THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

A LEGISLATOR'S NARROW ESCAPE FROM HANGING.

A CAPITAL THE SCENE OF A DISGRACEFUL FIGHT.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 3.—The fight over the permanent capital at Oklahoma city passed the upper house of the territorial legislature yesterday afternoon.

Before the action had been taken on the bill in the upper house the motion in the lower house to recede from the action of yesterday was adopted. The friends of the measure, however, prevailed upon Speaker Daniels to sign the bill after a vote of reconsideration, and Representative Perry immediately possessed himself of the measure and was hurrying over to the chamber of the upper house to obtain the signature of the presiding officer of that body. The vigilant enemies of the measure observed the move, and the legislative body became a howling mob. An attack was made upon Speaker Daniels, and it was demanded of him in a peremptory manner that he sign over that the bill be returned to the clerk. Daniels referred the crowd to Perry, who was just about to escape from the hall and who in the meantime had handed the bill to Representative Nesbit. Perry ran into the street with the bill at his heels. He was caught. Some one cried "hang him!" The cry was taken up and became general. The crowd was in earnest.

Perry begged so nicely and turned his pockets inside out. "Nesbit has the bill," he cried.

Nesbit was in the crowd, and a rush was made for him. Nesbit kept ahead of the mob for four blocks, then his strength failed him, and he surrendered. He was marched back to the hall, where he was compelled to deposit the bill on the clerk's desk. Speaker Daniels took the bill, and, accompanied by A. C. Thompson, of the News, as a witness, repaired to the governor's mansion, where in the presence of the governor, he recalled his name, saying, "I signed this bill under a misapprehension."

In the meantime Captain Cavanaugh, post commander, and United States Marshal Grimes appeared in the hall and calmed the crowd, which still demanded the punishment of Perry and Nesbit.

STEAMER WRECKED.

She Had Excursionists On Board But All Were Saved.

Peoria, Ills., Oct. 3.—The steamer Golden Eagle, a small excursion boat, sunk here yesterday. At the time of the accident she was making one of her regular trips around the lake in front of the city, carrying fifteen passengers.

The cause of the accident is believed to be a break in the machinery. A panic ensued among the passengers who in their mad rush for safety swamped the little craft and she went to the bottom.

The accident happened a short distance from shore and those there put off to render assistance and succeeded in saving the passengers and the crew, although several narrowly escaped drowning.

STOLE $300,000.

W. H. Schriber Gives Up His Ill Gotten Gains.

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 3.—Last night Wm. H. Schriber, recently arrested in Detroit, Mich., for robbing the First National bank in this city of $300,000 in cash and securities in 1888 and brought to this city and lodged in jail, sent for the bank officials and turned over to them all his ill gotten gains. He will go before the judge and enter a plea of guilty and ask for mercy. All the money but $50,000 lost by young Schriber was invested in real estate near Detroit and said to be worth about $150,000.

When Schriber fled he went to Windsor, a Canadian suburb of Detroit, and remained till a week ago when he was decoyed across into Michigan by the blandishments of a woman detective.

CUPID EXPELLED.

Distressing Outcome of the Barrundia Case.

City of Mexico, Oct. 3.—Dr. Benigno Arocha, the son-in-law of the late Gen. Barrundia, leaves for Washington, Monday with good letters to present to the Barrundia case. He says the greatest discontent reigns in Guatemala among the masses against President Barrios and predicts war within nine months. Bull fighter Mascarino has been expelled from Guatemala for shooting "Aire Lucia" as has also a fireman named Heinchmann for making love to Barrundia's daughter.

Senor Salmal, ex-secretary of state, is still a prisoner in his own house, which is carefully guarded. Eleven prominent men have been called recently to cabinet positions by President Barillas, but all have refused.

Danville Tobacco Sales.

Danville, Va., Oct. 3.—The sales of leaf tobacco on this market in September was 908,312 pounds, which is 633,448 pounds less than the sales for September of last year. The sales for the tobacco year ending September 30 will were 24,925,076 pounds, being 5,868,776 pounds less than the previous year. The price paid this year was $13.22 per hundred pounds, being $4.47 per hundred more than that paid the year before.

Decrease in the Bonded Debt.

Washington, Oct. 3.—It is said at the treasury department that the decrease in the bonded debt of the United States during the past month—$12,316,240—was greater than in any month since the period of refunding operations under Secretary Sherman, the nearest approach to it being $26,363,850 in October, 1888.

Southern Cities' Increased Population.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The census bureau announces the population of Yazoo City, Miss., 12,779; Dallas, Tex., 38,140; Macon, Ga., 22,698; total population of New Hampshire, 376,827.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

An Organ Recital at Trinity Episcopal Church.

It is to be regretted that the bad weather prevented many persons from attending the service of praise and organ recital at Trinity Episcopal church last night; but those who did venture felt fully repaid and enjoyed such music as is rarely afforded in Asheville, or in any town of its size and very modest pretensions.

The program was as follows:

Organ prelude—"Elevation"..... Saint Saens

Sentences and Prayers.

Cantate Domino..... 240 Hymnal.

CHOIR AND CONGREGATION.

Organ—Offertorie in D..... Batiste

Hymn 184—"Hark, hark My Soul"..... Hymnal

Organ—Pastorale in F..... Whiting

Lesson—Psalm 145.

Aria—"But the Lord is Merciful,"..... Elijah

1ST. Paul's Mendelssohn

MISS LIDA CARRATT.

Organ—"Pleyel's" hymn, "Varied"..... Burnett

Hymn 337—"The Shadows of the Evening Hours"..... Hymnal

CHOIR AND CONGREGATION.

Psalm 150..... Psalter

CHOIR.

PRAYERS AND BENEDICTION.

Organ Postlude—"Inauguration March"..... C. A. Garratt.

And every single portion of it was most sweetly impressive. Dr. Garratt showed himself to be an organist of very superior acquirements, and a thorough master of both his art and his instrument.

To The Citizen the most charming part of the service was the rendering of "Pleyel's Hymn" by Burnett.

No permanent choir having yet been organized, the singing, with the exception of the solo by Miss Garratt, was congregational led by a countless choir.

The solo "But the Lord is Mindful" by the organist's young daughter, Miss Lydia Garratt, was sung with remarkable expression and discretion, giving promise of great power and sweetness of voice.

The last selection, the "Inauguration March" composition of Dr. Garratt's, was considered by many the most enjoyable number on the program and certainly established the reputation as a composer of no mean merit. The Citizen hopes that the rector will repeat the praise service from time to time, and will be better weather they may be heard and enjoyed by the many lovers of good music in Asheville.

QUAY'S SILENCE.

What Mr. Allen Thinks of It Will Get Into the "Record."

Washington, Oct. 3.—The house celebrated its adjournment by indulging in a few dispassionate but amiable complimentary to Senator Matthew Stanley Quay, chairman of the national republican committee, and by removing its postmaster, who has been found guilty by an investigating committee of being very much of a fool, if not altogether a knave.

John Allen, the humorist of the house, came to the front in a new role in the proceedings just before adjournment, and made a savage attack upon Quay. He had the house entirely at bay when demanding the privilege of continuing his attack by extending his remarks in the Record, and when this boon was denied him he raised the point of no quorum, and would not withdraw it until the much desired leave was given him to print and extend his remarks. Had he not withdrawn his point business would in all probability have come to a standstill, and it would have been impossible to reach a vote upon anything, even the motion to adjourn. The privilege finally granted to Mr. Allen was that of printing in the Record remarks "upon the tariff and appropriation bills." He will take advantage of the situation to conclude what he had to say regarding the silence of Senator Quay on the charges made against him in open session by Representative Kennedy.—New York Sun.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

It is Important for Democrats to Register for the Fall Election.

The registration book for the East ward showed 225 names at 4 o'clock today. Of these 129 are of white voters and 100 of colored. In the west ward the total number is 260, 134 white and 126 colored.

This is but a small per cent. of the total registration of the city. In 1888 the east ward registered about 550 and the west about 700 votes. The registration books will remain open until 9 o'clock on 25 only and after that time the law does not provide for the registration of any one excepting such persons as may become of age between that time and the election. It is very important that every democrat should register. No one can vote without having registered once. The old registration does not qualify a man for voting in the coming election.

Rev. Dr. Miller.

The Rev. A. W. Miller, D. D., LL. D., of Charlotte, is expected in the city tomorrow, accompanied by Mrs. Miller. For many years past Dr. Miller has been the foremost figure in North Carolina Presbyterianism and has exercised a fostering influence upon the church at large. A man of scholarly research and great attainments, he has at the same time been highly successful in the practical work of the church as is shown by his habit of spending his summers in the mountains west of Asheville, preaching not only in the towns but in the out of the way places. He is just now returning from a trip of this sort reaching as far as Murphy and Waynesville in the extreme west.

Dr. Miller comes to Asheville by special invitation to preach in the First Presbyterian church on Sunday next. It is several years since he has been heard in this city and the desire of his friends to hear him again has become very great, while those who have never heard him will have a rare opportunity. Dr. Miller will be the guest of Rev. W. S. P. Bryan during his stay in the city.

Increase of Circulation.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A statement prepared at the treasury department shows that there was a net increase of $62,000,767 in circulation during the month of September.

Curtis Re-elected.

Boston, Oct. 3.—At a meeting of the national civil service reform league today George William Curtis was elected president for the ensuing year.

"TOUCHED" FOR $10,000.

AN APOLOGY THAT WAS ALL TOO EARLY.

The Moral Is, When You Have Money Keep the Fact to Yourself. The Fourth Affair of Its Kind.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 3.—Yesterday while J. K. Gardner, an extensive lumber dealer of Ridgeway, Pa., was returning from the East Liverpool, O., fair, he was relieved of $10,000 on the train.

He had been talking somewhat loudly at the Ohio races, and was no doubt followed to the train by the gang. His destination was Allegheny City, and when Washington street was reached some smoothly dressed brakeman called out "Allegheny."

Gardner jumped to his feet and started for the door, but was immediately joined in the corner by several men, who also wanted to get off at Allegheny City. He apologized to one of them after a quarrel, during which Gardner said the other fellows were in his pockets.

After the city proper was reached Gardner found he had apologized too soon. His pocketbook containing $10,000, the proceeds of a recent lumber sale, was gone. This is the fourth affair of the kind that has occurred here recently.

HARRISON'S APPOINTMENTS.

Thes Outnumber Cleveland's Two to One Nearly.

Washington, Oct. 3.—In the ten months of the session that closed Wednesday President Harrison sent to the senate 2,837 nominations, of which all but twelve were confirmed. As many of these nominations contained the name of more than one person, they represented probably 3,000 appointments.

In the first session of the Forty-ninth congress, which lasted eight months, President Cleveland sent to the senate 2,980 nominations.

Death of Wm. Suttle.

Forest City, N. C., Oct. 3.—[Special.]—William Suttle, a brother of D. D. Suttle, of Asheville, died here last night of typhoid fever.

Mr. Suttle was 46 years of age and leaves a wife and five children. He was at one time a resident of Buncombe county, being engaged in the mercantile business at Leicester. He was living in Leicester in 1870 and was there between two and three years. At the time of his death he was farming at Forest City, in Rutherford county, and was postmaster at that place.

Hettie Bernard Chase.

In speaking of Hettie Bernard Chase, the Roanoke (Va.) Times says: "Hettie Bernard Chase, supported by a strong company of fine artists, appeared last night at the opera house in 'Uncle's Darling.' The house was packed and the charming soubrette won new laurels. Her good acting was applauded throughout, and her dancing was encored several times."

Democratic Convention.

The Buncombe county democratic convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for sheriff, register of deeds, clerk of the superior court, house of representatives, coroner and surveyor, will be held in the court house tomorrow at 11 a. m.

A Heap of Cotton.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—September crop statistics issued by Secretary Hester, of the New Orleans cotton exchange show the largest movement of cotton for the first month of the season since the war, if not in the history of the cotton trade. The amount brought into sight for the month was 851,624 bales.

He Will Kill no More.

Lousville, Oct. 3.—Earnest Humphreys, a negro who killed Dick Miller, another negro, at Princeton, Wednesday, was taken from jail at that place by a mob yesterday and hanged. Miller was the second man Humphreys had killed.

A Distinguished Party.

New York, Oct. 3.—The steamer Germanic, with the count of Paris the duke of Orleans and the prince of Joinville on board was signalled off the Highland this morning.

Five Vessels Sunk.

Lisbon, Oct. 3.—A terrific gale prevailed on the North sea yesterday. Five vessels foundered.

REVIEW OF CONSEQUENCE.

Washington.

The president has signed the tariff bill.

The population of Richmond, Va., is given by the census bureau as 80,853; Petersburg, 23,317.

Bids for building three battle ships and a protected cruiser have been opened at the navy department. The Cramps will probably get the contracts for two battle ships and the cruiser, and the union iron works of San Francisco the contract for the remaining battle ship.

Congress adjourned Wednesday, but little business being transacted in either branch. In the senate the usual complimentary resolutions to the presiding officer were passed and Mr. Morton made the customary speech of thanks. In the house Congressman Allen made a speech in which he fired a parting shot at Speaker Reed.

Home.

Mc Elvaine, the murderer of Grocer Luca, of New York, is to be executed by electricity between November 17 and the 24th.

The Federation of Labor of the Erie railroad, in the name of its employes, have submitted a formal demand for what amounts to a virtual increase of wages.

A new railroad to cost $4,000,000, it is said will be built from Philadelphia to give the Lehigh Valley and the Baltimore and Ohio roads a direct route for New England freight business.

The treasury department purchased 225,000 ounces of silver at a fraction less than 1.14, being the first of the October installment. The government will purchase 4,500,000 ounces of silver during each calendar month. The net decrease in the national debt during the month of September was $4,582,907.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as

ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE,

CHLORAL AND COCAINE,

Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear of serious results. It is it a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless remedies." These qualities make it the most popular and salable article in the market, wherever known.

DOSE.—ONE DOSE FOR ONE.

The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In every case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms, such as attack is wearing on, and nothing is taken, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the best cure and is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
