Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Ewart told him that he heard Jim Guder say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Elias heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Kollins said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Furman had told Sitting Bull that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Dan Reynolds had said in plain terms that he heard Jack Worley say that his friend John L. Sullivan had said that Bill Deaver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the Housekeepers' Union had caught Gen. Clineman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. J. Mackey intimated to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

"RACKET NEWS."

The best place in Asheville for working people to trade is the "Big Racket." We promise low prices and good goods, and where our guarantee goes with an article if it doesn't turn out like we say it will we refund the money. In our experience we have found that well-to-do people and rich folks always look further and try harder to save a nickel than working people and poor folks, so if we give the latter bargains and the full worth of their money we cannot help selling bargains to others. Among our new goods, of which we have a large stock, may be found at the very lowest prices: All kinds of Shoes, hand made for men, school shoes for children, fine and common shoes for ladies, blankets and comforts, hand bags, grips and trunks, all kinds of shoes, wall pockets, mirrors and frames, lamps, wicks, chimneys and burners, chamber sets and tinware, hats and caps, 25c. up, dress goods and underwear, all kinds of shoes, shoulder capes and jackets, flannels and Jersey cloth, skirts and skirting goods, dress trimmings and linings, brooms, buckets and tubs, all kinds of shoes, fast black stockings in cotton, wool, silk and half. overcoats, rubbers and gloves, men's clothing in suits, pants, pants, ALL KINDS OF SHOES—in fact everything to use or wear at lowest prices.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

O'BRIEN AND DILLON LEAVE ENGLAND.

EXCITEMENT IN TIPPERARY WHEN THE FACT IS KNOWN.

DUBLIN, Oct. 10.—The case of the crown against William O'Brien and John Dillon, charged with conspiracy in inciting tenants not to pay their rents, was again called in the magistrate's court at Tipperary this morning.

When the court opened Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon did not appear. A rumor is current that they have forfeited their bail of $5,000 each in the conspiracy case and that they sailed yesterday from Queenstown for the United States.

Much excitement prevailed in court when it became known that O'Brien and Dillon had left the place. There is as yet no confirmation of the report that they have sailed from Queenstown. The information thus far received shows that they did not leave by the ordinary channels of passage. Their bail will be paid by the national league.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Dillon and O'Brien.

ANTI-TILLMANITES.

They Nominate A. C. Haskell for Governor.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 10.—A convention of democrats opposed to the election of B. R. Tillman as governor of South Carolina, met at the state capitol yesterday. The following ticket was nominated:

For governor—A. C. Haskell, of Richland; lieutenant governor—W. D. Johnson, of Marion; secretary of state—Edmond Harper, of Williamsburg; attorney-general—Jos. W. Barnwell, of Charleston; comptroller-general—Edmund Bacon, of Spartanburg; state treasurer—W. A. Ameron, of Kershaw; adjutant and inspector-general—R. N. Richbourg, of Richland; superintendent of education—E. B. Ragsdale, of Fairfield. An address to the people was adopted affirming allegiance to the principles of democracy, and charging that the Tillmanites had arrayed class against class, and that under the control of the party was secured by the secret caucuses of an "outh-bound society." No allusion was made to the negro vote.

MARY ANDERSON'S ADMIRER.

He Kills the Assistant Superintendent of an Insane Asylum.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—James D. Dougherty, Mary Anderson's crazy admirer, shot and killed Dr. George W. Lloyd, assistant superintendent of the Flat Bush insane asylum, yesterday afternoon. Dougherty was arrested at the New York end of the Brooklyn bridge, two hours after the murder. He was arraigned at the Tombs police court before Justice Kilbreth this morning and turned over to the Brooklyn police. He was taken to Brooklyn at once, where he was committed until after the coroner's inquest is over.

In the police court the prisoner appeared unconcerned and carelessly read an account of the shooting in a morning paper.

COTTON AVERAGES.

A Falling Off in the General Percentages.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The October statistical returns of the department of agriculture report a material decline in cotton prospects, a fall in the general percentage from 85.5 to 80. The state averages are:

Virginia, 92; North Carolina, 91; South Carolina, 83; Georgia, 82; Florida, 81; Alabama, 80; Mississippi, 75; Louisiana, 83; Texas, 77; Arkansas, 80; Tennessee, 83.

The cause of the deterioration is too much rain. The value of the crop is somewhat reduced by discoloration.

A KILLING IN CHEROKEE.

Whisky and an Old Feud—Everybody Exonerated.

From Mr. Peyton Jones, of Postell, this county, we learned that on Monday night of last week at Thompson's commissary, on the Knoxville Southern, near Taylor's ferry, Jo Whitt was killed, John Vest was shot twice, "Pud" Taylor was shot once and Carson, whose given name is not known, was shot once.

Whisky and an old feud is supposed to have been the cause of the shooting.

At the coroner's inquest and before a magistrate, the parties were fully exonerated.—Murphy Scout.

DEATH ON A STREET CAR.

R. P. McCant, of Columbia, S. C., Died This Morning.

R. P. McCant, of Columbia, S. C., died suddenly on street car No. 3 this morning at about 10:20 o'clock. Mr. McCant boarded the car at the depot at 10:15 o'clock and appeared to be suffering at the time. He had his hand on his breast, and sat down on the step of the rear platform. Conductor J. L. Steele, saw that the man seemed sick, and a short while after leaving the depot noticed him collapse. He stopped the car and with help carried the sick man into the car and laid him on a seat. Mr. McCant gave a gasp when he was laid down and died almost immediately. His body was taken to the office of the street railway company.

The dead man was an uncle of Dr. W. G. Smith, of Ransom and Smith and H. K. Smith, the dentist. He was seen by W. G. Smith this morning and seemed to be well. He said he was going to the depot to buy a ticket to Spartanburg. He expected to leave here to-morrow morning. At the depot it is said that he remarked that he wanted the ticket to send his corpse home.

His nephews took charge of the body and it will be taken to South Carolina for burial.

Mr. McCant was a married man and leaves a wife and four children in Columbia. He was fifty-five years old. He had been at work at the Haywood White Sulphur Springs hotel this summer.

The cause of his death was pronounced to be heart disease.

RECORD BREAKING.

A Great Day at Terre Haute for Racing.

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 10.—Three world records were beaten at the trotting meeting here yesterday. They were the fastest stallion record, the fastest mile paced or trotted in a race, and three fastest heats. The Maine stallion, Nelson, made a mile in 2:11 1/4. In the free-for-all pacing Hal Pointer made a mile in 2:09 1/4. The time in the other two heats was 2:15 1/4 and 2:13.

SENATOR M. W. RANSOM.

HE SPEAKS AT THE COURT HOUSE.

A Large Crowd in Attendance—A Good Speech from a Good Democrat—Read and His Rulings Shown Up.

Senator M. W. Ransom spoke at the court house in this city to-day. The crowd in attendance was large and the court house was comfortably filled. Senator Ransom was introduced by Gen. T. L. Clingman and spoke for some time on the political issues of the campaign.

The speaker began by stating that he had been sick for some time and was really unable to be on the canvass, but felt it his duty. He said that all the improvements that had taken place in Asheville in eighteen years had been brought about by the democratic party. "If the bad government of the republican party had been kept up," he continued, "this condition of improvements would never have been brought about. The administration of justice was corrupt when the republican party was in power. From 1845 to 1875 there was not a white man in the state with a family who, when he went to bed at night did not tremble at what might be the possible fate of his family before the next morning. Now he sleeps in peaceful happiness. This is a monument to the democratic party. It seems strange that a sensible white man can be anything else than a democrat.

THE ONLY FREE GOVERNMENT.

"As to the national government, we have the best government in the world, it is the only free government that ever existed. To be happy, good and virtuous a man must be able to say, 'I am a free man.' This government has been handed down by our forefathers and we should try to preserve it. The soul of this free government is that the people are the law makers. They elect their representatives to congress and they voice the sentiments of the people. Reed was elected speaker of the house and has suppressed this voice of the people. The most important bills ever submitted to congress have been hurried through the house by Reed's rulings. Less tyrannical acts than these of Speaker Reed cost King Charles his head.

"This state of affairs is to a certain extent the fault of the democrats of the Ninth district. When the last congress met there was but three majority for the republicans in the house of representatives. If Brower, from the Fifth district and Ewart from the Ninth district had not been there, the democrats would have had a majority and Reed would not have been imposed on the people. I ask you not to commit this error again. If the democrats of the Fifth and Ninth districts had done their duty at the polls we would have a despotism we would not have a force bill and a tariff.

THE FORCE BILL.

"The force bill provides that congressional elections in the southern states shall be overlooked and supervised by a federal officer appointed not by the people but by a federal judge and this supervisor will have to give his certificate as to who is elected and who is not. That force bill is on the table of the senate. This bill now has a republican majority of ten, but if the people elect a democratic house, these leaders will find the sentiment of the people are opposed to it and will halt.

The reason for the poverty of the southern country is the bad laws of the republican party. The tariff law of the war, and which was in force until Oct. 1 was the highest ever passed and the average tax was 45 per cent. The new tariff bill puts an average tax of 60 per cent. on dutiable articles."

Senator Ransom referred to the Blair bill and its failure to pass. He alluded to the difference between Mr. Cleveland's administration and Mr. Harrison's, in that Cleveland appointed numerous southerners to position and Harrison but a few.

Whenever Cleveland's name was mentioned, the crowd gave hearty applause.

Senator Ransom said he had voted for Z. B. Vance for governor in 1862 and that he wanted everybody to support him for United States senator as the best friend the farmer ever had.

Rube Burrows' Remains.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 10.—Rube Burrows' body was taken to Lamar county yesterday and delivered to his father at Sulligent station. The old man wept at the sight of his boy's remains, and his sister went into hysterics, crying out that he was shot down like a dog.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

Hon. F. M. Simmons, of New Bern, ex-congressman from the second district, will shortly move to Winston to practice law.

The Hanson Place Baptist church congregation, New York, has unanimously voted to extend a call to the Rev. A. C. Dixon, a North Carolinian now living in Baltimore.

Wiley Madison Williams, of Raleigh, was stricken with paralysis on Monday, and died on Tuesday. He was a gallant member of Ellis', afterwards Manly's battery at the celebration of the Mecklenburg centennial at Charlotte in 1875, by a premature discharge of a cannon he was serving, he lost both hands and all of one arm and a part of the other. He was in his 37th year.

Miss Annie H. Young left two weeks ago for Trenton, N. J., for the purpose of teaching. After passing a most creditable examination before the state normal school, she was assigned a position. Upon entering her class room, she was shocked to find her pupils were a mixture of whites and blacks. Her exit and resignation were made instantaneous. She left at once for Staunton, Va., where she has a pleasant and honorable position.—Henderson Tomahawk.

EWART AND THE ALLIANCE

HE WILL NOT SIGN ITS DEMANDS.

Crawford Can and Does Because the Democratic Platform and the Alliance Are Agreed at All Essential Points.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Oct. 7, 1890.—"Oh, what tangled web we weave when first we practice to deceive."

Ewart is in very bad shape! In fact Ewart is getting in worse shape every day. His efforts, never before attempted, to ride three platforms at one and the same time, is proving disastrous. He is a short coupled man, and the stretch is too great, and if the three animals do not become more tractable, and get closer together some way, the little lawyer-alliance man will be split clean to his collar button before November. He has undertaken too much. His ambition is far in excess of his "reach." The platform upon which he was placed at Waynesville—his own little platform of opposition to his party at Washington—and the Farmers' alliance platform, are so dissimilar, that a catastrophe is imminent. This fact was made patent to all who heard the discussion to-day. The inconsistency of this attempt at political equestrianism is too bald to deceive any one. The fact is, no one is being deceived. Ewart is understood by every one. His record in congress allies him fully with the party which has laid the foundation for and built thereon every monopoly and trust which curses the American people to-day. His boasted freedom from the influence of his party caucus, founded solely upon his pretended opposition to the force bill, is too thin. He knew it he voted for that measure he would be inevitably damned politically in this district. It was kick or die with him, and he kicked, of course.

EWART AS AN ALLIANCE MAN.

Ewart's claim that he is a member, legally, of the Farmers' alliance, is equally ridiculous. He only quit practicing law because, for the time being, politics paid him better. He has never given up his license. He will begin the practice of law after his present term in congress expires. Every intelligent man knows this as well as Ewart himself. Every intelligent farmer knows that if he favored the principals of the alliance, he would never have cast his vote for the McKinley tariff bill, which has for its object the destruction of the very economic system which the alliance was formed to destroy. It was just such bills as the McKinley bill that have forced the farmers to combine for the purpose of self-preservation. Nearly all of Ewart's speech to-day was devoted to trying to explain why he was a friend of the farmers' alliance. It was a miserable failure. Crawford showed in a few words why he was the friend of the alliance. He had signed every demand that order had made, and in doing so he only subscribed to his party platform adopted at Raleigh. He showed why Ewart could not sign those demands. They were directly antagonistic to the policy and practices of the republican party. Ewart could not sign them without abandoning the party which nominated him. Ewart's votes as a member of congress were diametrically opposed to every one of these demands.

EWART UNDER THE WHIP.

There was a large crowd here to-day. Crawford has met Ewart on his native heath and still lives. Ewart created no enthusiasm whatever, and the signs of his impending defeat are becoming more marked upon his face every day. He looks tired and careworn, and every word he utters in his speeches is spoken as if under the whip.

The fact is, Ewart would like to get rid of this canvass entirely if he could do so without giving up the fight before the election decides it against him. The iron has entered his soul; the handwriting is on the wall; Ewart's congressional days are numbered. He gave his critics a few more bitter words to-day. He says we are clever enough personally, but in our opposition to him our political character is made bad. All right, Hamilton Glover, same to you.

Look out for another dodge! He cannot stand the pressure! J. P. K.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

The London Standard's Madrid correspondent says that Spain cannot make a special treaty with America with reference to the West Indies without extending the same privileges to Europe.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, speaking at Gloucester, described John Morley's statements regarding his experiences in Ireland as a traveler's tale. A recurrence of the fame of 1846, he said, was impossible. Mr. Morley reiterates all his statements, declaring them true.

WASHINGTON.

The reported recall of Baron Fara, the Italian minister, is discredited at the State department.

There is said to be a strong probability of an extra session of congress after the election with the view of passing the force bill.

Claim agents in Washington are much excited over the determination of the treasury department to forward payments direct to claimant and to recognize no powers of attorney.

HOME.

The colored republicans of the Petersburg, Va., district have nominated John M. Langston for congress.

Ex-City Treasurer Fitzpatrick, of Terre Haute, Ind., is $15,522 short in his accounts. His immediate predecessor was a defaulter.

The steamship City of New York has again beaten the Teutonic across the Atlantic, making for the winner's record now the best three in five races.

In the Lutheran Synod of Maryland yesterday a resolution was adopted, urging that the world's fair to be held at Chicago shall close its gates on Sunday.

Mr. William M. Ayres is making a democratic tariff contest in the fourth Pennsylvania congressional district, and Hon. Richard Vaux will have no republican opponent in the third district.

Excitement more intense than ever before experienced among mining men in Northern Ontario has been caused by the discovery of quartz carrying gold in immense quantities in the township of Brington.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

—THE—
NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater amount of doses is required to effect a cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
