MISCELLANEOUS. Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Ewart told him that he heard Jim Gudgey say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Elias heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Rollins said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Purman had told Sitting Bull that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Dan Reynolds had said in plain terms that he heard Jack Worley say that his friend John L. Sullivan had said that Bill Deaver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the Housekeepers' Union had caught Gen. Clingman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. J. Mackey intimated to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

"RACKET NEWS."

The best place in Asheville for working people to trade is the "Big Racket." We promise low prices and good goods, and where our guarantee goes with an article if it doesn't turn out like we say it will we refund the money. In our experience we have found that well-to-do people and rich folks always look further and try harder to save a nickel than working people and poor folks, so if we give the latter bargains and the full worth of their money we cannot help selling bargains to others. Among our new goods, of which we have a large stock, may be found at the very lowest prices: All kinds of Shoes, hand made for men, school shoes for children, fine and common shoes for ladies, blankets and comforts, hand bags, grips and trunks, all kinds of shoes, wall pockets, mirrors and frames, lamps, wicks, chimneys and burners, chamber sets and tinware, hats and caps, 25c. up, dress goods and underwear, all kinds of shoes, shoulder capes and jackets, flannels and Jersey cloth, skirts and skirting goods, dress trimmings and linings, brooms, buckets and tubs, all kinds of shoes, fast black stockings in cotton, wool, silk and balb. overcoats, rubbers and gloves, men's clothing in suits, pants, pants, pants, ALL KINDS OF SHOES—in fact everything to use or wear at lowest prices. THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

THE LONDON STOCK MARKET EXCITED.

IT IS FEARED THAT FAILURES WILL FOLLOW.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The stock market has been greatly excited today since the opening, but prices have partially recovered. All buyers for New York find a difficulty in obtaining reliable quotations and there will therefore be a delay in forwarding the closing prices of American securities to the United States.

4 P. M.—A large amount of pork has been thrown on the market through forced sales. This induced the fear that failures would follow but the air is now clearer; but to-morrow's settlement is anxiously looked for.

HARRISON IN IOWA. At Ottumwa to Open the Coal Palace Exposition.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 9.—It was 8 o'clock this morning when the presidential party reached the city. A delegation met the president at Galesburg last evening and escorted them to Ottumwa.

Despite the early hour almost the entire population of the city was out to greet the president. A moment later the booming of cannon thundered a welcome to the chief executive and the jollification of the day was fairly begun. In this city resides the president's chief sister, Sallie, the wife of T. J. Deveny. John S. Harrison, the president's gray haired older brother, who lives in Kansas city, met the party here.

Early in the forenoon the weather became unfavorable and the rain began to fall, but it did not seem to dampen the enthusiasm of the Iowans, and certainly did not seriously mar the ceremonies of the occasion which took place under the roof of the Ottumwa coal palace and Iowa industrial exposition.

Crawford at the Court House To-Night. THE DYNAMITE EXPLODED.

Ten Men Blown to Pieces—One American and 9 Mexicans.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 9.—News has been received from the Rosario gold mine, seventy miles inland, from Mazatlan, of a terrible explosion which occurred there the latter part of September. An American named McGee who came from Napa, California, was working with nine Mexicans in a sixty foot level near a magazine which contained several hundred pounds of dynamite. This exploded and the men were blown to atoms.

Give the Man Who is Beating Ewart a Good House. IN IT CONSTITUTIONAL?

An Opinion that the McKinley Bill is Void.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Oct. 9.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler spoke yesterday against the constitutionality of the McKinley tariff bill. The house journal of congress shows that section 30 was left out by the enrolling clerk and then signed by the president, which, according to Judge Cooley's "Constitutional Limitations," of the Supreme court decisions of all the states, vitiates the bill.

The bill will first come before Judge Somerville, who was recently appointed appraiser of customs in New York, and while on the supreme bench of Alabama, held in the seventy-eighth Alabama and held in the seventy-eighth Alabama and held in the seventy-eighth Alabama and held in the seventy-eighth Alabama.

Damaged $20,000 Worth by Fire. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 9.—Five in the academy of music building at six o'clock this morning damaged the structure to the extent of $10,000 worth. The fire started in the American shooting gallery in the basement and for a time threatened to destroy the building. The auditorium was not damaged badly, however, and the manager hopes to have the house again open by Saturday night. Total loss will not exceed $20,000.

Give the Man Who is Beating Ewart a Good House. On to Richmond.

FORT MONROE, Va., Oct. 9.—The Comte de Paris and party, including Col. Coppinger, arrived here this morning at 6 o'clock on the steamer George Leary from Washington and were transferred an hour later to the steamer Ariel, by which they are to be taken up the James river to Richmond, arriving there about 5 o'clock this evening.

Caught By a Rife. VIENNA, Oct. 9.—Six of the largest iron merchants of Beala, in Roumania, have failed and several others are in difficulties. This state of affairs is owing to an advance in the sales made to English firms and a subsequent rise in prices.

They May Strike. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—The miners of the Monongahela district will demand an increase of half a cent per bushel this month. If the operators refuse the demand a strike will ensue, which will affect six thousand miners.

The McKinley Bill Again. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—At a meeting of the flint and glass manufacturers' association in this city yesterday an advance of not quite five per cent. was made in the prices.

The Danbury Reporter says that Prof. Atkins has bought or optioned some valuable iron properties this week. He is now at work developing the Pierston property. He has commenced work developing iron properties on the lands optioned in the name of W. A. Lash and associates.

ASHEVILLE CLUB DISSOLVED.

A Brief Resume of the History of This Organization.

On yesterday a call meeting of the resident members of the Asheville Club decided that it was expedient that it should be dissolved, and its property sold at auction as will be seen by THE CITIZEN advertising columns.

This ends an institution, which for several years has been a source of much enjoyment to its members, and also to numerous visitors to this city, and at the same time it has done a good work in promoting the development of this vicinity. Many valued citizens of Buncombe county, attracted to their first thought of making this their home, to the hospitable and comfortable welcome offered them in its rooms and the kindly greeting which was invariably tendered them by its officers and members.

A brief resume of its history may be of interest to the residents of this city, as it is a sample of what might be done by many small towns to their great benefit.

The Asheville club was organized on April 16, 1881, with twenty-nine members, of whom six continued in its active membership to the time of its permanent suspension. The first member elected after its organization was Mr. W. B. Gwyn, who, as vice president, presided at its last meeting on yesterday. Its roll of membership, elected during its existence embraced over 300 names of gentlemen representing many of the states of this union, and an occasional resident in foreign lands.

Its affairs have been conducted by an executive committee of seven members who, with the exception of the secretary and treasurer, were changed at each annual election. The office of secretary and treasurer has been filled by Mr. T. W. Patton from April, 1881, to the present time. The presidents have been in order of their election Messrs. Theo. F. Davidson, W. Talbot Pennington, W. B. Gwyn, James J. Martin, A. J. Lyman, James P. Sawyer.

Its first location was in the room over Carmichael's drug store, from which it was moved some five or six years ago to its present quarters, over the national bank of Asheville.

Crawford at the Court House To-Night. A CALL FOR THE LADIES.

Will They More Generally Aid the Housekeepers Union?

EDITOR THE CITIZEN.—Long before the building of Babel, I expect that man discovered he was an associative animal. The modern world is undoubtedly co-operative, one man power is a thing of the past, and in order to push forward a good movement, or punish an evil one, man recognizes this fact and becomes associative. We have in the midst of us, among our housekeepers, just such an association, but it fails to reach the active sympathies of the majority of those for whom it is intended. Is there nothing we can say to cause our women to come out en masse and at least hear the plan upon which we propose to work? Are you willing to reap what others have sown? so, at least come out and see that the grain is good. I know no greater charity, no work more needed than this these earnest workers are engaged in. "Come over and help us" is the Macedonian cry; all we need is your cooperation.

Let us not be like the Virginia matron that benighted to John Randolph her inability to help the Greeks in their struggle for liberty, on account of the immensity of space intervening. On taking his leave of entering his carriage a troop of half clothed Irish negroes belonging to the plantation passed by. He returned to the mansion, saluted his mistress. "Madam," he said, pointing to them, "The Greeks are at your door."

They are at your doors to-day; it is our duty at least to inquire, "What shall we do with them?" Other charities interest you. Why not this one? Come and see us then; the time and place will be hereafter designated, but bear in mind that we cannot afford to lose the active support of a single sympathizer in Asheville. I am, Dear Sir, Yours truly, Ashville, Oct. 9.

RUBE BURROWS KILLED.

THE VIOLENT END OF THE NOTED OUTLAW.

He Outwits His Guards and Gets Away, But Finally Tackles the Wrong Man and is Shot.

DEMOPOLIS, Ala., Oct. 8.—Reuben Burrows, who is believed to have been concerned in several train robberies and who killed the postmaster at Vernon, Lamar county, Ala., has been captured near Myrtleville, Ala.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 9.—Rube Burrows, the outlaw and train robber, was killed at Linden yesterday morning by J. C. Carter, one of his captors.

When Burrows was captured yesterday one pistol was found on him and he said he had sold his other one.

It seems his captors never once opened or examined his leather satchel and yesterday morning when he said he had some crackers in it and wanted to get some to eat McInuff handed him the satchel without hesitation. He drew the pistols so quickly his guards were taken completely by surprise, and untied his feet and hands without a word.

It was not daylight then, and he could have escaped easily if he had not gone in search of Carter to get his money. Carter was in his room, but had not retired. Burrows got the drop, and demanded the return of his money. As soon as he saw Carter reach for his pistol he fired. The ball struck Carter in the breast, and he passed through his lung, just above the heart, inflicting a wound which is supposed to be fatal.

Carter fired as quickly as possible, and shot Burrows through the body, and Burrows then turned and shot John Marshall, the negro, who had assisted in his capture, and was forced to guide him to Carter's room. Burrows then turned and ran across the street with Carter in pursuit.

Several more shots were fired without effect. As Burrows reached the opposite side of the street he sunk to the ground at the corner of the court house and died in a few minutes without speaking a word. Carter fell in the middle of the street about the same time. The negro had been shot down in the room and is dangerously wounded.

Death of Jas. Carson.

Jas. Carson died at the residence of Mrs. D. J. Cain, on North Spruce street last night. Heart trouble was the cause of his death, which occurred at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Carson was 28 years of age, having been born in Yorkville, S. C., August 4, 1862.

He came to Asheville (when quite young and has lived here the larger portion of his life. He lived in Transylvania county for some time, and in Charleston, while attending school.

Mr. Carson was a deservedly popular young man, of sterling qualities, and had a large number of friends in Asheville. He had been for some time engaged in the stationery business. The funeral will take place at the Presbyterian church to-morrow at 4.30 p. m., and the remains will be taken to South Carolina for burial.

MISCELLANEOUS. ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE. TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIPRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE.

Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the preliminary symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
