY.
THE SPEAKER AGAIN NOT ABLE TO SEE A QUORUM.

DEMOCRATIC SIDE OF THE HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—In the house this morning Mr. O'Ferrall was the only democrat in the chamber. The clerk having called the roll the speaker hesitated before he announced the result, there being but two lacking of a quorum. Mr. O'Ferrall demanded that the result be announced. In order to delay the announcement republican after republican rose and requested to know how they were recorded.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, inquired how the gentleman from Virginia (O'Ferrall) had voted. Mr. O'Ferrall replied that he had never voted to perpetrate a larceny, and he did not propose to do so, in this case.

Mr. Allen, of Michigan: "The gentleman doth protest too much. The gentleman has evidently stolen the whole of the other side."

J. D. Taylor: "May I ask the gentleman a question?"
Mr. O'Ferrall: "That is a dilatory question." [Laughter.]
Mr. Taylor inquired whether the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. O'Ferrall), when he was seated by the democratic house considered it larceny.

Mr. O'Ferrall retorted that keeping him out of his seat had been larceny and that the democratic congress had vindicated him.

"It would be well to remember," Mr. O'Ferrall said, "the course of the republicans in the last congress, when for days and weeks they refrained from voting in the contested election case of Sullivan against Felton."

The speaker announced the vote to be yeas 155, nays 1. No quorum. Just as the clerk began to call the roll again, Messrs. Sweeney, of Iowa, and Mudd, of Maryland, made their appearance and received mingled applause and hisses.

During the roll call a camera was brought into requisition and reproduced the array of empty democratic seats.

YOUR WIFE'S LETTERS.
You Can Open Them if You Wish the Law Says.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 23.—United States District Attorney Ruhm refused to countenance the prosecution of a man who was charged with opening his wife's mail. Some weeks since, a citizen of Putnam county intercepted a letter addressed to his wife, and found incriminating evidence which he subsequently used in a divorce suit.

The writer of the letter thereupon applied to Mr. Ruhm for a warrant against the man on a charge of interfering with mail. Mr. Ruhm refused to issue it, but the matter was taken before Commissioner Julien at Bloomington, Putnam county, who referred the case to Mr. Ruhm, who ordered it dismissed upon this ground that no jury could be found to convict under the circumstances.

A CEMETERY UNDERMINED.
"The Dead Steered by the Dumb Went Downward With the Flood."

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The floods in the department of Gard have caused much damage to property. On Sunday the river Rhone rose nineteen feet, and the town of Beaucaire was flooded. At Villeraugue, thirty-nine miles northwest of Nimes, the river undermined a portion of the cemetery. A number of coffins washed out and with their contents floated off.

HE'S NOT A BEAR.
Bismarck is not a Bear Number Yet, He Thinks.

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—Prince Bismarck, referring to the prospect of his return to public life, said recently that a seat in the Reichstag would entail the discomfort of hotel life, but that in the upper house of the empire, at least, he would be close, and that he did not intend during the winter of his life to be a bear and sleep and lick his paws.

LEVEL HEADED QUEEN.

She Stops a Suit Against a Journalist.

MONTREAL, Sept. 23.—The case of the journalist, R. N. O'Brien, who was arrested on a charge of criminal libel, for publishing the story about Prince George having been engaged in a street fight here, has been postponed and will be discontinued.

It is asserted that Governor-General Stanley has received a cable dispatch from the queen signifying her disapproval of proceedings taken against a subject of private offense against a member of the royal family. It is said that her majesty's command was imperative that the proceedings should be stopped.

IN THIS STATE TO HARM.

DISPERADED IN THE MOUNTAINS OF N. C.
They Will Doubtless Soon be Hunted Out, and, Anyways, are Far Removed From Here, It is Certain.

MINDLESSBOROUGH, Ky., Sept. 23.—Jim Mundy, a noted desperado of the Turner gang, was on Wednesday last taken into Tennessee, where he is wanted for the killing of a man by the name of Campbell, and sentenced for a long term in the state penitentiary on Saturday last. Andy Watson, another of the same gang, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Lee Turner, on a similar charge, and expects a severe punishment for his crime.

Last evening Speed Turner, Berry Turner and Bill Turner, the leaders of the famous band of outlaws who for years have been the terror of southern Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee, fled the rapid strides of civilization, leaving the mountains of North Carolina, where for awhile, at least, they hope to be able to continue a life of adventure which has few counterparts, even in the pages of fiction.

ROGER Q. MILLS.
He Opens the Minnesota Campaign With His Usual Vigor.

RACINE, Wis., Sept. 23.—Roger Q. Mills addressed a large audience here last night. He devoted considerable attention to the question of compulsory education and the Bennett law. He said that no man had a right to put his hand on his (Mills's) mouth and prescribe what he should or should not say. Man was responsible for his own actions and not for those of anyone else. He charged most of the members of the republican party with being in favor of prohibition and an established church and all other forms of paternalism.

In closing Mr. Mills spoke of the effects of tariff on a farming community, and argued in favor of opening our markets and having the commodity transported by allowing our products to go into all the markets of the world unhampered. This, he thought, would stimulate trade in our country; it would give a boom to transportation and all forms of industry would feel its effects.

A Sweet Division.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The republican conferees on the tariff bill were in session this morning, but no further progress was made on the amendments to the tariff bill. The point of disagreement is on the sugar schedule.

An Incident at the Theatre.
From the San Francisco News Letter.

The other evening, while the audience at the Baldwin were listening spellbound to the famous scene where Barrymore is discussing the foibles of women a couple of San Mateo rustics in the front row of the dress circle began an earnest discussion as to the merits of a certain prize sow one of them had for sale.

Despite the angry looks and s-s-s-h's of those near by, the controversy waxed louder, until at last a gentleman sitting behind the talkers touched one of them on the shoulder and quizzed him said: "Excuse me, my friend, but what will you take for that sow of yours?"

The granger stared for a moment and then said: "About $6, I s'pose."
"Exactly," said the gentleman, taking out his pocketbook and handing over a greenback.

"Here is a twenty. Now that sow's mine; just let her alone, if you please."
The audience snickered, and though the countryman made a woful attempt to turn the joke by gravely pocketing the note and handing over the $14 change the snub was crushing in its effect, and in the dead silence that followed the philanthropic millionaire leaned back and modestly enjoyed his popularity.

But what the delegation from up the bay said when, after the performance, they tried to buy beer with the twenty and found it a bad counterfeit is unfit for publication.

VOTE FOR YOUR CHOICE!

LET THE CITIZENS OF WEST WARD SPEAK.

"THE CITIZEN" WANTS A FREE AND FULL BALLOT.

TWO BALLOTS IN EACH ISSUE, UNTIL THURSDAY NEXT.

It Will Have No Legal Significance, But the People Will Have Spoken Their Sentiments.

No successor to Mr. Pulliam on the board of aldermen has yet been chosen. THE CITIZEN thinks the people ought to speak. In order to give them an opportunity we print below two ballots. Every copy of THE CITIZEN will entitle you to two votes. Everybody can vote and express their preference. These ballots will be printed in every issue of THE CITIZEN up to and including next Thursday. THE CITIZEN of Friday, September 26th, will contain the name of every man voted for and the number of votes he received. The board of aldermen will meet that night, and your choice will thus be before them.

THE BALLOT.

MY CHOICE FOR ALDERMAN.

Let the voter sign his name here.

MY CHOICE FOR ALDERMAN.

Let the voter sign his name here.

Let everybody vote. Every man, woman and child in the west ward ought to vote; every man, woman and child in the east ward may vote. Let the people speak.

Bring your ballots to THE CITIZEN office.

COLON BURNING.
The Greater Part Reported Already Destroyed.

PANAMA VIA GALVESTON, Sept. 23.—It is officially reported here that the town of Colon, Aspinwall, is burning and that the greater part of the town is already destroyed.

There Will Be No Fight.
LONDON, Sept. 23.—Slavin and McAuliffe were this morning bound over to keep the peace in $5,000 each, the prisoners furnishing one surety to appear when called upon. If any breach of the peace occurs warrants will be issued and the case sent before the committing magistrate.

OUT ON THE FARM.
The recent rains are reported to have done $50,000 of damage to the tobacco crop in Rockingham county alone.

The past week was unfavorable to crops and farm work of all kinds. Excessive warmth and moisture caused the cotton to rot or sprout in the bolls, while that which had already opened has been stained and otherwise considerably damaged. In many places tobacco is nearly all house. In the western portion of the state a light frost in low places occurred on the 18th.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.
ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.
The dose for an adult is two teaspoonsful in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and enduring in intensity, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
